Resisting Qualifications Reforms in New Zealand, 2019-02-18 New Zealand has been a veritable laboratory for a range of social experiments in the last twenty years including an arranged marriage with neo liberal economic policies during the late 80s and 90s These experiments extended to education where students teachers teacher educators and researchers have experienced wide ranging reforms in administration curriculum and qualifications The most contentious of these have been a series of untried and radical qualifications reforms This book offers a critical examination of these reforms from the perspective of a group of educators who resisted them by doing the unthinkable devising their own national qualification and making it work

The Handbook of Dual Language Bilingual Education Juan A. Freire, Cristina Alfaro, Ester de Jong, 2023-09-29 This handbook presents a state of the art overview of dual language bilingual education

DLBE research programs pedagogy and practice Organized around four sections theoretical foundations key issues and trends school based practices and teacher and administrator preparation the volume comprehensively addresses major and emerging topics in the field With contributions from expert scholars the handbook highlights programs that honor the assets of language minoritized and marginalized students and provides empirically grounded guidance for asset based instruction Chapters cover historical and policy considerations leadership family relations professional development community partnerships race class gender and more Synthesizing major issues discussing central themes and advancing policy and practice this handbook is a seminal volume and definitive reference text in bilingual second language education Making Progress in Writing Eve Bearne,2003-08-29 Children s achievements in writing lag behind their achievements in reading speaking and listening National tests are beginning to expose this gap and inevitably it is raising concerns The issue is not without controversy but regardless of the politics of the situation national progress in children s writing is both needed and possible This new book from Eve Bearne makes a valuable contribution towards helping teachers close this gap Uniquely it follows the structure of the National Literacy Strategy whilst examining key areas such as bridging KS2 and KS3 writing and writing skills beyond the Literacy Hour Such a structure makes the book incredibly practical and easy to use providing essential information for both practitioners and academics Journal of the House of Representatives of the United States United States. Congress. House,2005 Some vols include supplemental journals of such proceedings of the sessions as during the time they were depending were ordered to be kept secret and respecting which the injunction of secrecy was afterwards taken off by the order of the House Multilingual Learning and Language Supportive Pedagogies in Sub-Saharan Africa Elizabeth J. Erling,John Clegg,Casmir M. Rubagumya,Colin Reilly,2021-07-01 This edited collection provides unprecedented insight into the emerging field of multilingual education in Sub Saharan Africa SSA Multilingual education is claimed to have many benefits amongst which are that it can improve both content and language learning especially for learners who may have low ability in the medium of instruction and are consequently struggling to learn The book represents a range of Sub Saharan school contexts and describes how multilingual strategies have been developed and implemented within them to support the learning of content and language It looks at multilingual learning from several points of view including translanguaging or the use of multiple languages and especially African languages for learning and language supportive pedagogy or the implementation of a distinct pedagogy to support learners working through the medium of a second language The book puts forward strategies for creating materials classroom environments and teacher education programmes which support the use of all of a student s languages to improve language and content learning The contexts which the book describes are challenging including low school resourcing poverty and low literacy in the home and school policy which militates against the use of African languages in school The volume also draws on multilingual education approaches which have been successfully carried out in higher resource countries and lend themselves to being adapted for use in SSA It shows how multilingual learning can bring about transformation in education and provides inspiration for how these strategies might spread and be further developed to improve learning in schools in SSA and beyond Chapter 3 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com>
