The Making Of Bar Girls

Charles Morgan

The Making Of Bar Girls:

Lunatics, Lovers, Poets, Vets & Bargirls Gerald Nicosia, 1991 Poetry The witty heartfelt and compassionate poems of Gerald Nicosia's first collection come alive in his extraordinary narrative style Known for his seminal biography of Jack Kerouac Memory Babe and the important work on Vietnam Veterans Home to War Nicosia evokes the spirit and vitality of the poets from the Beat Generation yet he speaks with a voice all his own Haunting and expressive illustrations by Jakub Kalousek are also included in the book and capture Nicosia's intense imagery

Sex as Crime? Gayle Letherby, Kate Williams, Philip Birch, Maureen E Cain, 2013-05-13 This book brings together chapters by academics researchers and practitioners to analyse how crimes such as sex work domestic violence and rape and sexual assault have risen up the Government agenda in recent years For example the Paying the Price consultation exercise on sex work in 2004 and recent legislation around sex crimes including the Sex Offences Act 2003 This is a multi disciplinary social scientific pro feminist collection which draws upon practice empirical research documentary analysis and overviews of research in the areas of sex work and sexual violence Within Sex as Crime there are two distinct sub sections Sex for Sale and Sex as Violence but the broader and overriding link of sex as crime remains a paramount theme that spans the collection Chapters include discussions of the impact of new regulations on street sex workers and of street sex work on community residents the use of the internet by men who pay for sex and men who sell it sexual violence and identity sex crimes against children and protecting children online and working with sex offenders Other chapters explore reasons for such offending behaviour

Heroes Of The New Eden Charles Morgan, 2014-04 Fergus Trasker a completely irresponsible young man with no qualifications passes himself off as an engineer and goes to work in an Australian gold mine in the Western Desert There he meets Rhonda another engineer who is trying to turn the town's population on to an eastern cult religion Little orphan Fergus was brought up by feisty Aunty Patty a woman addicted to marrying gangsters Aunty P cautions him to grow up and treat his human relationships with a bit more of a responsible attitude So although Rhonda the engineer is a rather tubby girl and not his type really he decides that he should prove himself to his aunt and help the girl establish her religion Sadly Fergus's Aunt Patty has not told him that he should be more responsible in all his other dealings in life after all she is a tearaway herself So what happens to the town and indeed the mine One way or another things are not going to stay the same

Women, Judging and the Judiciary Erika Rackley, 2013 Awarded the 2013 Birks Book Prize by the Society of Legal Scholars Women Judging and the Judiciary expertly examines debates about gender representation in the judiciary and the importance of judicial diversity It offers a fresh look at the role of the woman judge and the process of judging and provides a new analysis of the assumptions which underpin and constrain debates about why we might want a more diverse judiciary and how we might get one Through a theoretical engagement with the concepts of diversity and difference in adjudication Women Judging and the Judiciary contends that prevailing images of the judge are enmeshed in notions of sameness and uniformity images which are so familiar that their grip on our understandings of the judicial role are routinely overlooked Failing to confront these instinctive images of the judge and of judging however comes at a price They exclude those who do not fit this mould setting them up as challengers to the judicial norm Such has been the fate of the woman judge But while this goes some way to explaining why despite repeated efforts our attempts to secure greater diversity in our judiciary have fallen short it also points a way forward For by getting a clearer sense of what our judges really do and how they do it we can see that women judges and judicial diversity more broadly do not threaten but rather enrich the judiciary and judicial decision making As such the standard opponent to measures to increase judicial diversity the necessity of appointment on merit is in fact its greatest ally a judiciary is stronger and the justice it dispenses better the greater the diversity of its members so if we want the best judiciary we can get we should want one which is fully diverse Women Judging and the Judiciary will be of interest to legal academics lawyers and policy makers working in the fields of judicial diversity gender and adjudication and more broadly to anyone interested in who our judges are and what they do

The Production of Reality Jodi O'Brien, 2021-12-02 This popular text reader for the social psychology courses in sociology departments is distinguished by the author's engaging framing essays that open each part and an eclectic set of edited readings that introduce students to major thinkers and perspectives in this field Through the combination of essays and original works the book demonstrates how we make and remake our social worlds through our everyday interactions with one another The Seventh Edition features 10 new readings from the contemporary social psychology literature a streamlined organization and the option of either e book or print versions

Rights of the Child in the Context of Tourism - A Compilation , Beyond Combat Heather Marie Stur, 2011-09-26 Beyond Combat investigates how the Vietnam War both reinforced and challenged the gender roles that were key components of American Cold War ideology Refocusing attention onto women and gender paints a more complex and accurate picture of the war's far reaching impact beyond the battlefields Encounters between Americans and Vietnamese were shaped by a cluster of intertwined images used to make sense of and justify American intervention and use of force in Vietnam These images included the girl next door a wholesome reminder of why the United States was committed to defeating Communism and the treacherous and mysterious dragon lady who served as a metaphor for Vietnamese women and South Vietnam Heather Stur also examines the ways in which ideas about masculinity shaped the American GI experience in Vietnam and ultimately how some American men and women returned from Vietnam to challenge homefront gender norms

Poppa-San Thomas Terry, 2017-01-12 This book is based on the experiences of military personnel during the Vietnam War from 1966 to 1970 I rest easy now after writing this book in honor of those who served Let the truth be told

Rebels at the Bar Jill Norgren, 2016-05 In Rebels at the Bar prize winning legal historian Jill Norgren recounts the life stories of a small group of nineteenth century women who were among the first female attorneys in the United States Beginning in the late 1860s these determined rebels pursued the radical ambition of entering the then all male profession of law They were motivated by a love of learning They believed in fair play and equal opportunity They desired recognition as professionals and the ability to earn a good living Rebels at the Bar expands our understanding of both women s rights and the history of the legal profession in the nineteenth century It focuses on the female renegades who trained in law and then like men fought considerable odds to create successful professional lives In this engaging and beautifully written book Norgren shares her subjects faith in the art of the possible In so doing she ensures their place in history

Shooting Blanks at the Anzac Legend Dr Donna Coates, 2023-11-01 War is traditionally considered a male experience By extension the genre of war literature is a male dominated field and the tale of the battlefield remains the privileged and only canonised war story In Australia although women have written extensively about their wartime experiences their voices have been distinctively silenced Shooting Blanks at the Anzac Legend calls for a re definition of war literature to include the numerous voices of women writers and further recommends a re reading of Australian national literatures with women s war writing foregrounded to break the hold of a male dominated literary tradition and pass on a vital but unexplored women s tradition Shooting Blanks at the Anzac Legend examines the rich body of World Wars I and II and Vietnam War literature by Australian women providing the critical attention and treatment that they deserve Donna Coates records the reaction of Australian women writers to these conflicts illuminating the complex role of gender in the interpretation of war and in the cultural history of twentieth century Australia By visiting an astonishing number of unfamiliar non canonical texts Shooting Blanks at the Anzac Legend profoundly alters our understanding of how Australian women writers have interpreted war especially in a nation where the experience of colonising a frontier has spawned enduring myths of identity and statehood
