during the 1950s Sherman was targeted by the House Un American Activities Committee owing in part to his active support of the WPA Theatre project in New York two decades previous Time spent on the lesser known gray list kept him out of work for several years Eventually he again enjoyed some critical success but after the demise of the studio system life was never quite the same The quintessential studio director ended his career directing for television Vincent Sherman s path from Georgia to southern California is compelling and his legendary talent for good storytelling makes the book impossible to put down The Gospel Cottage Lecturer: Addressed to the Spiritually Poor. First Series George David Doudney (Incumbent of Charles Chapel, Plymouth.),1855 Staging the War Albert Wertheim,2004-03-16 What happened in American drama in the years between the Depression and the conclusion of World War II How did war make its impact on the theatre More important how was drama used during the war years to shape American beliefs and actions Albert Wertheim s Staging the War brings to light the important role played by the drama during what might arguably be called the most important decade in American history As much of the country experienced the dislocation of military service and work in war industries the dramatic arts registered the enormous changes to the boundaries of social classes ethnicities and gender roles In research ranging over more than 150 plays Wertheim discusses some of the well known works of the period including The Time of Your Life Our Town Watch on the Rhine and All My Sons But he also uncovers little known and largely unpublished plays for the stage and radio by such future luminaries as Arthur Miller and Frank Loesser including those written at the behest of the U S government or as U S O musicals The American son of refugees who escaped the Third Reich in 1937 Wertheim gives life to this vital period in American history
