The Liberation Of The Laity:

The Liberation of the Laity Paul Lakeland, The present crisis in the American Catholic Church stems from a two fold source lay people are powerless while the bishops are accountable to no one but the pope and the curia While the number of lay people exercising ministries in the church has grown enormously over the past thirty years largely due to the shortage of priests there has been little or no theological reflection till now on the genuine role of the laity It is only from such reflection that structural reform of the church will come The first half of The Liberation of the Laity concentrates on the fortunes of the laity theologically speaking between Vatican I 1870 and Vatican II 1962 65 It examines the growth of the new theology in France in the 1940s and 1950s and shows how in the work of one of its leading practitioners Yves Congar much of the vision of the laity expressed at Vatican II was anticipated Seeing the years after the council as decades of missed opportunities to recognize the role of the laity the book then turns to a series of constructive proposals for the liberation of the laity and thus the liberation of the church It discusses the importance of secularity the need for a lay liberation theology and the centrality of the struggles against global capitalism in the mission of the church It ends with a chapter envisioning dramatic changes in ministry and governing structures in which accountability will be central servant leaders will include women and married people and both ecclesiastical careerism and the College of Cardinals will be history

The Liberation of the Laity Paul Lakeland, 2004-05-19 Theological reflections explore the genuine role of the Catholic laity leading to proposals for a lay liberation theology and structural reform of the Catholic church Throughout Lakeland does an admirable job of balancing his style to make the work useful for both general and specialized readers Lakeland surveys the contributions of an impressive number of historical and contemporary writers on the laity QWilliam A Clark Catholic Books Review Continuum Books

The Liberation of the Laity Anne Rowthorn, 2000-12-06 A passionate call for a new liberation movement this time within the church in North America The genius of The Liberation of the Laity is not so much that it provides new information or even an entirely original thesis but that it lays piece after piece together until the pattern emerges for us and we have the eyes to see the repetition and extension of that pattern in our own experiences of church life Books and Religion The author in this deeply felt and powerfully argued book tackles the issues of the nature of ministry priesthood ordination lay theology a spirituality of life in the world The argument is clearly expressed draws upon a wide range of scholarship the example of the early church as well as the experience of the author I cannot be dispassionate in recommending this book It provides a model of what a theology of the people should be like in the way it argues the case for such a theology Zadok Perspectives a quarterly journal of the Zadok Institute for Christianity and Society Australia If I could have one wish fulfilled I d wish that Anne Rowthorn s The Liberation of the Laity would be required reading for Christians everywhere She is a voice for the church s voiceless Irene V Jackson Brown The Liberation of the Laity will irritate inform and inspire And it should be read by all lay and ordained who are willing to have their eyes and most especially their hearts opened a little wider Virginia

Seminary Journal The Liberation of the Laity is a provocative book that challenges the clericalist culture of the church and provides practical advice and sound counsel toward a more inclusive future Further the book affirms the history and theology of the ministry of all baptized persons in a deep and thought provoking way The Liberation of the Laity will spark conversation and reflection among those most concerned about the future of ministry and the need for the church to support the vocations of all the baptized Sheryl A Kujawa Holbrook Director of Congregational Studies Associate Professor Episcopal Divinity School The Liberation of the Laity for Ministry Oliver Watson Clark,1974 Doing Ministry in the Igbo Context Cajetan E. Ebuziem,2011 Doing Ministry in the Igbo Context Towards an Emerging Model and Method for the Church in Africaarises out of reflection on experience and practice The volume reflects on the author s own cultural context religious heritage and pastoral functioning In addition it considers the author s personal experiences in relation to the common experiences of others within the author s cultural and religious traditions and places these experiences and the voices they represent into mutually critical correlation Thus commonalities and dissonances in them emerge leading to insights where to go from there in providing ministry to the People of God in the local church context and still within the framework of one universal church This book presents a contextual model of local theology that begins its reflection with the Igbo cultural context The Igbo or Nigerian or African Church can have a pattern of ministry with a model and a method that are consistent with the peoples values To accomplish this goal a local cultural value must be explored and brought into the scene Since the Igbo society is the heart of Christianity and Catholicism in Africa the author relies on Igboland as his situational context The exploration of the indigenous Igbo value of collaboration will be an advantage in ministering to the rest of the African people who have cultural resemblances to Igbos The African Church has to learn from the Igbo values ofumunna bu ike Umunna is the basic Igbo unit and possibly the most powerful missionary force in Igboland and potentially an Igbo gift to the Church in Nigeria and Africa and even beyond Back cover Catholicism and the Spirit Stephen Ebo Annan,2018-02-22 The resurgence of Pentecostal charismatic Christianity epitomized in the global South has thrown Catholicism back on itself and has challenged it to reassess its ecclesial self understanding The Catholic Church has been accused of having forgotten the Spirit Despite the progress made by the Catholic Church to redress this so called pneumatological deficit it nonetheless remains the case that Roman Catholicism and charismatic Christianity seems to be mutually exclusive Why and how does the Roman Catholic Church today still lack a fully developed pneumatological charismatic ecclesiology Catholicism and the Spirit sets out to address such questions and argues that the Church must overcome its ultraconservatism and re envision a robust Spirit led ecclesiology to meet the demands of ecclesial renewal Priesthood in a New Millennium R. David Cox,2004 This important book examines priestly identity as it has evolved within Anglicanism over the last 15 years including the ways in which the once nearly synonymous terms English and Anglican diverged over the years In the process the author delineates an intellectual and social history of modern Anglicanism The Promise of Renewal Marie Crowley,2017-03-30

