Majesty and Meekness John Braisted Carman,1994 Capital punishment is a relic of Jewish barbarity Franz Hartmann,Helena Petrovna Blavatsky,2021-04-23 Works of fiction are no fiction but presentiments of what lies in the bosom of the future Many will be the unconscious crimes committed and many will be the victims who will innocently suffer death at the hands of the righteous judges and the too innocent jurymen both alike ignorant of the fiendish power of suggestion The body may be slain but not the soul The consequences of the death penalty for judge and jury the community at large and not the least for the criminal are too grim and too harsh to contemplate Capital punishment is futile unnecessary and fraught with potentially dire societal harms While the seed of a tree may be destroyed the spiritual seed which produces the soul of a man cannot be destroyed by capital punishment but will eventually produce such a man again as sure as the seed of a thistle will produce nothing else but a thistle One's criminal powers and proclivities cannot be eliminated by killing his body Having been deprived of one instrument for their manifestation such powers will manifest themselves in other still less convenient and more dangerous ways Moreover by deferring the manifestation of an evil cause we pass on to a future generation an evil inheritance with which we ourselves ought to have contended and which we ought to have sought to ameliorate Mortal man is an instrument of immortal spirit A ray of divine mind dwells in the heart of every man But the divine mind is veiled in man his animal brain alone philosophises The physical man is the musical instrument the divine the performing artist The physical body is a transient mask of the spiritual man within and instrument of action on the objective plane By the power of an inequitable law the slayer's knife did stab himself thus the unjust judge has lost his own defender Letter to Lucifer from a puzzled student Like an eye for an eye capital punishment is nothing but a relic of Jewish barbarity As the jurymen in deciding for a verdict of guilty becomes an accessory in a fresh murder so an increasing number of people refuse to repay evil for evil The Writers Directory ,2013
