The Making of a Chicano Militant Jose Angel Gutierrez, 1998 Texas for years was a one party state controlled by white democrats In 1962 a young eighteen year old heard the first rumblings of Chicano community organization in the barrios of Cristal The rumor in the town was that five Mexican Americans were going to run for all five seats on the city council But first poor citizens had to find a way to pay the 1 75 poll tax Money had to be raised through bake sales of tamales cake walks and dances So began the political activism of Jos Angel Guti rrez Guti rrez s autobiography The Making of a Chicano Militant is the first insider s view of the important political and social events within the Mexican American communities in South Texas during the 1960s and 1970s A controversial and dynamic political figure during the height of the Chicano movement Guti rrez offers an absorbing personal account of his life at the forefront of the Mexican American civil rights movement first as a Chicano and then as a militant Guti rrez traces the racial ethnic economic and social prejudices facing Chicanos with powerful scenes from his own life his first summer job as a tortilla maker at the age of eleven his racially motivated kidnapping as a teenager and his coming of age in the face of discrimination as a radical organizer in college and graduate school When Guti rrez finally returned to Cristal he helped form the Mexican American Youth Organization and subsequently the Raza Unida Party to confront issues of ethnic intolerance in his community His story is soon to be a classic in the developing literature of Mexican American leaders
