The Leatherman:

The Old Leather Man Dan W. DeLuca, 2013-09-01 In 1883 wearing a sixty pound suit sewn from leather boot tops a wanderer known only as the Leather Man began to walk a 365 mile loop between the Connecticut and Hudson Rivers that he would complete every 34 days for almost six years His circuit took him through at least 41 towns in southwestern Connecticut and southeastern New York sleeping in caves accepting food from townspeople and speaking only in grunts and gestures along the way What remains of the mysterious Leather Man today are the news clippings and photographs taken by the first hand witnesses of this captivating individual The Old Leather Man gathers the best of the early newspaper accounts of the Leather Man and includes maps of his route historic photographs of his shelters the houses he was known to stop at along his way and of the Leather Man himself This history tracks the footsteps of the Leather Man and unravels the myths surrounding the man who made Connecticut's caves his home A Driftless Connecticut Series Book funded by the Beatrice Fox Auerbach Foundation Fund at the Hartford Foundation for Public Giving

The Leatherman Kristian J. Kuhn, 2016-01-05 The Leatherman ca 1839 1889 was a peculiar vagabond who traveled a circuit between the Connecticut River and the Hudson River roughly from 1856 to 1889 His background is little known All that is recorded appears in a few newspaper clippings he was fluent in French spoke broken English but often grunted at those he encountered On his person at the time of his death was a French prayer book The Leatherman walked a 365 mile route that took approximately a month in western Connecticut and eastern New York He lived in rock shelters or Leatherman Caves Along his 365 mile loop he would stop at towns to procure his food and supplies The locals in these towns nicknamed him the Leatherman for his attire which was completely made of leather everything from his hat to his shoes Some of the local newspapers from the time recorded that he was exact in his rounds so some of the townsfolk would have food ready for him which was often left outside for him on doorsteps and porches No matter the climate or season the Leatherman donned his adornments In times of cold he would heat his rock shelter with the wood he piled there for such an occasion Records indicate that the Connecticut Humane Society had him arrested and hospitalized after many became concerned of a sore on his lip Legend has it that he escaped from the hospital to rejoin his journey Nobody knows why the Leatherman did this but I think that he did so because he was love stricken After losing the love of his life Margaret Laron he embarked upon this journey These poems are what I surmise his meditations to be his prayers his musings

Romanticism, Origins, and the History of Heredity Christine Lehleiter, 2014-10-30 At the turn of the eighteenth century selfhood was understood as a tabularasa to be imprinted in the course of an individual's life By the middle of the nineteenth century however the individual had become defined as determined by heredity already from birth Examining novels by Goethe Jean Paul and E T A Hoffmann studies on plant hybridization treatises on animal breeding and anatomical collections Romanticism Origins and the History of Heredity delineates how romantic authors imagined the ramifications of emerging notions of heredity for the conceptualization of selfhood Focusing on three fields of inquiry inbreeding and incest cross breeding and bastardization evolution and autopoiesis Christine Lehleiter proposes that the notion of selfhood for which Romanticism has become known was not threatened by considerations of determinism and evolution but was in fact already a result of these very considerations Romanticism Origins and the History of Heredity will be of interest for literary scholars historians of science and all readers fascinated by the long duration of subjectivity and evolutionary thought
