Cottrell, 2024-12-13 In response to the upheavals engendered by World War II revolutions broke out or loomed throughout the world Nationalist aspirations proved global in nature ironically empowered by the Cold War In Asia the Middle East Latin America and Africa revolutions and counterrevolutions proliferated and similar disruptions threatened to unfold in Europe and North America Social upheavals began to occur in Vietnam Mandatory Palestine China Algeria Ghana and Cuba Conservative and reactionary forces frequently pushed back quashing hopeful developments like the Guatemalan Spring the Hungarian Revolution and the Prague Spring while also readily resorting to the murder of leading progressive figures from Gandhi to Navalny The second volume of this detailed history explores the rippling effects of World War II across the globe including countries experiencing colonial or neocolonial relationships This book examines the interplay between modern revolutionary movements and campaigns seeking to prevent such movements or to reestablish a history and time that never really existed It also traces the deadly resort to politically motivated killings which cut short the lives of so many distinguished sometimes beloved figures whose loss is still felt decades later The Cambridge History of Global Migrations: Volume 2, Migrations,

1800-Present Marcelo J. Borges, Madeline Y. Censorship of Historical Thought Antoon De Baets,2001-12-30 History is an important dangerous and fragile subject Historical thought can be censored in widely diverging political and historiographical contexts as historians are well aware Yet the problems of censorship often thought to be obvious are rarely studied Filling a significant void this guide supplies information on the censorship of historical thought and the fate of persecuted historians in over 130 countries from Afghanistan to Zimbabwe and from 1945 to 2000 With each entry providing a chronological overview of cases and giving a full listing of sources the book is the first systematic effort to overview the repression of historical thought Aiming to encompass all countries in which censorship and persecution have taken place De Baets sketches a world map of repression that goes beyond the well known and well studied cases It assembles scattered data from three types of sources the works of censors and censored historical and biographical dictionaries and historiographical surveys and reports from international human rights organizations Showing the universality of historical censorship and its infinite variety in amount and degree the book also provides a basis for further comparative research States of Emergency International Commission of Jurists
