reduced status of intellectual culture in Cold War Britain Although the focus is on dystopianism in the work of mainstream authors including George Orwell Doris Lessing J G Ballard Angela Carter and Anthony Burgess a number of science fiction novels are also discussed making the book relevant to a wide range of researchers and students of twentieth century British literature

In Private Joanne Turney, 2024-12-26 The 1970s is often considered the period that design forgot In Private sets out to challenge this view offering a cultural history of domestic interior design in Britain and America over the course of a decade that shaped the contemporary relationship between fashion and interiors With each chapter dedicated to a different room in the house this book explores style design and socio cultural influence from the sitting room to the sauna and from the kitchen to the conservatory Considering the key critical discourses which arise from the style and function of each space In Private looks at how the public sphere informed the decorating styles furniture and furnishing of the private home from shag pile carpets to Swedish duvets Demonstrating how the cultural environment of the 1970s sparked the ideas styles and practices that have become common currency in today's interior design the book examines questions of sensuality tactility fashion fantasy and gender Illustrated throughout and packed with original research it provides an insight into 1970s innovation and eclecticism in fashion textiles and the domestic interior

Crisis? What Crisis? Alwyn W. Turner, 2009-03-19 The 1970s They were the best of times and the worst of times Wealth inequality was at a record low yet industrial strife was at a record high These were the glory years of Doctor Who and glam rock but the darkest days of the Northern Ireland conflict Beset by strikes inflation power cuts and the rise of the far right the cosy Britain of the post war consensus was unravelling in spectacularly lurid style Fusing high politics and low culture Crisis What Crisis presents a world in which Enoch Powell Ted Heath and Tony Benn jostle for space with David Bowie Hilda Ogden and Margo Leadbetter and reveals why a country exhausted by decline eventually turned to Margaret Thatcher for salvation
