The Lichtenberg Figures Hayden Carruth Emerging Poets Award:

The Lichtenberg Figures Ben Lerner, 2012-12-18 The Lichtenberg Figures winner of the Hayden Carruth Award is an unconventional sonnet sequence that interrogates the relationship between language and memory violence and form Lichtenberg figures are fern like electrical patterns that can appear on and quickly fade from the bodies of people struck by lightning Throughout this playful and elegiac debut with its flashes of autobiography intellection comedy and critique the vocabulary of academic theory collides with American slang and the idiom of the Old Testament meets the jargon of the Internet to display an eclectic sensibility Ben Lerner the youngest poet ever published by Copper Canyon Press is co founder of No a journal of the arts He earned an MFA from Brown University and is currently a Fulbright scholar in Spain Poet's Market Nancy Breen, 1984 The quiet contemporary American novel Rachel Sykes, 2017-12-01 This book explores the concept of quiet an aesthetic of narrative driven by reflective principles and argues for the term's application to the study of contemporary American fiction In doing so it makes two critical interventions Firstly it maps the neglected history of quiet fictions arguing that from Hester Prynne to Clarissa Dalloway from Bartleby to William Stoner the Western tradition is filled with quiet characters Secondly it asks what it means for a novel to be quiet and how we might read for quiet in an American literary tradition that critics so often describe as noisy Examining recent works by Marilynne Robinson Teju Cole and Ben Lerner among others the book argues that quiet can be a multi faceted state of existence one that is communicative and expressive in as many ways as noise but filled with potential for radical discourse by its marginalisation as a mode of expression 2005 Poet's Market® Nancy Breen, Erika Kruse, 2004-07 Presents a guide to publishing poetry containing lists of entries with evaluations of poetry publishers and complete submission and contact information Time, the City, and the Literary Imagination Anne-Marie Evans, Kaley Kramer, 2020-11-18 Time the City and the Literary Imagination explores the relationship between the constructions and representations of the relationship between time and the city in literature published between the late eighteenth century and the present This collection offers a new way of reading the literary city by tracing the ways in which the relationship between time and urban space can shape literary narratives and forms The essays consider the representation of a range of literary cities from across the world and consider how an understanding of time and time passing can impact on our understanding of the primary texts Literature necessarily deals with time both as a function of storytelling and as an experience of reading In this volume the contributions demonstrate how literature about cities brings to the forefront the relationship between individual and communal experience and time
