The Making Of Dreams

Lisa D. Hinz

The Making Of Dreams:

Gentleman's Magazine and Historical Review ,1881 The Way the World is Going Herbert George Wells,1928

Drawing from Within Lisa D. Hinz,2006 Drawing from Within is an introductory guide for those wanting to explore the use of art with clients with eating disorders Art therapy is a particularly effective therapeutic intervention for this group as it allows them to express uncomfortable thoughts and feelings through artistic media rather than having to explain them verbally Lisa D Hinz outlines the areas around which the therapist can design effective treatment programmes covering family influences body image self acceptance problem solving and spirituality Each area is discussed in a separate chapter and is accompanied by suggestions for exercises with advice on materials to use and how to implement them Case examples show how a therapy programme can be tailored to the individual client and photographs of client artwork illustrate the text throughout Practical and accessible to practitioners at all levels of experience this book gives new hope to therapists and other mental health professionals who want to explore the potential of using art with clients with eating disorders Real

Cities Steve Pile,2005-05-01 What is real about city life Real Cities shows why it is necessary to take seriously the more imaginary fantastic and emotional aspects of city life Drawing inspiration from the work of Walter Benjamin Sigmund Freud and Georg Simmel Pile explores the dream like and ghost like experiences of the city Such experiences are he argues best described as phantasmagorias The phantasmagorias of city life though commonplace are far from self evident and little understood This book is a path breaking exploration of urban phantasmagorias grounded empirically in a series of unusual and exciting case studies In this study four substantial phantasmagorias are identified dreams magic vampires and ghosts The investigation of each phantasmagoria is developed using a wide variety of clear examples Thus voodoo in New York and New Orleans shows how ideas about magic are forged within cities Meanwhile vampires reveal how specific fears about sex and death are expressed within and circulate between cities such as London and Singapore Taken together such examples build a unique picture of the diverse roles of the imaginary fantastic and the emotional in modern city life What is real about the city has radical consequences for how we think about improving city life for all too often these are over looked in utopian schemes for the city Real Cities forcefully argues that an appreciation of urban phantasmagorias must be central to what is considered real about city life Journal of the American Society for Psychical Research, Section "B" of the
