

Moon And Love

By Maya Anthony

Under the moon's soft embrace we lay,
Promises whispered, night turning to day.
In its glow, our love does bloom,
Banishing life's ever-looming gloom.

Though it wanes, the moon returns full,
Like love's trials, yet always bountiful.
Through thick and thin, high tide or shove,
Steadfast remains the moon, much like our love.

Bound by lunar light, our souls entwined,
With every phase, our love more defined.
To the moon and back, so the saying goes,
A love that forever brightly glows.
