The Man Who Loved A Cello

Paul Elie

The Man Who Loved A Cello:

The Man Who Loved a Cello Lone Burmeister, 2004-06-01 Oliver a young Danish guitarist decides to settle down in USA to make his dream come true As a very talented guitarist Oliver easily gains a superb reputation in musical circles Oliver has always been focused on his future and never given much thought to what happened in his family before he was born He has never known his real father a brilliant guitarist who was shot on top of the Empire State Building New York before he was born and never given it much thought as he had a happy childhood with his mother and step father Now away from home he begins to read the huge pile of papers that his grandma gave to him when he left for USA Little by little he gains a profound understanding of his roots and family history As the American way of life gradually becomes his way of life he decides to settle down for good in the US and is very successful as a musician and a composer However his private life is different Within a few years he loses some dearly beloved persons which leave him very wealthy He is single He is still young Will he ever meet the one and only

Self-Portrait with Russian Piano Wolf Wondratschek, 2025-09-23 A legendary literary figure who initiated a one man Beat Generation in his native Germany Wolf Wondratschek is eccentric monomaniacal romantic his texts are imbued with a wonderful reckless nonchalance Now he tells a story of a man looking back on his life in an honest Portrait of the Artist as an Old Man Vienna is an uncanny magical and sometimes brutally alienating city The past lives on in the cafes where lost souls come to kill time and hash over the bygone glories of the twentieth century or maybe just a recent love affair Here in one of these cafes an anonymous narrator meets a strange character like someone out of a novel a decrepit old Russian named Suvorin A Soviet pianist of international renown Suvorin committed career suicide when he developed a violent distaste for the sound of applause This eccentric gentleman sometimes charming sometimes sulky sometimes disconcertingly frank knows the end of his life is approaching and allows himself to be convinced to tell his life story Over a series of coffee dates punctuated by confessions anecdotes and rages and by the narrator's schemes to keep his quarry talking a strained friendship develops between the two men and it soon becomes difficult to tell who is more dependent on whom Rhapsodic and melancholic with shades of Vladimir Nabokov W G Sebald Hans Keilson and Thomas Bernhard Wolf Wondratschek's Self Portrait with Russian Piano is a literary sonata circling the eternal question of whether beauty music and passion are worth the sacrifices some people are compelled to make for them A romantic in a madhouse To let Wondratschek's voice be drowned in the babble of today's literature would be a colossal mistake Patrick S. Skind international bestselling author of Perfume The Story of a Murderer

Love and Loss:

Tales from Hungary Geza Gardonyi, 2010-10-19 Love and Loss Tales from Hungary is an English translation of the following six stories written by Geza Gardonyi Where are you Eve Original title Hol vagy Eva When lord of the castle Akos forbids his stepdaughter's childhood playmate Kelen to court his daughter Kelen is forced to leave town and believes she married another man but instead of getting married she becomes a nun Will Kelen see her again The Three Owls Original title Harom

bagoly When young attorney Kalman gets engaged to a beautiful woman he wants nothing more than to marry her but he finds out that he has three orphaned nephews and his willingness to adopt them might end his engagement Seeing Ethel Original title Leanynezoben When blind cellist Steve moves home to play in a Gypsy band he falls in love with the cobbler's daughter Ethel whose boyfriend was killed in a war against the Russians Forget Me Not Original title Csak ne felejt's When Imrus Kovacs travels to Switzerland he finds out that he cannot become a university student because he does not speak French well He ends up getting a job at a wallpaper factory where he falls in love with his coworker Georgette who is also his boss daughter He plans to marry her but when his parents find out about his relationship they trick him into coming home Will he return for her Blind Mishka A student's diary Original title Vilagtalan Miska Egy tanulo naploja Thirteen year old Erno describes his life in his diary Confession Original title Vallomas When talented painter Sylvester falls in love with Ilka who is on vacation at Lake Balaton he has to overcome the competition from a pharmacy assistant Forgacs who tries to do everything possible to win her affection The above stories were translated by Peter Nanasi in 2010 Cello's Gate Maurice Africh, 2025-03-25 Cello's Gate truly was the wickedly wild and uniquely imaginative adventure I didn't know I needed in my life It's epic yet intimate dark yet light hearted playful yet emotional and it's got a fun factor that just soars higher than the sky Ghandammit frens this is how you write one hell of a debut Esmay Rosalyne Grimdark Magazine My absolute favorite book of the year Africh is a lyrical wordsmith a poet who can turn a phrase into a strand of gold Phoenix McDonald Author of The Talent Continuum From the start this book gripped me Jonathan Neves Mayers Author of Vevin Song A really excellent well written adventure Aaron Sher Author of Applied Leverage I swear I've been WAITING for someone to write this book Ash Readers Quadrant Art imaginative and immersive April April's Shelf Captain Grey and his crew of sky pirates have a reputation for doing the impossible From breaking into high security military research facilities to conning the iCity elite there isn't a lock they can't pick a safe they can't break or a hidden treasure they can't find Until now Returning from a harrowing heist involving a neon battery and a trash chute Grey and his crew are approached by Dalia the immortal daughter of the infamous ArchGovernor and she has an offer The job Locate and steal the Stones of Indigo seven fabled rocks invested with godlike power The search for the first stone is a bona fide treasure hunt guided by an ancient map to a deadly uncharted island that's protected by a mysterious guardian The score One million credits per crew member per stone The catch Well that's where things get a little complicated The stones don't exist They're a myth A bedtime story told to little pirates to make them believe that power and wealth are attainable if you just work hard enough And to make matters infinitely worse Grey's never trusted immortals and Dalia's definitely hiding something Something bad And if they don't figure out what it is it might cost them their lives ONE CREW OF SKY PIRATES SEVEN MYTHOLOGICAL STONES A RACE TO FIND THEM ALL

