The Law Of White Spaces:

The Law of White Spaces Giorgio Pressburger, 1994-09-01 The Courtroom as a Space of Resistance Awol Allo, 2016-03-09 Fifty years before his death in 2013 Nelson Mandela stood before Justice de Wet in Pretoria's Palace of Justice and delivered one of the most spectacular and liberating statements ever made from a dock. In what came to be regarded as the trial that changed South Africa, Mandela summed up the spirit of the liberation struggle and the moral basis for the post-Apartheid society. In this blistering critique of Apartheid and its perversion of justice, Mandela transforms the law into a sword and shield. He invokes it while undermining it, uses it while subverting it, and claims it while defeating it. Wise and strategic, Mandela skilfully reimagines the courtroom as a site of visibility and hearing, opening up a political space within the legal. This volume returns to the Rivonia courtroom to engage with Mandela's masterful performance of resistance and the dramatic core of that transformative event. Cutting across a wide range of critical theories and discourses, contributors reflect on the personal, spatial, temporal, performative, and literary dimensions of that constitutive event. By redefining the spaces, institutions, and discourses of law, contributors present a fresh perspective that re-sets the margins of what can be thought and said in the courtroom.

Interdisciplinarity and Social Justice Joe Parker, Ranu Samantrai, Mary Romero, 2012-02-01 In the 1960s and 1970s, activists who focused on the academy as a key site for fostering social change began by querying the assumptions of the traditional disciplines and transforming their curricula, putting into place women's and ethnic studies programs that changed both the subject and methods of scholarship. The pattern of scholars and activists joining forces to open fields of research and teaching continued in subsequent decades, and recent additions including critical race studies, queer studies, cultural studies, and postcolonial studies take as their epistemological foundation the inherently political nature of all knowledge production. Interdisciplinarity and Social Justice seizes this opportune moment in the history of interdisciplinary fields to review their effects on our intellectual and political landscape, to evaluate their ability to deliver promised social benefits, and to consider their futures. The essays collected in this volume detail histories of the interdisciplinary fields that emerged from social movements, examine how effectively they have achieved their goals of intellectual and social change, and consider the challenges they now face inside and outside the academy.

The Rowman & Littlefield Handbook on Workplace Diversity and Stratification Tsedale M. Melaku, Angie Beeman, Christoph Winkler, 2023-11-01 Organizations and institutions use diversity and inclusion mantras to signal opportunity and access for all. However, the real-world results are often underwhelming, and people are demanding that organizations recognize the value that diversity brings to a workplace and be held accountable to the diversity and inclusion mission statements on their websites. The Rowman Littlefield Handbook on Workplace Diversity and Stratification provides a comprehensive yet concise overview of important issues, themes, and research regarding workplace diversity and stratification. The book analyzes present-day and future implications of diversity in the workplace and offers concrete ways of developing policies and practices that will make diversity an intrinsic part of any organizational culture Taking an interdisciplinary approach the book covers topics including racism sexism socio economic status LGBTQ workers education intersectionality neurodiversity religion and allyship Practical contemporary and relevant this is an excellent resource for anyone interested in understanding what workplace diversity and stratification mean for everyday people institutions and society as a whole Beer and Racism Chapman, Nathaniel, Brunsma, David, 2020-10-14 Beer in the United States has always been bound up with race racism and the construction of white institutions and identities Given the very quick rise of craft beer as well as the myopic scholarly focus on economic and historical trends in the field there is an urgent need to take stock of the intersectional inequalities that such realities gloss over This unique book carves a much needed critical and interdisciplinary path to examine and understand the racial dynamics in the craft beer industry and the popular consumption of beer Brown Faces, White Spaces Latasha Morrison, 2025-06-03 ECPA CHRISTIAN BOOK AWARD FINALIST The New York Times bestselling author of Be the Bridge calls people of faith to be a part of lasting change and help heal the racial disparity in our country together A journey that encourages us to love our neighbors in real time as we understand the history that has shaped us Terence Lester PhD founder of Love Beyond Walls We might think of systemic racism as an unfortunate part of American history something that happened back in the day But the systems were never truly dismantled in our country leaving artifacts of injustice that continue to affect every aspect of life for Black and Brown Americans Many of us feel overwhelmed by the problem unsure how we can make a difference Yet God calls the church to stand firmly committed to racial reconciliation and for each one of us to make choices that lead to healing In Brown Faces White Spaces Latasha Morrison a speaker bridge builder and champion for unity explores nine aspects of American life where systemic racism still flourishes including education healthcare the justice system entertainment and the church Through story historical context and present realities Morrison looks at what it means to recognize and confess the truth about inequities in the system preparation commit ourselves to changing the system dedication and move into true freedom as a society liberation Drawing on rich sociological insights as well as experiences of family and friends and from her own life Morrison asks How does knowing our country's history make a difference in how we live today How does Jesus's divine act of reconciliation on the cross lead to human liberation from oppression How might we create systems for all to flourish This honest hope filled book shows us how we can reform historically white spaces and create systems that work for the good of all Join the bridge building movement that is listening learning and working together for equity in every aspect of our lives Includes questions for personal reflection and group discussion TV White Space Spectrum Technologies Rashid Abdelhaleem Saeed, Stephen J. Space Elijah Anderson, 2023-03-09 In Black in White Space Anderson brings his immense knowledge and ethnography to bear in this timely study of the racial barriers that are still firmly entrenched in our society at every class level He focuses in on symbolic racism a new form of racism in America caused by the stubbornly powerful stereotype of the ghetto embedded in the white imagination which subconsciously connects all Black people with crime and poverty regardless of their social or economic position White people typically avoid Black space but Black people are required to navigate the white space as a condition of their existence From Philadelphia street corner conversations to Anderson's own morning jogs through a Cape Cod vacation town he probes a wealth of experiences to shed new light on how symbolic racism makes all Black people uniquely vulnerable to implicit bias in police stops and racial discrimination in our country Back cover