With variety and breadth these essays celebrate the 800th anniversary of the foundation of the Dominican Order as well as the richness in Catholic thought and praxis during the past hundred years around the world Their themes range from Yves Congar's view of the hierarchy to Jacques Loew's theory of ministry in the workplace Ideas from thinkers interacting with Islam and Judaism lead on to a theology of refugees A book for those pondering theology amid history and culture

Renewal Anne Hendershott, Christopher White, 2013-12-03 In the wake of the clergy abuse scandal of the last decade many media commentators predicted the end of the Catholic priesthood Demands for an end to celibacy coupled with calls for women's ordination dominated discussions on the effectiveness of the Catholic Church in America Renewal argues that rather than a decline of the priesthood and a diminishing influence of the Catholic Church we are living in a time of transformation and revitalization The aging generation of progressives that continues to lobby Church leaders to change Catholic teachings on reproductive rights same sex marriage and women's ordination is being replaced by younger men and women who are attracted to the Church because of the very timelessness of its teachings

Whole-Life Mission for the Whole Church Mark Greene, Ian J. Shaw, 2021-03-17 The sacred secular divide permeates our churches our seminaries and our lives By perpetuating the false belief that there are some areas of life that are not important to God some callings that are second class and some spheres of society that are not worth engaging the sacred secular divide diminishes our understanding of God discipleship missiology and the gospel itself Seeking to liberate the global church from the power of this dichotomy Whole Life Mission for the Whole Church provides theological educators with the tools they need to combat the sacred secular divide in the very realm where it is so often generated the classroom Filled with contributions from practitioners around the world this book contains a wealth of insight into both the nature of the problem and the possibilities for its solution The approaches suggested here are biblically rooted contextually appropriate and experientially tested offering an excellent resource for educators desiring to transform their institutional cultures curriculums and classrooms into environments that envision empower and liberate the whole church for its role in the mission of God

Leadership in the Church for a People of Hope Mervyn Davies, Graham Dodds, 2011-05-19 An introduction to leadership in the church from a practical and theological point of view for existing practitioners lay people as well as those preparing for ministry

