Botson, 2005 Annotation On July 12 1964 in a momentous decision the National Labor Relations Board decertified the racially segregated Independent Metal Workers Union as the collective bargaining agent at Houston's mammoth Hughes Tool Company The unanimous decision ending nearly fifty years of Jim Crow unionism at the company marked the first ruling in the Labor Board's history that racial discrimination by a union violated the National Labor

Relations Act and was therefore illegal This ruling was for black workers the equivalent of the Brown v Board of Education decision by the Supreme Court in the area of education Botson traces the Jim Crow unionism of the company and the efforts of black union activists to bring civil rights issues into the workplace His analysis clearly demonstrates that without federal intervention workers at Hughes Tool would never have been able to overcome management's opposition to unionization and to racial equality Drawing on interviews with many of the principals as well as extensive mining of company and legal archives Botson's study captures a moment in time when a segment of Houston's working class seized the initiative and won economic and racial justice in their work place America, History and Life ,1993 Provides historical coverage of the United States and Canada from prehistory to the present Includes information abstracted from over 2 000 journals published worldwide The American West Robert V. Hine,John Mack Faragher,2000-01-01 Two eminent historians Robert V Hine and John Mack Faragher present the American West as both frontier and region real and imagined old and new and they show how men and women of all ethnic groups were affected when different cultures met and clashed Their concise and engaging survey of frontier history traces the story from the first Columbian contacts between Indians and Europeans to the multicultural encounters of the modern Southwest The book attunes us to the voices of the frontier's many diverse peoples Indians struggling to defend their homelands and searching for a way to live with colonialism the men and women who became immigrants and colonists from all over the world African Americans both slave and free and borderland migrants from Mexico Canada and Asian lands Profusely illustrated with contemporary drawings posters and photographs and written in lively and accessible prose the book not only presents a panoramic view of historical events and characters but also provides fascinating details about such topics as western landscapes environmental movements literature visual arts and film Following in the tradition of Hine's earlier acclaimed work The American West An Interpretive History this volume will be an essential resource for scholars students and general readers Questing Excellence in Academia Knut H. Sørensen,Sharon Traweek,2022-01-29 Unlike almost most other studies of neoliberal universities and academic capitalism this book ethnographically explores and interprets those transformations and their contradictions empirically in the everyday practices of students faculty members and administrators at two public universities NTNU in Norway and UCLA in California Differently situated in global political economies both are ambitious prosperous campuses The book reflexively examines their disturbing disputes about quality competition and innovation It argues that some academic bureaucratic and corporate university governance practices are both unsustainable and undermining what some university students and faculty already do well circulate interdisciplinary knowledge and its making globally across the diasporic domains of academia society industry and government while addressing the world's immediate challenges power inequities and sustainability It shows the important strategic work of domesticating co morphing and meshworking at the faultlines of emerging knowledge This book is for students faculty society members and policy makers who want to engage more effectively with contemporary universities that increasingly serve as busy crossroads for sharing ideas and how to make them It will be of interest to workers and scholars in the interdisciplinary fields of higher education studies critical university studies and critical public infrastructure studies plus science technology and society studies The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
