Texas State Directory Texas State Directory,1993-01-01 Texas State Directory ,2008 Texas State Directory Texas State Directory,2007-02 Representing Texas Ben R. Guttery,2008-03-02 Representing Texas is a compendium of biographies of the men and women who have represented the state in the United States and Confederate Congresses These biographies include information about the representative s birth education marriages family experiences profession elections congressional record and death records including burial site In addition to the biographies there are lists of U S Senators by succession U S Representatives by district Representatives and Senators to the Confederate Congresses Confederate Congressional Districts by county Confederate Congress session dates U S Congress session dates and U S Congressional Districts by county A complete set of U S Senator election returns and U S Representative election returns from Texas completes the work Also included is a bibliography The work was completed following interviews with living ex members of Congress and current sitting members of Congress from Texas The work is the only one to address the topic specific to Texas and is a valuable reference for any Texas library and any history or political researcher Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications ,1994 Monthly Catalogue, United States Public Documents ,1994 Public School Directory of the State of Texas Texas. State Dept. of Education,1928 Texas State Publications Index ,1989-07 The Publishers Weekly ,1988 The Latina Advantage Christina E. Bejarano,2013-09-01 During the past decade racial ethnic minority women have made significant strides in U S politics comprising large portions of their respective minority delegations both in Congress and in state legislatures This trend has been particularly evident in the growing political presence of Latinas yet scholars have offered no clear explanations for this electoral phenomenon until now In The Latina Advantage Christina E Bejarano draws on national public opinion datasets and a close examination of state legislative candidates in Texas and California to demonstrate the new power of the political intersection between race and gender Underscoring the fact that racial ethnic minority women form a greater share of minority representatives than do white women among white elected officials Bejarano provides empirical evidence to substantiate previous theoretical predictions of the strategic advantage in the intersectionality of gender and ethnicity in Latinas Her evidence indicates that two factors provide the basis for the advantage increasingly qualified candidates and the softening of perceived racial threat leading minority female candidates to encounter fewer disadvantages than their male counterparts Overturning the findings of classic literature that reinforce stereotypes and describe minority female political candidates as being at a compounded electoral disadvantage Bejarano brings a crucial new perspective to dialogues about the rapidly shifting face of America s electorate Monthly Checklist of State Publications Library of Congress.
