The Harp And The Shadow A Novel:

The Harp and the Shadow Alejo Carpentier, 1992 The Harp and the Shadow Alejo Carpentier, 2007-10 The Facts on File Companion to the World Novel Michael Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2008 Killer Books Aníbal González, 2010-07-05 Writing and violence have been inextricably linked in Spanish America from the Conquest onward Spanish authorities used written edicts laws permits regulations logbooks and account books to control indigenous peoples whose cultures were predominantly oral giving rise to a mingled awe and mistrust of the power of the written word that persists in Spanish American culture to the present day In this masterful study Aníbal González traces and describes how Spanish American writers have reflected ethically in their works about writing's relation to violence and about their own relation to writing Using an approach that owes much to the recent turn to ethics in deconstruction and to the works of Jacques Derrida and Emmanuel Levinas he examines selected short stories and novels by major Spanish American authors from the late nineteenth through the twentieth centuries Manuel Gutiérrez Nájera Manuel Zeno Gandía Teresa de la Parra Jorge Luis Borges Alejo Carpentier Gabriel García Márquez and Julio Cortázar He shows how these authors frequently display an attitude he calls graphophobia an intense awareness of the potential dangers of the written word Theory of the Novel Michael McKeon, 2000-12 McKeon and others delve into the significance of the novel as a genre form issues in novel techniques such as displacement the grand theory narrative modes such as subjectivity character and development critical interpretation of the structure of the novel and the novel in historical context Studies and Essays on Romance Literatures Rodica Grigore, 2025-05-17 Adopting the challenging perspective of Comparative Literature with respect to some important books of the 20th century this collection of essays embodies a symbolic journey trying to find some new and unexplored meanings of certain famous novels short stories or poems decoding images characters and plots in a particular way Covering a wide range of writers from the Romanian poet Lucian Blaga to the Portuguese Fernando Pessoa or from the rather unknown Romanian representative of the avant garde Urmuz to the great Latin American novelists Clarice Lispector Alejo Carpentier Julio Cortázar Gabriel García Márquez or Guillermo Cabrera Infante the studies included in this volume re-read some masterpieces of Romance literatures in the attempt to highlight the deep and often hidden truth of these authors great books This quest also tries to metaphorically cover the distance between the two sides of the Atlantic encompassing the initiatory experience often lived both by the above mentioned writers and their characters The Lights of Home Jason Weiss, 2014-01-02 Because of political cultural or economic difficulties in their homelands Latin American writers have often sought refuge abroad Their independent searches for a haven in which to write often ended in Paris long a city of writers in exile This is more than solely a group biography of these writers or an explication of material they wrote about Paris it is also a luminous account of the work they wrote while in Paris often based in their homelands It explores how Paris reacted to this wave of Latin American writers and how these writers absorbed Parisian influences and welded them to their own traditions setting the stage for immense success and power of works coming from Central and South America over the last half of the twentieth century Magical Realism in Postcolonial British Fiction Taner Can,2014-06-01 This study aims at delineating the cultural work of magical realism as a dominant narrative mode in postcolonial British fiction through a detailed analysis of four magical realist novels Salman Rushdie s Midnight s Children 1981 Shashi Tharoor s The Great Indian Novel 1989 Ben Okri s The Famished Road 1991 and Syl Cheney Coker s The Last Harmattan of Alusine Dunbar 1990 The main focus of attention lies on the ways in which the novelists in question have exploited the potentials of magical realism to represent their hybrid cultural and national identities To provide the necessary historical context for the discussion the author first traces the development of magical realism from its origins in European Painting to its appropriation into literature by European and Latin American writers and explores the contested definitions of magical realism and the critical questions surrounding them He then proceeds to analyze the relationship between the paradigmatic turn that took place in postcolonial literatures in the 1980s and the concomitant rise of magical realism as the literary expression of Third World countries

Where the Wild Books Are Jim Dwyer,2010-04-01 As interest in environmental issues grows many writers of fiction have embraced themes that explore the connections between humans and the natural world Ecologically themed fiction ranges from profound philosophical meditations to action packed entertainments Where the Wild Books Are offers an overview of nearly 2 000 works of nature oriented fiction The author includes a discussion of the precursors and history of the genre and of its expansion since the 1970s He also considers its forms and themes as well as the subgenres into which it has evolved such as speculative fiction ecodefense animal stories mysteries ecofeminist novels cautionary tales and others A brief summary and critical commentary of each title is included Dwyer s scope is broad and covers fiction by Native American writers as well as ecofiction from writers around the world Far more than a mere listing of books Where the Wild Books Are is a lively introduction to a vast universe of engaging provocative writing It can be used to develop book collections or curricula It also serves as an introduction to one of the most fertile areas of contemporary fiction presenting books that will offer enjoyable reading and new insights into the vexing environmental questions of our time Love and the Law in

Cervantes Roberto González Echevarría,2005-01-01 The consolidation of law and the development of legal writing during Spain s Golden Age not only helped that country become a modern state but also affected its great literature In this fascinating book Roberto Gonzalez Echevarria explores the works of Cervantes showing how his representations of love were inspired by examples of human deviance and desire culled from legal discourse Wonder and Exile in the New World