White Space, Black Hood Sheryll Cashin, 2021-09-14 A 2021 C Wright Mills Award Finalist Shows how government created ghettos and affluent white space and entrenched a system of American residential caste that is the linchpin of US inequality and issues a call for abolition The iconic Black hood like slavery and Jim Crow is a peculiar American institution animated by the ideology of white supremacy Politicians and people of all colors propagated ghetto myths to justify racist policies that concentrated poverty in the hood and created high opportunity white spaces In White Space Black Hood Sheryll Cashin traces the history of anti Black residential caste boundary maintenance opportunity hoarding and stereotype driven surveillance and unpacks its current legacy so we can begin the work to dismantle the structures and policies that undermine Black lives Drawing on nearly 2 decades of research in cities including Baltimore St Louis Chicago New York and Cleveland Cashin traces the processes of residential caste as it relates to housing policing schools and transportation She contends that geography is now central to American caste Poverty free havens and poverty dense hoods would not exist if the state had not designed constructed and maintained this physical racial order Cashin calls for abolition of these state sanctioned processes The ultimate goal is to change the lens through which society sees residents of poor Black neighborhoods from presumed thug to presumed citizen and to transform the relationship of the state with these neighborhoods from punitive to caring She calls for investment in a new infrastructure of opportunity in poor Black neighborhoods including richly resourced schools and neighborhood centers public transit Peacemaker Fellowships universal basic incomes housing choice vouchers for residents and mandatory inclusive housing elsewhere Deeply researched and sharply written White Space Black Hood is a call to action for repairing what white supremacy still breaks Includes historical photos maps and charts that illuminate the history of residential segregation as an institution and a tactic of racial oppression

Neighborhood Watch Shawn E. Fields, 2022-06-09 Although racism has plagued the American justice system since the nation's colonial beginnings private White Americans are taking matters into their own hands From racist 911 calls and hoaxes to grassroots voter suppression and vigilante self defense concerted efforts are made every day by private citizens to exclude Black Americans from schools neighborhoods and positions of power Neighborhood Watch examines the specific ways people police America's color line to protect White spaces The book charts how these actions too often result in harassment arrest injury or death yet typically go unchecked Instead these actions are promoted and encouraged by legislatures looking to expand racially discriminatory laws a police system designed to respond with force to any frivolous report of Black mischief and a Supreme Court that has abdicated its role in rejecting police abuse To combat these realities Neighborhood Watch offers preliminary recommendations for reform including changes to the maximum policing state increased accountability for civilians who abuse emergency response systems and proposals to demilitarize the color line

