Testing North Korea The Next Stage In Us And Rok Policy Task Force Report:

Testing North Korea: The Next Stage in U.S. and ROK Policy Morton I. Abramowitz, Morton Abramowitz, James T. Laney, 2001-09 This task force co chaired by Morton I Abramowitz and James T Laney argues that successful implementation of the Agreed Framework between the United States and North Korea which froze Pyongyang's known nuclear program in exchange for two light water reactors and other economic benefits faces considerable challenges U.S. Nuclear Weapons Policy William James Perry, Brent Scowcroft, Charles D. Ferguson, 2009 The report notes that in the near term nuclear weapons will remain a fundamental element of U S national security For this reason it emphasizes the importance of maintaining a safe secure and reliable deterrent nuclear force and makes recommendations on this front The report also offers measures to advance important goals such as preventing nuclear terrorism and bolstering the nuclear nonproliferation regime Foreword U.S. Strategy for Pakistan and Afghanistan Richard Lee Armitage, Samuel R. Berger, Daniel Seth Markey, 2010 The Council on Foreign Relations sponsors Independent Task Forces to assess issues of current and critical importance to U S foreign policy and provide policymakers with concrete judgments and recommendations Diverse in backgrounds and perspectives Task Force members aim to reach a meaningful consensus on policy through private and non partisan deliberations Once launched Task Forces are independent of CFR and solely responsible for the content of their reports Task Force members are asked to join a consensus signifying that they endorse the general policy thrust and judgments reached by the group though not necessarily every finding and recommendation Each Task Force member also has the option of putting forward an additional or a dissenting view Members affiliations are listed for identification purposes only and do not imply institutional endorsement Task Force observers participate in discussions but are not asked to join the consensus Book Jacket U.S. Trade and Investment Policy Andrew H. Card, Edward H. Alden, Council on Foreign Relations, Matthew Jon Slaughter, 2011 From American master Ward Just returning to his trademark territory of Forgetfulness and The Weather in Berlin an evocative portrait of diplomacy and desire set against the backdrop of America's first lost war U.S. Education Reform and National Security Joel I. Klein, Condoleezza Rice, Julia Levy, 2014-05-14 The United States failure to educate its students leaves them unprepared to compete and threatens the country's ability to thrive in a global economy and maintain its leadership role This report notes that while the United States invests more in K 12 public education than many other developed countries its students are ill prepared to compete with their global peers According to the results of the 2009 Program for International Student Assessment PISA an international assessment that measures the performance of 15 year olds in reading mathematics and science every three years U S students rank fourteenth in reading twenty fifth in math and seventeenth in science compared to students in other industrialized countries The lack of preparedness poses threats on five national security fronts economic growth and competitiveness physical safety intellectual property U S global awareness and U S unity and cohesion says the report Too many young people are not employable in an increasingly high skilled and global economy and too many are not qualified to join the military because they are physically unfit have criminal records or have an inadequate level of education The report proposes three overarching policy recommendations implement educational expectations and assessments in subjects vital to protecting national security make structural changes to provide students with good choices and launch a national security readiness audit to hold schools and policymakers accountable for results and to raise public awareness

U.S. Policy Toward the Korean Peninsula Charles L. Pritchard, John H. Tilelli, Scott Snyder, 2010 This Task Force report comprehensively reviews the situation on the peninsula as well as the options for U S policy It provides a valuable ranking of U S interests and calls for a firm commitment from the Obama administration to seek denuclearization of the Korean peninsula backed by a combination of sanctions incentives and sustained political pressure in addition to increased efforts to contain proliferation It notes that China s participation in this effort is vital Indeed the report makes clear that any hope of North Korea s dismantling its nuclear program rests on China s willingness to take a strong stance For denuclearization to proceed China must acknowledge that the long term hazard of a nuclear Korea is more perilous to it and the region than the short term risk of instability The report also recognizes that robust relations between Washington and its allies in the region Japan and South Korea must underpin any efforts to deal with the North Korean problem It looks as well at regime change and scenarios that could lead to reunification of the peninsula At the same time that the Task Force emphasizes the danger and urgency of North Korea s behavior it recognizes and applauds the beneficial U S relationship with South Korea which has proved to be a valuable economic and strategic partner In this vein the Task Force advocates continued close coordination with Seoul and urges prompt congressional passage of the U S South Korea free trade agreement

