The Letters Of Ezra Pound:

The Selected Letters of Ezra Pound, 1907-1941 Ezra Pound, 1971 Originally published in 1950 under title The letters of Ezra Pound 1907 1941 Letters, 1907-1941 Ezra Pound, 1971 The Letters of Ezra Pound, 1907-1941 Ezra Pound, 1951 Pound/Williams Ezra Pound, 1996 Ezra Pound and William Carlos Williams two towering figures in American poetry began their lifelong and often contentious friendship as students at the University of Pennsylvania Their correspondence ran from 1907 the year Pound took up his virtually permanent residence in Europe until Williams death in 1963 The letters contribute an unparalleled documentary record of modern culture a wealth of information about the lives and works of the two poets themselves the literary and political movements in which they became involved and the impact of public events upon the arts the activities of other writers and artists and the world of small presses and little magazines that nourished the growth of modernism Pound Williams contains 169 letters selected from the poets surviving correspondence each letter reproduced in full and accompanied by explanatory notes Historical introductions place each of the live chronological groupings of letters into context and a biographical glossary identifies persons prominently mentioned The Letters of Ezra Pound, 1907-1941 D.D. Paige, 1950 Pound/Lewis Ezra Pound, 1985 The friendship of Ezra Pound and Wyndham Lewis began in London in 1909 survived two European wars and the rise and fall of the totalitarian governments both men misguidedly supported and lasted through Pound s years of confinement at St Elizabeths to Lewis s death in 1957 In Pound Lewis their correspondence of five decades is gathered for the first time it proves a revealing reflection of their intense always professional mutual regard The Selected Letters of Ezra Pound Ezra Pound, Mark Van Doren, 1982

The letters of Ezra Pound 1907-1941 Ezra Pound, 1951 Pound/the Little Review Ezra Pound, 1988 Gathers Pound s letters to the publisher of the Little Review and provides background information on this period in Pound s life The Selected Letters of Ezra Pound 1907-1941 Ezra Pound, D. D. Paige, 1982-01 Pound/Joyce; the Letters of Ezra Pound to James Joyce Ezra Pound, 1967 Donated by Michael Dillon June 2009 A Sampler from the New Book, The Letters of Ezra Pound, 1907-1941 Ezra Pound, 1950 The Letters of Ezra Pound 1907-1941. Edited by D.D. Paige Ezra Pound, 1950 "The" Letters of Ezra Pound Ezra Pound, 1962 Ezra Pound and Dorothy Shakespear, Their Letters, 1909-1914 Ezra Pound, Dorothy Pound, 1984 Ezra Listen to it Ezra Ezra And a third time Ezra Some people have complained of untidy boots how could they look at his boots when there is his moving beautiful face to watch These words from the notebook of Dorothy Shakespear dated February 16 1909 record the entry into her life of the energetic young American recently arrived in London who was to become her husband Ezra Pound Their correspondence begun the following year extends over more than six decades until the poet s death in 1972 All of these letters are of unusual literary interest but those from before their marriage in April 1914 have a special importance since few from this period have been published The standard edition of The Selected Letters of Ezra Pound edited by D D Paige includes none from 1910 1911 and only a handful from 1912 1913 yet these were the crucial years in Pound's literary development and in the shaping of early modernism. The over two hundred letters and diary entries in Ezra Pound and Dorothy Shakespeare Their Letters 1909 1914 are published here for the first time. Taken together they provide a detailed record of the poet's search for a new style and give a full portrait of a dynamic young expatriate who was simultaneously involved in two literary generations: the companion and close friend of Yeats and Ford Madox Hueffer as well as of Wyndham Lewis and the sculptor Gaudier Brzeska. They also shed a poignant light on The Pisan Cantos of 1945 where amid the ruins of his life Pound recalled again and again the events and people described in these letters as if the memory of 1909 1914 was the only stable point left in a disintegrating personal universe. The letters have been thoroughly annotated by Omar Pound, translator and bibliographer of Wyndham Lewis, and by A. Walton Litz of Princeton University, the author of studies of James Joyce, Wallace Stevens, and other modern writers. The book includes a biographical appendix with particular emphasis on lesser-known people mentioned in the letters, some unpublished early poems by Pound transcribed by Dorothy into one of her notebooks, family charts, one of which shows Pound's ancestral origins, numerous unpublished illustrations, and an extensive index.

Dk-some Letters of Ezra Pound Ezra Pound, 1974. This correspondence with Ezra Pound covers the years from 1949 to very nearly the end of his life. It began as an offer to help in his difficult days in St. Elizabeth's, Washington, D.C., and it grew into a whirlwind of paper and communication for a few years, then it diminished after 1953. For the following years there was only a few scattered letters set off by some particular event: a new magazine, a radio broadcast, and finally the correspondence came to an end with the complications about Pound's coming to the World Poetry Conference at Expo in 1967, a major contribution to our understanding of two distinguished North American poets.

Intrinsically delightful. Quill Quire. The Correspondence of Ezra Pound Ezra Pound, Wyndham Lewis, 1985. The Letters of Ezra Pound to Alice Corbin Henderson Ezra Pound, Alice Corbin Henderson, 1993. These letters, which have never been published, span the years 1912 to 1949 and record not only an important period in American and European literary history but also the development of Pound's aesthetic and poetic voice.