Alex Nava,2015-01-14 In Wonder and Exile in the New World Alex Nava explores the border regions between wonder and exile particularly in relation to the New World It traces the preoccupation with the concept of wonder in the history of the Americas beginning with the first European encounters goes on to investigate later representations in the Baroque age and ultimately enters the twentieth century with the emergence of so called magical realism In telling the story of wonder in the

New World Nava gives special attention to the part it played in the history of violence and exile either as a force that supported and reinforced the Conquest or as a voice of resistance and decolonization Focusing on the work of New World explorers writers and poets and their literary descendants Nava finds that wonder and exile have been two of the most significant metaphors within Latin American cultural literary and religious representations Beginning with the period of the Conquest especially with Cabeza de Vaca and Las Casas continuing through the Baroque with Cervantes and Sor Juana In s de la Cruz and moving into the twentieth century with Alejo Carpentier and Miguel ngel Asturias Nava produces a historical study of Latin American narrative in which religious and theological perspectives figure prominently Postmodern Artistry in Medievalist Fiction Earl R. Anderson, 2018-06-21 Focusing on modern day fiction set in the Middle Ages or that incorporates medieval elements this study examines storytelling components and rhetorical tropes in more than 60 works in five languages by more than 40 authors Medievalist fiction got its postmodern start with such authors as Calvino Fuentes Carpentier and Eco Its momentum increased since the 1990s with writers whose work has received less critical attention like Laura Esquivel Tariq Ali Matthew Pearl Matilde Asensi Ildefonso Falcones Andrew Davison Bernard Cornwell Donnal Woolfolk Cross Ariana Franklin Nicole Griffith Levi Grossman Conn Iggulden Edward Rutherford Javier Sierra Alan Moore and Brenda Vantrease The author explores a wide range of medievalizing tropes discusses the negative responses of postmodernism and posits four hard problems in medievalist fiction The Cambridge Introduction to Intercultural Communication Guido Rings, Sebastian M. Rasinger, 2022-12-08 Uniquely interdisciplinary and accessible The Cambridge Introduction to Intercultural Communication is the ideal text for undergraduate introductory courses in Intercultural Communication International Communication and Cross cultural Communication Suitable for students and practitioners alike it encompasses the breadth of intercultural communication as an academic field and a day to day experience in work and private life including international business public services schools and universities This textbook touches on a range of themes in intercultural communication such as evolutionary and positive psychology key concepts from critical intercultural communication postcolonial studies and transculturality intercultural encounters in contemporary literature and film and the application of contemporary intercultural communication research for the development of health services and military services The concise up to date overviews of key topics are accompanied by a wide variety of tasks and eighteen case studies for in depth discussions homework and assessments The Repeating Island Antonio Benitez-Rojo, 1997-01-10 In this second edition of The Repeating Island Antonio Ben tez Rojo a master of the historical novel short story and critical essay continues to confront the legacy and myths of colonialism This co winner of the 1993 MLA Katherine Singer Kovacs Prize has been expanded to include three entirely new chapters that add a Lacanian perspective and a view of the carnivalesque to an already brilliant interpretive study of Caribbean culture As he did in the first edition Ben tez Rojo redefines the Caribbean by drawing on history economics sociology cultural anthropology psychoanalysis literary theory and nonlinear mathematics His point of departure is chaos theory which holds that order and disorder are not the antithesis of each other in nature but function as mutually generative phenomena Ben tez Rojo argues that within the apparent disorder of the Caribbean the area s discontinuous landmasses its different colonial histories ethnic groups languages traditions and politics there emerges an island of paradoxes that repeats itself and gives shape to an unexpected and complex sociocultural archipelago Ben tez Rojo illustrates this unique form of identity with powerful readings of texts by Las Casas Guill n Carpentier Garc a M rquez Walcott Harris Buitrago and Rodr guez Juli

Visions of Dystopia in China's New Historical Novels Jeffrey C. Kinkley,2014-11-04 The depiction of personal and collective suffering in modern Chinese novels differs significantly from standard Communist accounts and most Eastern and Western historical narratives Writers such as Yu Hua Su Tong Wang Anyi Mo Yan Han Shaogong Ge Fei Li Rui and Zhang Wei scramble common conceptions of China s modern development deploying avant garde narrative techniques from Latin American and Euro American modernism to project a surprisingly un Chinese dystopian vision and critical view of human culture and ethics The epic narratives of modern Chinese fiction make rich use of magical realism surrealism and unusual treatments of historical time Also featuring graphic depictions of sex and violence and dark raunchy comedy these novels deeply reflect China s turbulent recent history re presenting the overthrow of the monarchy in the early twentieth century and the resulting chaos of revolution and war the recurring miseries perpetrated by class warfare during the dictatorship of Mao Zedong and the social dislocations caused by China s industrialization and rise as a global power This book casts China s highbrow historical novels from the 1990s to the mid 2000s as a distinctively Chinese contribution to the form of the global dystopian novel and consequently to global thinking about the interrelations of utopia and dystopia

