Text And Truth:

Text and Truth Francis Watson,1997 Francis Watson advocates an approach in which biblical interpretation seeks to contribute directly to the work of Christian theological construction thus restoring the status of the Bible as the holy scripture of the Christian community

The Islamic Secular Sherman A. Jackson,2024 This book argues that the meaning of secular in the West and in Islam differ fundamentally Though the Islamic secular is a liberation from Islam s sacred law shari ah it is neither outside religion nor a rival to it it seeks neither to discipline nor displace religion nor expand its own jurisdiction at religion s expense The Islamic Secular is in Sherman Jackson s view a complement to religion in effect a religious secular In this book Jackson makes the case for the Islamic Secular on the basis of Islam s own pre modern juristic tradition and shows how the Islamic Secular impacts the relationship between Islam and the modern state including the Islamic State

Trinitarian Interpretation in Light of the Identity of YHWH as the Triune God Alias K. Eldhose,2024-01-10 Have you ever wondered how to maintain an understanding of monotheism in light of the Christian understanding of the triune Godhead Have you ever wondered about the identity of YHWH in the Old Testament Have you identified YHWH as the first person of the Trinity as many in the Christian tradition have If so this book is for you Many of the early Trinitarian heresies stemmed from a misunderstanding of YHWH in the Old Testament especially identifying YHWH as one person and not multiple persons This book addresses issues relating to the identity of YHWH in the Old Testament and makes the bold claim that YHWH is multiple persons in the OT and therefore Father is YHWH Jesus is YHWH and the Holy Spirit is YHWH This conclusion is based on sound exegesis of OT NT passages the early Christian understanding of God in the Old Testament and the New Testament s identification of Jesus in the identity of YHWH If identified thus a Christian reading of the entirety of Scripture will take on new meaning resulting in a robust Trinitarian interpretation of Scripture

Real Knowing Linda Martín Alcoff,2018-10-18 Real knowing always involves a political dimension Linda Mart n Alcoff suggests But this does not mean we need to give up realism or the possibility of truth Recent work in continental philosophy insists on the influence that power and desire exert on knowing whereas contemporary analytic philosophy largely ignores these political concerns in its accounts of justification and truth Alcoff engages these traditionally conflicting approaches in a constructive dialogue effectively spanning the analytic continental divide In provocative readings of major figures in the continental tradition Alcoff shows that the work of Hans Georg Gadamer and Michel Foucault can help rectify key problems in coherence epistemology such as the link between coherence and truth She also argues that discussions about knowledge among continental philosophers can benefit from the work of analytic philosophers Donald Davidson and Hilary Putnam on meaning and ontology Alcoff makes a compelling case for the need to address truth as a metaphysical issue in contrast to minimalist tendencies in Anglo American philosophy and deconstructionism on the continent Her work persuasively argues for coherentist epistemology as a more realistic reconfiguration of the ontology of truth

What is Islam? Shahab Ahmed,2016 A bold new conceptualization of Islam that reflects its contradictions and rich diversity What is Islam How do we grasp a human and historical phenomenon characterized by such variety and contradiction What is Islamic about Islamic philosophy or Islamic art Should we speak of Islam or of islams Should we distinguish the Islamic the religious from the Islamicate the cultural Or should we abandon Islamic altogether as an analytical term In What Is Islam Shahab Ahmed presents a bold new conceptualization of Islam that challenges dominant understandings grounded in the categories of religion and culture or those that privilege law and scripture He argues that these modes of thinking obstruct us from understanding Islam distorting it diminishing it and rendering it incoherent What Is Islam formulates a new conceptual language for analyzing Islam It presents a new paradigm of how Muslims have historically understood divine revelation one that enables us to understand how and why Muslims through history have embraced values such as exploration ambiguity aestheticization polyvalence and relativism as well as practices such as figural art music and even wine drinking as Islamic It also puts forward a new understanding of the historical constitution of Islamic law and its relationship to philosophical ethics and political theory A book that is certain to provoke debate and significantly alter our understanding of Islam What Is Islam reveals how Muslims have historically conceived of and lived with Islam as norms and truths that are at once contradictory yet coherent Call, Responding and the Worlds Inbetween Johann-Albrecht Meylahn,2020-01-10 The book is a reading of numerous contemporary continental philosophers Badiou Deleuze and Guattari Laruelle and Derrida amongst others and bringing them into conversation with each other around various ethical and political challenges of living in capitalist worlds What can contemporary continental philosophy offer with regards to the questions of decolonial thinking the challenges of identity politics the formation of political identities in response to the dominant norms in the context of the struggles of victims of these norms An Empire of Memory Matthew Gabriele,2011-03-24 Beginning shortly after Charlemagne s death in 814 the inhabitants of his historical empire looked back upon his reign and saw in it an exemplar of Christian universality Christendom They mapped contemporary Christendom onto the past and so during the ninth tenth and eleventh centuries the borders of his empire grew with each retelling almost always including the Christian East Although the pull of Jerusalem on the West seems to have been strong during the eleventh century it had a more limited effect on the Charlemagne legend Instead the legend grew during this period because of a peculiar fusion of ideas carried forward from the ninth century but filtered through the social cultural and intellectual developments of the intervening years Paradoxically Charlemagne became less important to the Charlemagne legend The legend became a story about the Frankish people who believed they had held God's favour under Charlemagne and held out hope that they could one day reclaim their special place in sacred history Indeed popular versions of the Last Emperor legend which spoke of a great ruler who would reunite Christendom in preparation for the last battle between good and evil promised just this to the Franks Ideas of empire identity and Christian religious violence were potent reagents The mixture of these ideas could remind men of their Frankishness and move them for example to take up arms march to the East and reclaim their place as defenders of the faith during the First Crusade An Empire of Memory uses the legend of Charlemagne an often overlooked current in early medieval thought to look at how the contours of the relationship between East and West moved across centuries particularly in the period leading up to the First Crusade

Analysing Media Texts Andrew Burn,David Parker,2003-12-01 Andrew Burn and David Parker outline how multi modality theory can be used to analyze texts

which employ multiple semiotic modes and media in such a way that a balanced consideration is given to the characteristics of each mode how they integrate and how they distribute textual functions between them The methods are rooted in a view of significance as dependent on social context and fulfilling the social and communicative interests of both producers of textual production and use contingent upon digital formats will also be a determining content of the analytical method
