Services and Information Literacy: Models for Academic Institutions Cordell, Rosanne M., 2013-06-30 As classrooms and universities strive to adapt their instructional methods to an ever progressing technological age it is imperative that academic libraries also revisit the ways in which reference and instruction services are organized and implemented Library Reference Services and Information Literacy Models for Academic Institutions not only advocates for a more intentional integration of reference and instructional services but it also provides organizational background staff objectives and various successes and challenges that have already been experienced by real institutions This publication is an important reference source for librarians practitioners and university leaders who wish to maximize the current utilization of their resources

Library Services in Theory and Context Michael K. Buckland, 2014-05-09 Library Services in Theory and Context provides a theoretical framework for considering the nature of library services This book is organized into four parts encompassing 16 chapters that focus on the management of library services The first part presents some basic problems in librarianship along with the scope and probable nature of appropriate theory The second part considers the five key aspects and use of library services including inquiries retrieval the process of becoming informed the demand for library services and the allocation of resources to and within library services The third part deals with the connection and extensions of library services specifically the problem of achieving internal consistency and the generalizability of conceptual framework to information services The fourth part reconsiders some of the basic conceptual problems in library services This book will be of great value to school administrators and librarians

Information Brokers and Reference Services Robin Kinder, William A. Katz, 1988 The contradictory yet complementary relationship between libraries and information brokers is examined in this stimulating volume Since its escalation in the 1960s information brokering has challenged the role of the library in society Librarians discuss their concerns about information brokers the impact of brokers on reference services the competence of brokers abuse of library services by brokers and whether libraries should provide competing fee based services Brokers share their own view as entrepreneurs providing background offering advice and explaining the risks involved in their business This lively often controversial discussion offers suggestions for improving relations between libraries and information brokers while continuing to serve the public well