World Literature Reader Theo D'haen,César Domínguez,Mads Rosendahl Thomsen,2012-06 World Literature is an increasingly influential subject in literary studies which has led to the re framing of contemporary ideas of national literatures language and translation World Literature A Reader brings together thirty essential readings which display the theoretical foundations of the subject as well as showing its conceptual development over a two hundred year period The book features an illuminating introduction to the subject with suggested reading paths to help readers navigate through the materials texts exploring key themes such as globalization cosmopolitanism post trans nationalism and translation and nationalism writings by major figures including J W Goethe Karl Marx Friedrich Engels Longxi Zhao David Damrosch Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Pascale Casanova and Milan Kundera The early explorations of the meaning of Weltliteratur are introduced while twenty first century interpretations by leading scholars today show the latest critical developments in the field The editors offer readers the ideal introduction to the theories and debates surrounding the impact of this crucial area on the modern literary landscape

The Other America J. Michael Dash,1998 A wide ranging work that explores two centuries of Caribbean literature from a comparative perspective While haunted by the need to establish cultural difference and authenticity Caribbean thought is inherently modernist in its recognition of the interplay between cultures brought about by centuries of contact domination and consent Imagining Columbus I.

Stavans,2016-04-30 Imagining Columbus is Stavans's contribution to the literature on Columbus. My purpose says Stavans is to revisit to investigate to play with the asymmetrical geometries of the admiral's literary adventures in the human imagination. Arguing that writers have portrayed Columbus in three ways as prophet or messiah as ambitious gold seeker and as a conventional rather unremarkable man, Stavans examines numerous poems novels short stories dramas and other works on Columbus in this provocative book. In Part 1 Mapmaking Stavans explores the two opposing views of the celebration of the quincentennial and discusses the most notable biographies of Columbus including those by Washington Irving and Samuel Eliot Morison. In Part 2 Lives of a Literary Character Stavans takes up the geographic and historical development of Columbus as a narrative figure in literature and devotes a chapter to each of the three literary views of the admiral. Stavans includes portrayals of other writers' views on Columbus like Walt Whitman Alejo Carpentier James Fenimore Cooper Friedrich Nietzsche Nikos Kazantzakis Rubén Darío Michael Dorris Louise Erdrich among others.

Latin America's New Historical Novel Seymour Menton,2010-07-22 Beginning with the 1979 publication of Alejo Carpentier's El arpa y la sombra the New Historical Novel has become the dominant genre within Latin American fiction. In this at times tongue in cheek postmodern study Seymour Menton explores why the New Historical Novel has achieved such popularity and offers discerning readings of numerous works. Menton argues persuasively that the proximity of the Columbus Quincentennial triggered the rise of the New Historical Novel. After defining the historical novel in general he identifies the distinguishing features of the New Historical Novel. Individual chapters delve deeply into such major works as Mario Vargas Llosa's La guerra del fin del mundo Abel Posse's Los perros del paraíso Gabriel García Márquez's El general en su laberinto and Carlos Fuentes' La campaña. A chapter on the Jewish Latin American novel focuses on several works that deserve greater recognition such as Pedro Orgambide's Aventuras de Edmund Ziller en tierras del Nuevo Mundo Moacyr Scliar's A estranha nação de Rafael Mendes and Angelina Muñoz's Tierra adentro.

Imagining Columbus Ilan Stavans,1993 With the Columbian quincentennial have come a spate of books devoted to one or another aspect of the Italian mariner and his famous 1492 voyage. None however has taken the bold creative approach of this new volume to explore Columbus's fifth voyage the one depicted in hundreds of literary musings by writers worldwide over the past half millennium. Imagining Columbus: The Literary Voyage is Ilan Stavans's stunning contribution to the literature on Columbus. My purpose says Stavans is to revisit to investigate to play with the asymmetrical geometries of the admiral's literary adventures in the human imagination. Arguing that writers have portrayed Columbus in three ways as prophet or messiah as ambitious goldseeker and as conventional unremarkable man Stavans examines a veritable treasure trove of poems novels short stories dramas and other works on Columbus. Organizing his material into two main parts Stavans first takes up Mapmaking inspecting the two opposing views of the celebration of the quincentennial discussing the most notable biographies of Columbus including those by Washington Irving and Samuel Eliot Morison and providing the necessary biographical data on Columbus's life and achievements. Then in The Literary Character Stavans takes up the geographic and historical development of Columbus as a narrative figure in literature, devoting a chapter to each of the three literary views of the admiral: portrayals by writers as diverse as Walt Whitman, Alejo Carpentier, James Fenimore Cooper, Friedrich Nietzsche, Nikos Kazantzakis, Ruben Dario, Michael Dorris, and Louise Erdrich; Philip Freneau, Stephen Marlowe, and scores of others. In a brilliantly imaginative conclusion, Stavans attempts to foresee what the future might bring. My goal, he says, is to describe some of the unwritten books on the mariner, the apocryphal titles that are likely to be published in the next 100 years. A hallmark testament to the potential of the human imagination, Imagining Columbus will be hailed by scholars, students, and general audiences.
