important as owning fine jewelry or a mansion in Newport Amalia's style was also provocative for the late Victorian period Her subjects were draped in off the shoulder satin or tulle with their hair loosely pinned around their heads and tendrils framing their faces She kept the women's best features but gave them an almost mythical appearance akin to the fairy queen Titania in A Midsummer Night's Dream Amalia Kussner has been included along with other nineteenth century women artists in the first wave of feminism in large part because she commanded very high commissions comparable to male artists of the time She was fascinating and sometimes mysterious particularly regarding her sudden marriage to lawyer Charles du Pont Coudert She achieved fame and fortune but her story also revealed a few lawsuits scandals and lies