The great violinist Viktoria Mullova s story is one of striking contrasts and huge challenges As a young musician she was a bright star in the Soviet musical firmament but she stunned the world when she escaped the KGB and fled to the West leaving behind her family friends and all she knew And in her flight from Finland Viktoria also abandoned on her hotel bed the priceless Stradivarius she d played during her triumph at the International Tchaikovsky Competition From Russia to Love recounts the journey of a remarkable woman Armed only with her violin bow and her exceptional talent Viktoria went on to conquer the West As her new life unfolded first in America and then in Europe Viktoria met fellow exiles Nureyev and Rostropovich fell in love with conductor Claudio Abbado and learned to throw off the shackles of her Russian training Granted unparalleled access to her subject Eva Maria Chapman paints an intimate truthful and sensitive portrait of a unique artist Cello Kate Kennedy,2024-12-03 A cello has no language yet it possesses a vocabulary wide enough to tell bear witness and make connections across time and continents which is brought to life in this brilliant new book In this luminous narrative Kate Kennedy a writer and cellist herself weaves together the story of four cellists who suffered various forms of persecution injury and misfortune The stories are those of the forgotten Jewish cellist Pal Hermann who is likely to have been murdered by the Nazis in Lithuania during the Holocaust Lise Cristiani another forgotten performer who is considered to be the first female professional cello soloist and who embarked on an epic concert tour of Siberia in the 1850s taking with her a Stradivarius cello that can be seen to this day in a museum in Cremona in northern Italy Anita Lasker Wallfisch who played in the orchestra at Auschwitz and survived spells in both that camp and in Bergen Belsen and Amedeo Baldovino of the Trieste piano trio whose Mara Stradivarius was lost in a shipwreck in the River Plate between Buenos Aires and Uruguay but later recovered from the water and repaired Interwoven with these remarkable and often moving stories are a series of detours that offer a foil to these remarkable lives Cello examine the themes explored in the narratives from different perspectives drawing together historical research personal experience and interviews and encounters with contemporary cellists in this unique book that will resonate long after the final page Reinventing Bach Paul Elie,2025-10-16 The story of a revolution in music and technology told through a century of recordings of the music of Johann Sebastian Bach In Reinventing Bach his remarkable second book Paul Elie tells the electrifying story of how musicians of genius have made Bach s music new in our time at once restoring Bach as a universally revered composer and revolutionizing the ways that music figures into our lives

As a musician in eighteenth century Germany Bach was on the technological frontier restoring organs inventing instruments and perfecting the tuning system still in use today Two centuries later pioneering musicians began to take advantage of breakthroughs in audio recording to make Bach's music the sound of modern transcendence The sainted organist Albert Schweitzer played to a mobile recording unit set up at London's Church of All Hallows in order to spread Bach's organ works to the world beyond the churches Pablo Casals recording at Abbey Road Studios made Bach's cello suites existentialism for the living room Leopold Stokowski and Walt Disney with Fantasia made Bach the sound of children's playtime and Hollywood grandeur alike Glenn Gould's Goldberg Variations opened and closed the LP era and made Bach the byword for postwar cool and Yo Yo Ma has brought Bach into the digital present where computers and smartphones put the sound of Bach all around us In this book we see these musicians and dozens of others searching experimenting and collaborating with one another in the service of Bach who emerges as the very image of the spiritualized technically savvy artist Reinventing Bach is a gorgeously written story of music invention and human passion and a story with special relevance in our time for it shows that great things can happen when high art meets new technology

Slave to Love Rebecca Campbell, 2004-07-13 Among the assorted snobs and eager sycophants employed at London's fifth largest auction house an enterprise as unimpressive as it sounds Alice Duclos and Andrew Heathley stand out as bright and brainy Alice has a head for science but her cautious temperament and controlling mother keep her toiling at a job she doesn't love And sweet natured adoring Andrew secretly thanks his lucky stars for it He has not given up hope that the incredible Alice will one day realize that his vibrant charms and witty repartee are all for her When a business trip takes them away together Andrew sees his chance to finally capture Alice's attention But much to his chagrin the only person Alice seems to notice is Edward Lynden the handsome reclusive country gentleman who owns the rare and valuable book they have come to appraise As Alice struggles to open up her heart for the first time both Edward and Andrew fight to win her affection But love doesn't always go to the highest bidder

Not Another Love Song Julie Soto, 2024-07-16 From a USA Today bestselling author a competition between a classical violinist and a rock star cellist sparks a sizzling chemistry in this book that's 100% pure magic perfect for fans of Ali Hazelwood and Abby Jimenez Christina Lauren Gwen Jackson is a self taught professional violinist Xander Thorne is the exact opposite a rock star cellist with a bad attitude They both play in the Manhattan Pops and their styles couldn't be more different When Gwen is offered first chair of the orchestra a role Xander has coveted for years she can't help but notice a hostile sense of competition between them but also an electric chemistry as they're forced to work together As they compose and play songs together it's clear that their powerful connection could make for a performance that will blow everyone's minds But can their slowly growing romance survive the pressures of success
