Diane Flynt offers a new history of the apple and how it changed the South and the nation Showing how southerners cultivated over 2 000 apple varieties from Virginia to Mississippi Flynt shares surprising stories of a fruit that was central to the region for over 200 years Colorful characters abound in this history including aristocratic Belgian immigrants South Carolina plantation owners and multiple presidents each group changing the course of southern orchards She shows how southern apples ranging from northern varieties that found fame on southern soil to hyper local apples grown by a single family have a history beyond the region from Queen Victoria s court to the Oregon Trail Flynt also tells us the darker side of the story detailing how apples were entwined with slavery and the theft of Indigenous land She relates the ways southerners lost their rich apple culture in less than the lifetime of a tree and offers a tentatively hopeful future Alongside unexpected apple history Flynt traces the arc of her own journey as a pioneering farmer in the southern Appalachians who planted cider apples never grown in the region and founded the first modern cidery in the South Flynt threads her own story with archival research and interviews with orchardists farmers cidermakers and more The result is not only the definitive story of apples in the South but also a new way to challenge our notions of history

Our Small Town World Sandra McBride,2017-10-25 Our Small Town World is a collection of forty four feature stories I have written for my hometown weekly newspaper The Express over the past eleven years When I began this venture my goal was to bring to light the history heritage and heart of these small communities that to me are the personification and the essence of this great country we live in And America is a great country because of the hard working and unassuming people who are the rocks upon which it was built Too often the good things that go on in the small towns that are off the radar go unnoticed and unheralded But we are America We in the small town world are the doers the helpers the protectors the caregivers the keepers of the flame I may live in a small town world but in eleven years I have had little trouble finding stories worth writing or neighbors worth writing about It has been my privilege and my honor to be able to record just a few of the many great happenings and the many great people that define our own small town world      Hospitality ,1928      Class ,1925
