The Making Of The New Testament Documents:

The Making of the New Testament Documents Edward Earle Ellis, 2002 This volume identifies and investigates literary traditions and their implications for the authorship and dating of the Gospels and the letters of the New Testament Ellis argues that the Gospels and the letters are products of the corporate authorship of four allied apostolic missions and not the creation of individual authors

The Making of the New Testament Documents E. Earle Ellis, 2021-10-25 The Making of the New Testament Documents investigates literary tradition and their implications for the authorship origin and dating of the New Testament Gospels and letters Building upon earlier research it identifies and compares preformed pieces that in the letters call into question the traditional view that the letters were the sole product of an individual whose authorship could be vetted by internal criteria of vocabulary style and theological expression The numerous and diverse epistolary traditions many non authorial argue for a kind of corporate authorship that until now has been unappreciated and apparently unknown to critical scholarship A comparison of the traditions and of the common opposition they sometimes have in view supports a synchronic relationship of the various New Testament documents all of which with the exception of John s Gospel and letters reflect the pre AD 70 period It thus challenges the tradition of F C Baur still widely followed that apart from a few Pauline letters dates New Testament writings from the last decades of the first century to the first half of the second The author contends that the New Testament is the product of four contemporaneous and cooperating apostolic missions each of which produced a Gospel and a number of letters and each of which faced the same judaizing gnosticizing countermission These four allied missions shared both Gospel and epistolary traditions even as they pursued their discrete tasks in the service of the church The arguments of this book if persuasive will require a reassessment of the history of early Christianity This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details

The Making of the New Testament Arthur G. Patzia, 2011-01-03 This revised and expanded edition of The Making of the New Testament is a fascinatingly detailed introduction to the origin collection copying and canonizing of the New Testament documents Here Arthur Patzia explains how biblical scholars have studied the trail of clues and pieced together the story of these books

The Making of the New Testament Arthur G. Patzia, 2025-11-04 The story of the making of the New Testament is one in which scrolls bumped across cobbled Roman roads and pitched through rolling Mediterranean seas finally finding their destinations in stuffy dimly lit Christian house churches in Corinth or Colossae There they were read aloud and reread handled and copied forwarded and collected studied and treasured And eventually they were brought together to make up our New Testament This revised and expanded edition of The Making of the New Testament is a textbook introduction to the origin collection copying and canonizing of the New Testament documents Like shrewd detectives reading subtle whispers of evidence biblical scholars have studied the trail of clues and pieced together the story of these books Arthur Patzia tells the story answering our many questions How were books and documents produced in the first century What motivated the early

Christians to commit teaching and narrative and vision to papyrus How were the stories and sayings of Jesus circulated handed down and shaped into Gospels What do we know about ancient letter writing secretaries and copy shops Why were four Gospels included instead of just one How were Paul's letters sent here and there gathered into a single collection Who decided and by what criteria which documents would be included in the New Testament Explore these questions and more about these Scriptures whose everyday gritty story rings true to their extraordinary message the palpable mystery of the Word made flesh

THE NEW TESTAMENT DOCUMENTS Edward D. Andrews, 2020-06-17 What are the churchgoers the Bible college students and seminary students to do when one Bible scholar says one thing and another Bible scholar says something quite different or worse still several Bible scholars are giving you several different opinions on one particular Bible issue What makes it even more unsettling is when the Christian is not well informed in that area of study only having basic knowledge How can the Christian possibly know which of the Bible scholars are correct Worse still the Christian is put in the embarrassing position on social media of telling an atheist or Bible critic one of the scholar's views and then the atheist or Bible critic responds to the Christian with no your evidence is outdated as recent research points to _____ and then they offer another answer that put the Bible in a bad light What is the Christian to do What will be accomplished here in this publication is we are going to give the reader much evidence when it comes to the documents of the New Testament how that evidence impacts our Bible translations and an in depth look at Bible difficulties as well This can be used to build your faith to save someone who may have begun to doubt the trustworthiness of the Bible and many reading responses that can be used on social media and other forms of your ministry Andrews is an author of more than 140 books many of which are a defense of God's Word