The Routledge Companion to the Christian Church Gerard Mannion, Lewis S. Mudge, 2007-12-12 The nature and story of the Christian church is immensely important to theology students and scholars alike Written by an international team of distinguished scholars this comprehensive book introduces students to the fundamental historical systematic moral and ecclesiological aspects of the study of the church as well as serving as a resource for scholars engaging in ecclesiological debates on a wide variety of issues It divides into six parts the church in its historical context the different denominational traditions global perspectives methods and debates in ecclesiology key concepts and themes ecclesiology and other disciplines social sciences philosophy literature and film Authoritative accessible and easily navigable this book is indispensable for everyone interested in the nature and history of the Christian Church The Lay-Centered Church Leonard Doohan, 2016-08-26 The Second Crusade and the Cistercians M. Gervers, 2016-04-30 No subject in medieval history is changing as rapidly as crusade studies Even so the Second Crusade has been oddly neglected The present volume is the first ever to have been devoted to it in English and one of the few which has appeared in any language Particular attention is paid to the key role played by St Bernard and the Cistercians in this crusade and their relations with the Military Orders An interdisciplinary approach is taken incorporating history art and music The Volume contains unparalleled bibliography listing over 700 primary and secondary sources The Forgotten Jesuit of Catholic Modernism Anthony M. Maher, 2017-12-01 This book illustrates how George Tyrrell's theological challenge to those who would take the church out of history was never effectively refuted either at the time or since and that the issues Tyrrell raised are still relevant and alive in the church today In highlighting Tyrrell's liberation of theology from dogmatism the current work describes why he was vilified by the Roman hierarchy expelled from the Jesuits and eventually excommunicated Tyrrell's Ignatian inspired hope filled theology should not be forgotten not least because it sheds further light on another courageous and prophetic Jesuit Pope Francis In revisiting Tyrrell's Ignatian theology this book celebrates the promise that Vatican II presents to the future church namely a universal call to holiness as embraced by Pope Francis The Cambridge Companion to Vatican II Richard R. Gaillardetz, 2020-05-28 This Companion will assist the reader in apprehending a coherent and synthetic interpretation of the teaching of Vatican II Reflections on Renewal Donna M. Eschenauer, Harold D. Horell, 2011-07-01 The United States bishops document Co Workers in the Vineyard of the Lord is a vital resource for the ongoing development of lay ecclesial ministry Building upon Co Workers and affirming the recent renewal of the laity and the flowering of lay ministries Reflections on Renewal contributes to efforts to reshape ministerial language and practices in the church today It explores the theological and pastoral foundations of ministry including how all ministry is rooted in the sacraments of initiation and suggests ways of refining or redefining our understandings of lay ecclesial and ordained ministries so that we as church can respond more fully to the call of God in our lives and world At the same time the book recognizes that lay ministry developed organically as the work of the Spirit and is foremost a cause for rejoicing This collection of essays is grounded in Fordham University's commitment to the church and its mission in the world It honors the thousands of laypeople who have answered a call to serve the church in ministry Sorting Out Catholicism Massimo Faggioli, 2014 In this expanded and thoroughly updated English edition of the Italian edition 2008 Massimo Faggioli offers us a history and broader context of the so called ecclesial movements of which Focolare Community of Sant'Egidio Neocatechumenal Way Legionaries of Christ Communion and Liberation and Opus Dei are only some of the most recognizable names Their history goes back to the period following the First Vatican Council crosses Vatican II and develops throughout the twentieth century It is a history that prepares the movements' rise in the last three decades from John Paul II to Francis These movements are a complex phenomenon that shapes the Church now more than before and they play a key role for the future of Catholicism as a global community in transition from a Eurocentric tradition to a world Church

A Tale of Two Theologians Ambrose Mong, 2017-03-31 In A Tale of Two Theologians Ambrose Mong's observant new work he examines the writings of the Peruvian theologian Gustavo Gutierrez and the Indian theologian Michael Amaladoss and gives fresh attention to their main concerns regarding evangelisation and the poor Why he asks is Gutierrez's liberation theology now accepted and celebrated by the Roman Catholic Church while Amaladoss's Asian theology with a liberation thrust is threatened with censorship Mong argues that the dwindling threat of Communism has made the Marxist overtones of Latin American liberation theology more palatable to the Catholic hierarchy while the challenge of religious pluralism in Asia is as complex and emotive as ever How can the Church learn to balance the need for dialogue between religions with their duty to proclaim the Gospel How can the Church inculturate itself in Asia while maintaining its identity Ambrose Mong tackles these questions with the shrewd clear-eyed view of an active priest and scholar exploring the long troubled relationship the Church has with liberation theology and offering guidance for the future

Vatican II William Madges, 2011-09-22 Original essays explore the effects and influences of the Second Vatican Council particularly on its understanding of church engagement with the modern world and encounters with other religions Contributors include Philip A Franco St John's University New York Peter C Phan Georgetown University Christopher D Denny St John's University New York Harriet A Luckman College of Mount Saint Joseph Alice L Laffey College of the Holy Cross Francis Holland St John's University New York Jason King St Vincent College William French Loyola University Chicago Christine Firer Hinze Marquette University Victor Lee Austin Saint Thomas Church New York John Sniegocki Xavier University Elaine Catherine MacMillan University of San Diego Paul F Knitter Xavier University Reid B Locklin St Michael's College University of Toronto Elena G Procario Foley Iona College Phillip Luke Sinitiere University of Houston