Critical Racial and Decolonial Literacies Debbie Bargallie, Nilmini Fernando, 2024-08-22 This collection offers a unique exploration of critical racial literacy and anti racist praxis in Australia s educational landscape Combining critical race and Indigenous theories and perspectives contributors articulate a decolonial liberatory imperative for our times In an age when decolonization has become a buzzword the book demystifies critical anti racism praxis advocating for critical and multidisciplinary approaches Educators from a range of disciplines including Law Indigenous Studies Health Sociology Policy and the Arts collectively share compelling stories of educating on race racism and anti racism offering strategies that can be put into practice in classrooms activism and structural reforms

Recruiting, Retaining, and Engaging African-American Males at Selective Public Research Universities Louis A. Castenel, Tarek C. Grantham, Billy J. Hawkins, 2018-06-01 A problematic yet uncommon assumption among many higher education researchers is that recruitment retention and engagement of African American males is relatively similar and stable across all majority White colleges and universities In fact the harsh reality is that selective public research universities SPRUs have distinctive academic cultures that increase the difficulty of diversifying their faculty and student populations This book will discuss how traditions and elitist assumptions make it very difficult to recruit retain and engage African American males The authors will examine these issues from multiple perspectives in three sections that highlight research policies and practices impacting the experiences of African American males including Pre Collegiate Preparation African American Male Student Athletes and Undergraduate and Graduate Considerations for African American Male Initiatives

The Making of Lawyers' Careers Robert L. Nelson, Bryant G. Garth, Ronit Dinovitzer, Joyce S. Sterling, David B. Wilkins, Meghan Dawe, Ethan Michelson, 2023-10-03 How do hierarchies of race class gender and law school status condition the career trajectories of lawyers And how do individual lawyers strategically navigate the constraints and opportunities of their environments Where do they find professional satisfaction This book offers an unprecedented account of opportunity structures and social stratification within the early 21st century American legal profession combining unique longitudinal survey data with interviews storytelling and insights from social theory Starting in 2000 the authors collected over 10 000 survey responses from more than 5 000 lawyers following these lawyers through the first twenty years of their careers They also conducted in depth interviews with more than 200 lawyers They contextualize their findings through attention to the features of a market driven legal profession in particular the growth in recent decades of the private sector

relative to the public sector and corresponding disparities in earnings and status between these different segments The analysis in this book reveals a legal profession that is highly stratified Although individual lawyers exercise agency and often find satisfaction in their work there are deep divisions within the profession by client type and practice setting and women and attorneys of color face discrimination and persistent barriers to advancement The careers of lawyers both reflect and reproduce inequalities in law and society writ large American Indian Law Review ,2008 You Don't Look Like a Lawyer Tsedale M. Melaku,2019-04-18 Now available in paperback with a new foreword from Victor Ray You Don't Look Like a Lawyer Black Women and Systemic Gendered Racism highlights how race and gender create barriers to recruitment professional development and advancement to partnership for black women in elite corporate law firms Utilizing narratives of black female lawyers this book offers a blend of accessible theory to benefit any reader willing to learn about the underlying challenges that lead to their high attrition rates Drawing from narratives of black female lawyers their experiences center around gendered racism and are embedded within institutional practices at the hands of predominantly white men In particular the book covers topics such as appearance white narratives of affirmative action differences and similarities with white women and black men exclusion from social and professional networking opportunities and lack of mentors sponsors and substantive training This book highlights the often hidden mechanisms elite law firms utilize to perpetuate and maintain a dominant white male system Weaving the narratives with a critical race analysis and accessible writing the reader is exposed to this exclusive elite environment demonstrating the rawness and reality of black women's experiences in white spaces Finally we get to hear the voices of black female lawyers as they tell their stories and perspectives on working in a highly competitive racialized and gendered environment and the impact it has on their advancement and beyond The World of Jim Crow America Steven A.