A Sharper Choice on North Korea Mike Mullen, Sam Nunn, Adam Mount, 2016-09-01

U.S. Immigration Policy Council on Foreign Relations. Independent Task Force on U.S. Immigration Policy, Jeb Bush, Thomas F. McLarty, Edward H. Alden, 2009 The Council on Foreign Relations sponsors Independent Task Forces to assess issues of current and critical importance to U S foreign policy and provide policy makers with concrete judgments and recommendations Diverse in backgrounds and perspectives Task Force members aim to reach a meaningful consensus on policy through private and nonpartisan deliberations Once launched Task Forces are independent of CFR and solely responsible for the content of their reports Task Force members are asked to join a consensus signifying that they endorse the general policy thrust and judgments reached by the group though not necessarily every finding and recommendation Each Task Force member also has the option of putting forward an additional or dissenting view Members affiliations are listed for identification purposes only and do not imply institutional endorsement Task Force observers participate in discussions but are not asked to join the consensus

Book jacket North America Council on Foreign Relations, 2014-10-01 This CFR sponsored Independent Task Force report North America Time for a New Focus asserts that elevating and prioritizing the U S Canada Mexico relationship offers the best opportunity for strengthening the United States and its place in the world      Testing North Korea Morton Abramowitz, James T. Laney, Council on Foreign Relations, 2001 This Independent Task Force Report addresses the challenges of balancing diplomacy and deterrence in this next critical stage on the Korean peninsula      Global Brazil and U.S.-Brazil Relations Council on Foreign Relations. Independent Task Force on Brazil, Samuel W. Bodman, Julia Sweig, James D. Wolfensohn, 2011 July 12 2011 Over the course of a generation Brazil has emerged as both a driver of growth in South America and as an active force in world politics A new Council on Foreign Relations CFR sponsored Independent Task Force report asserts that it is in the interest of the United States to understand Brazil as a complex international actor whose influence on the defining global issues of the day is only likely to increase Brazil currently ranks as the world's fifth largest landmass fifth largest population and expects to soon be ranked the fifth largest economy The report Global Brazil and U.S. Brazil Relations recommends that U.S. policymakers recognize Brazil's standing as a global actor treat its emergence as an opportunity for the United States and work with Brazil to develop complementary policies The Task Force is chaired by former secretary of energy Samuel W. Bodman and former president of the World Bank James D. Wolfensohn and directed by CFR Senior Fellow and Director for Latin America Studies and Director of the Global Brazil Initiative Julia E. Sweig Recognizing Brazil's global role the report recommends that the Obama administration now fully endorse the country's bid for a seat as a permanent member of the United Nations Security Council UNSC It argues that a formal endorsement from the United States for Brazil would go far to overcome lingering suspicion within the Brazilian government that the U.S. commitment to a mature relationship between equals is largely rhetorical Domestically Brazil's inclusive growth has translated into a significant reduction of inequality an expansion of the middle class and a vibrant economy all framed within a democratic context Consequently Brazil has been able to use its economic bona fides to leverage a stronger position in the international commercial and diplomatic arena The report stresses the importance of regular communication between the presidents of both countries Cooperation between the United States and Brazil holds too much promise for miscommunication or inevitable disagreements to stand in the way of potential gains A mature working relationship means that the United States and Brazil can help each other advance mutual interests even without wholesale policy agreements between the two notes the report The Task Force further recommends that the U.S. Congress include an elimination of the ethanol tariff in any bill regarding reform to the ethanol and biofuel tax credit regime the United States take the first step to waive visa requirements for Brazilians by immediately reviewing Brazil's criteria for participation in the Visa Waiver Program the U.S. State Department create an Office for Brazilian Affairs and the National Security Council NSC centralize its efforts under a NSC director for Brazil in order to better coordinate the current decentralized U.S. policy The bipartisan Task Force includes thirty distinguished experts on Brazil who represent a range of perspectives and backgrounds The report includes a number of additional views by Task Force members including one that notes We believe that a more gradual approach regarding Brazil

s inclusion as a full UNSC member would likely have more success in navigating the diplomatic complexities presented by U S support for Brazil Another view asserts If the United States supports as the Obama administration has said it does leadership structures in international institutions that are more reflective of international realities it must support without qualifications Brazil s candidacy for the UNSC Defending an Open, Global, Secure, and Resilient Internet Council on Foreign Relations,2013-06-01 The CFR sponsored Independent Task Force report Defending an Open Global Secure and Resilient Internet finds that as more people and services become interconnected and dependent on the Internet societies are becoming increasingly vulnerable to cyberattacks To support security innovation growth and the free flow of information the Task Force recommends that the United States and its partners work to build a cyber alliance make the free flow of information a part of all future trade agreements and articulate an inclusive and robust vision of Internet governance

