The life and work of Russell Drysdale Sydney New York 1996      "Australian Art and Artists in London, 1950-1965" Simon Pierse, 2017-07-05 Subtle and wide ranging in its account this study explores the impact of Australian art in Britain in the two decades following the end of World War II and preceding the Swinging Sixties In a transitional period of decolonization in Britain Australian painting was briefly seized upon as a dynamic and reinvigorating force in contemporary art and a group of Australian artists settled in London where they held centre stage with group and solo exhibitions in the capital's most prestigious galleries The book traces the key influences of Sir Kenneth Clark Bernard Smith and Bryan Robertson in their various and varying roles as patrons ideologues and entrepreneurs for Australian art as well as the self definition and interaction of the artists themselves Simon Pierse interweaves multiple issues of the period into a cohesive historical narrative including the mechanics of the British art world the limited and frustrating cultural scene of 1950s Australia and the conservative influence of Australian government bodies Publishing for the first time archival material letters and photographs previously unavailable to scholars either in Britain or Australia this book demonstrates how the work of expatriate Australian artists living in London constructed a distinct vision of Australian identity for a foreign market

Patrick White's Fiction Carolyn Bliss, 1986-08-18 This study examines all eleven novels of Patrick White the great Australian writer and Nobel Prize winner It begins from the observation that major characters in his novels undergo a necessary redemptive or facilitating failure This failure paradoxically enables their success within the context of what White has called the overreaching grandeur which circumscribes human existence Evolution of this theme is traced through forty years of White's fiction from his first novel Happy Valley 1939 to his most recent work The Twyborn Affair 1979

Comprehensive in its scope this book is informed by a thorough knowledge of White's poetry plays short stories and autobiography as well as his novels It is also unique in stressing that White's world view derives from a distinctly Australian experience It thus links him to a country in which he is deeply rooted and to a heritage he continued to affirm

Speaking Out of Turn Charles Manning Hope Clark, Manning Clark, 1997 This fascinating book brings together forty two selected speeches and lectures by Professor Manning Clark They range over fifty years from What of Germany delivered in 1940 to the last delivered in 1991 just before his death at the launch of Barry Humphries book The Life and Death of Sandy Stone and reveal recurring themes as well as developments in Clark's thinking In one sense they are all of a piece They reflect the values aspirations regrets and laughter of one passionate and intelligent man In another they change and develop during the course of that man's intellectual and emotional career In early manhood he analysed issues and problems ruthlessly in terms of his own values In middle life he portrayed men and women and expounded ideas from a historical perspective Towards his end the elegiac mood prevailed and he sought not always successfully to speak as a life affirmer and to regard all men and women and events with the eye of pity A History of Australia Volumes 1 and 2 Earliest Times 1838 deals with the pre white settlement era and the earliest years of European colonisation through to the establishment of an increasingly settled society
