Saunders,2004 The essays gathered in this volume celebrate the founding of the American Indian Workshop AIW twenty five years ago as a European forum for Native American studies We present this collection of ongoing debates on the interlaced and interlocking arena of Native American studies and its complicated relation with Native Americans themselves These debates tie in with such questions as Can Native American studies shake off its past and deal with the complexity of political and academic issues in the present Why by whom and for whom is research conducted within this domain and who decides what the next step should be This volume is a modest response to these questions to the validation and substantiation of the cat s cradle of practices of the many disciplines that comprise Native American studies and an attempt to ask the right questions to get past the imperial categories and to thoughtfully mediate and reorientate perspectives THE MAKING AND MEANING OF AN AMERICAN CLASSIC: JAMES FENIMORE COOPER'S THE PRAIRIE.