Recalibrating the U.S.-Republic of Korea alliance , The principal focus of the papers collected in this book is the Republic of Korea ROK U S alliance and the challenges it faces from tensions within the alliance the effects of the alliance partners interaction with North Korea and the economic pressures that affect the alliance These papers were presented at the 16th Annual Conference of the Council on U S Korea Security Studies in October 2001 Because of the elapsed time the reader could be tempted to think that the events since these papers were presented have overtaken the arguments of the presenters This is far from the truth Each of these papers reflects the enduring historical forces geopolitical realities and national interests that affect Northeast Asia the Korean peninsula and the ROK U S alliance The descriptions of the alliance mechanisms the Armistice machinery the Agreed Framework and the economic imperatives that affect the alliance thus have continuing value The policy recommendations are still germane and worthy of the consideration of those to whom the future of the alliance is entrusted Working With a Rising India Charles R. Kaye,Joseph S. Nye Jr.,Alyssa Ayres,2015-11-01

India now matters to U S interests in virtually every dimension This CFR sponsored Independent Task Force report directed by Alyssa Ayres assesses the current situation in India and the U S India relationship and suggests a new model for partnership with a rising India U.S.-Turkey Relations Madeline Albright,Steven Cook,Stephen Hadley,Senior Fellow Steven A Cook,2012-05 Turkey is a rising regional and global power facing as is the United States the challenges of political transitions in the Middle East bloodshed in Syria and Iran s pursuit of nuclear weapons As a result it is incumbent upon the leaders of the United States and Turkey to define a new partnership in order to make a strategic relationship a reality says a new Council on Foreign Relations CFR sponsored Independent Task Force The Hidden Gulag United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Foreign Relations. Subcommittee on East Asian and Pacific Affairs,2004 The Emerging Global Health Crisis Council on Foreign Relations,2014-12-01 Rates of heart disease cancer diabetes and other noncommunicable diseases NCDs in low and middle income countries are increasing faster in younger people and with worse outcomes than in wealthier countries In 2013 alone NCDs killed eight million people before their sixtieth birthdays in developing countries A new CFR sponsored Independent Task Force report and accompanying interactive look at the factors behind this epidemic and the ways the United States can best fight it      U.S. Policy Toward North Korea Council on Foreign Relations, Morton Abramowitz, 1999 The Korean peninsula remains one of the world's most dangerous places While North Korea has an army of 1.2 million troops and holds Seoul hostage with its missiles and artillery Pyongyang is in desperate straits after a decade of economic decline food shortages and diplomatic isolation In 1998 former U.S. Defense Secretary William Perry traveled to Pyongyang to propose increasing outside aid from the United States South Korea and Japan in exchange for North Korea's promise to reduce military provocations The third in a series of influential Task Force reports on Korea policy this study argues that in spite of tensions the United States should continue to support South Korea's engagement policy and keep Perry's proposal on the table The Task Force recommends that should North Korea increase tensions by testing long range missiles the United States and its allies should take a new approach to Pyongyang including enhancing U.S. Japan and South Korean deterrence against other North Korean threats suspending new South Korean investment in North Korea and placing new Japanese restrictions on financial transfers to the North By suggesting the possibility of gradually reducing the danger on the Korean peninsula this report represents a crucial addition to the discussion of U.S. North Korean economic relations

Reshaping Rogue States Alexander T.J. Lennon, Camille Eiss, 2004-07-09 An analysis of the policies of preemption and regime change as well as an examination of US policy options for dealing with each country in the axis of evil In January 2002 President George W. Bush declared Iran Iraq and North Korea constituents of an axis of evil US strategy toward each of these countries has clearly varied since yet similar issues and policy options have emerged for US relations with all three Reshaping Rogue States seeks to improve our understanding of Iran Iraq and North Korea as well as of current and future policy options to combat the threats these nations pose The book's comprehensive analysis of preemption and regime change debates the circumstances under which each policy might be justified or legal under international law Prominent strategists and policymakers consider alternatives to preemption including prevention counterproliferation and cooperative security and draw conclusions from efforts to bring about regime change in the past Reshaping Rogue States also reviews the differing policy challenges presented by each so called axis member Specifically it considers how the United States might strike a balance with North Korea through multilateral negotiations the changes within Iran that call for changes in US policy and the dilemmas the United States faces in post Saddam Iraq including continuing insurgency instability and the feasibility of democracy      North Korea in Quotation , 2005-06-30 Since the end of World War II the small country of North Korea has occupied a disproportionate amount of the world's diplomatic and military attention Its defiance of the international community has mystified and frustrated generations of leaders both in Asia and throughout the world With its closed borders and xenophobic leadership little is known about North Korea's government or its intentions leaving us to examine the words of the country's leaders and international statesmen analysts and journalists for a balanced critical assessment of North

Korea and its relationship to the world The 20 categories covered here provide an overview of the breadth of issues facing the Northeast Asian country For each quote the speaker and his or her title are identified along with the original source of the quotation and its context Indexed by speaker subject and keywords
