

The Harlem Renaissance Literary Era

(c. 1918–1930)

- A flowering of African-American literature, art, and music during the 1920s in New York City.
- The Harlem Renaissance brought along a new creative energy for African American literature. This literary cultural movement was to reject the traditional American standards of writing and discover and utilize their own style of writing to signify their cultural identity.
- The Harlem Renaissance was an artistic high point of the "New Negro" movement as its participants celebrated their African heritage and embraced self-expression, rejecting long-standing—and often degrading—stereotypes.
- Indeed, Traditionally the Harlem Renaissance was viewed primarily as a literary movement centered in Harlem and growing out of the black migration and the emergence of Harlem as the premier black metropolis in the United States. Music and theater were mentioned briefly, more as background and local color, as providing inspiration for poetry and local color for fiction.

Francis,2002 The novelists of the Harlem Renaissance began writing at a point in America s literary history when the romantic tradition was being set aside for the gutsy truth telling of realist literature Modern criticism seems to take the flowery nineteenth century prose found in the works of Chesnutt Dunbar Du Bois and others as an indication that they were writing in the romantic style This is understandable but flawed Almost all of the stories written during the Renaissance contained references to slavery or to Post Reconstructionist violence For that reason few stories stemming from this period and written by African Americans can be said to be romantic New Voices on the Harlem Renaissance Australia Tarver,Paula C.
