Roderick Terry,2007 Another book of quotations Indeed there are numerous excellent extant anthologies of quotations but these tend to be very broad with a bias toward classical and well known authors those works which document the contributions of Black authors have tended to focus on African Americans considerable as their output is Undeniable recognition of this prevalence is reflected in the title of the present volume which pays homage to W E B Du Bois classic work and in the preponderance of entries from American sources Nevertheless effort has been made to cast a wider net to capture under represented and unfamiliar voices Khemetic texts preserved in papyri and stelae are the earliest literature to have survived followed by the writings of North African Romans and Ethiopian philosophers and clerics and the lately recovered Timbuktu manuscripts from their repositories in the desert sands of Mali The Transatlantic slave experience gave rise to the slave narratives and abolitionist literature from both sides of the Atlantic which remained predominant right up to the 20th century Post Emancipation under colonial rule and white domination Black poetry and prose emerged adhering to prevailing standards evidenced typically in the work of Phillis Wheatley and the sonnets of Claude McKay With the Civil Rights and Black Power movements would come iconoclastic expressions of protest and identity There is a sizeable body of literature by Black authors from Africa and the diaspora who speak to universal values and eternal verities This anthology of their work focuses on the inner life on personal development and self actualization 3000 quotations have been selected to inspire enlightenand encourage they have been arranged in 200 psycho spiritual categories and in chronological order The resulting timeline of thought in itself is useful and instructive as it demonstrates very clearly the evolution of consciousness evident in the contemporary thinking on particular subjects Like its predecessor Wisdom for the Soul Five Millennia of Prescriptions for Spiritual Healing this volume contains a full biographical index and bibliographical references Much of the material is anthologized here for the first time The SAGE Encyclopedia of Filipina/x/o American Studies Kevin Leo Yabut

New Leaders, New Dawns? Chris Brown,David Moore,Blair Rutherford,2022-06-17 In late 2017 and early 2018 South Africa and Zimbabwe both experienced rapid and unexpected political transitions In Zimbabwe Robert Mugabe the only leader the country had ever known was replaced in a soft coup by his erstwhile vice president Emmerson Mnangagwa Over a twelve day period in February 2018 South African president Jacob Zuma was prematurely forced from office by his former deputy president Cyril Ramaphosa The widespread popular rejoicing that accompanied their arrival compounded the shock of these sudden transitions New Leaders New Dawns explores these political transitions and the way they were received Contributors consider how the former liberation heroes Mugabe and Zuma could have fallen so low the underlying reasons for their ouster what happened to their liberation movements turned ruling parties and perhaps most importantly what the rise to power of Ramaphosa and Mnangagwa foreshadowed Bringing together fourteen leading international scholars of southern Africa and adopting a political economy framework this volume argues that the changes in leadership are welcome but insufficient While the time had come for Zuma and Mugabe to go there is little in the personal histories or early policy actions of Ramaphosa and Mnangagwa that suggests they will be capable of addressing the profound social economic and political problems both countries face New Leaders New Dawns reveals that despite what these new leaders may have promised a new dawn has not yet arrived in southern Africa
