My Half of the Conversation Doris Markland, 2017-10-06 If theres one thing thats had a bad rap its age Few people speak of it as something to look forward to yet seniors shudder at the thought of being young again Isnt it wonderful how things work out This author admits that once she learned she could sit down without guilt she sat down a lot From her chair she looks back on the day she spoke out of turn in first grade and on college assignment made a big blunder in church She declined three brilliant job opportunities at twenty but found her voice years later Now on her blog

she writes for sharp older people and their middle aged kids and in the last two years she has published two books Known for her easy flow of words Mrs Markland has the rare ability to speak lightly yet sincerely about some of lifes deepest and most challenging questions Have we lived before Will we be judged and sent to heaven or hell Will we live again As we clean out our closets can we clean out our minds Is there anyone exactly like you Are you spiritual or are you religious Scattered throughout her writing are insights to help searchers find their path recognize a desire or purpose in life and organize themselves to fulfill it It is never too late she believes and at 92 she indeed is the good example Her true stories describe a life of learning and a search leading to the understanding that life is a school where we learn and grow as souls with bodies not bodies with souls

Writing a Graduate Thesis or Dissertation Lorrie Blair, 2016-02-10. The Teaching Writing series publishes user-friendly writing guides penned by authors with publishing records in their subject matter. Blair's practical book gives graduate students the tools they need to successfully plan, write and defend their thesis or dissertation. Each chapter addresses a rite of passage common to most graduate programs: selecting a methodology, conducting a literature search, carrying out research, analyzing data and preparing for a thesis defense. Combining years of supervisory experience with up-to-date research, Blair addresses issues important to graduate students that are often left out of these guides, including how to navigate the ethics review process and avoid problems related to academic integrity such as plagiarism, how to select and prepare for a productive meeting with a supervisor and how to establish an academic track record by presenting research at conferences and publishing in academic journals. Writing a Graduate Thesis or Dissertation offers much more than its title suggests. It is a thorough and succinct guide to succeeding in graduate school, appropriate for thesis and research methods courses and a must-read for graduate students across the disciplines. Like a series of productive meetings with a trusted advisor, each chapter of this text provides practical information and sound insight, thoughtfully organized and generously shared. Christine Marm Thompson, Professor of Art Education, School of Visual Arts, Pennsylvania State University: "This will become a must-have volume for every graduate student's bookshelf with advice for every step of the thesis journey." Anne Lavack, Professor of Marketing, School of Business and Economics, Thompson Rivers University: "More than simply comprehensive, this work includes information and considerations that are rarely addressed in other guides, including information related to selecting supervisors and alternative forms of research methodologies and format styles." Adrienne Boulton Funke, Assistant Professor, Art and Design, Missouri State University: "Lorrie Blair is a Professor of Art Education at Concordia University in Montreal, Quebec. With over 25 years post-secondary teaching experience, she has held positions at universities in the United States and Canada. She is active as a supervisor of MA and Ph.D. thesis students and was a recent recipient of the Faculty of Fine Arts Distinguished Teaching Award."
