The Moral Dimensions of Public Policy Choice John Martin Gillroy, Maurice Wade, 1992-08-15 Combining philosophy with practical politics an expanding area of policy studies applies moral precepts critical principles and conventional values to collective decisions This evolving new approach to policy analysis asserts that the same variety of ethical principles available to the individual are also available to make collective decisions in the public interest and should be used Although policy analysis has long been dominated by assumptions originally developed for the examination of markets such as efficiency these essays by leading scholars the best work done in the field over the past three decades explore alternatives to the market paradigm and show how moral discrimination and choice can extend beyond the individual to encompass public decisions Chapters by John Martin Gillroy and Maurice Wade review the political philosophies of Immanuel Kant and David Hume as backgrounds for the development of modern concepts of public policy choice They present this anthology as a first step in codifying options arguments and methods within this important developing area of policy studies American Book Publishing Record ,2005 The Origins and Demise of South African Apartheid Anton David Lowenberg,William H. Kaempfer,1998 What motivated South Africa s former white leaders to hand over the reins of power to a black government Economist Anton D Lowenberg examines the economic interests that led to apartheid and the economic prospects for post apartheid South African society A Companion to Contemporary Political Philosophy Robert E. Goodin,Philip Pettit,Thomas W. Pogge,2012-03-12 This new edition of A Companion to Contemporary Political Philosophy has been extended significantly to include 55 chapters across two volumes written by some of today s most distinguished scholars New contributors include some of today s most distinguished scholars among them Thomas Pogge Charles Beitz and Michael Doyle Provides in depth coverage of contemporary philosophical debate in all major related disciplines such as economics history law political science international relations and sociology Presents analysis of key political ideologies including new chapters on Cosmopolitanism and Fundamentalism Includes detailed discussions of major concepts in political philosophy including virtue power human rights and just war Choice and Public Policy Peter Taylor-Gooby,2016-01-06 Public policies increasingly emphasize active consumerism entrepreneurship on the part of service providers and professionals privatisation and an expanded role for markets Choice and Public Policy draws on research by economists psychologists sociologists and public policy experts The research demonstrates that the traditional rational choice model of economic behaviour is unsatisfactory in providing accounts of the way people choose in relation to work saving spending investment and social welfare It also shows that the public policies of active consumerism public sector entrepreneurship and privatisation based on this approach are seriously flawed The Age of Fragmentation Alessandro Roncaglia,2019-12-05 A wide ranging historical account and critical analysis of the global development of economics from 1940 to the present day Gender- sensitive Planning and Policy Making Mr. Rohit Manglik,2024-04-08 EduGorilla Publication is a trusted name in the education sector committed to empowering learners with high quality study materials and resources Specializing in competitive exams and academic support EduGorilla provides comprehensive and well structured content tailored to meet the needs of students across various streams and levels

Environmental Risk, Environmental Values, And Political Choices John Martin Gillroy,2019-03-07 Public decisions on environmental risk have traditionally been weighed in terms of the principle of efficiency and its methodologies such as cost benefit analysis These original essays argue for moving beyond the market paradigm toward making policy that incorporates environmental values
