Skating With Heather Grace:

Skating with Heather Grace Thomas Lynch, 1986 The Undertaking Thomas Lynch, 2010-03-01 A National Book Award Finalist One of the most life affirming books I have read in a long time brims with humanity irreverence and invigorating candor Tom Vanderbilt Every year I bury a couple hundred of my townspeople So opens this singular and wise testimony Like all poets inspired by death Thomas Lynch is unlike others also hired to bury the dead or to cremate them and to tend to their families in a small Michigan town where he serves as the funeral director In the conduct of these duties he has kept his eyes open his ear tuned to the indispensable vernaculars of love and grief In these twelve pieces his is the voice of both witness and functionary Here Lynch poet to the dying names the hurts and whispers the condolences and shapes the questions posed by this familiar mystery So here is homage to parents who have died and to children who shouldn't have Here are golfers tripping over grave markers gourmands and hypochondriacs lovers and suicides These are the lessons for life our mortality teaches us Booking Passage Thomas Lynch, 2012-02-13 A good read even for those who have not the least ancestral or national bias for those who desire civilized entertainment along with brilliant narrative Seattle Times In thirty five years and dozens of return trips to Ireland Thomas Lynch has found a template for the larger world inside the small one the planet in the local parish Part memoir part cultural study Booking Passage is a brilliant often comedic guidebook for those fellow travelers fellow pilgrims making their way through the complexities of their own lives and times

Still Life In Milford Thomas Lynch, 2011-06-30 In Still Life in Milford Lynch casts the cold eye we are told to on life and death history and memory the local and the larger geographics Examining the dynamics of faith remembrance and intimate conduct these poems are informed by end times tribulations and visions that make up the ordinary enterprise of daily life Colloquy and narrative soliloquy and tribute Still Life in Milford engages the full register of the poet's voices as elegist eulogist obituarist straight man and passer by to achieve a difficult and inimitable harmony Apparition & Late Fictions Thomas Lynch, 2025-04-25 Lynch has added another chapter to one of the most memorable records in American letters William Giraldi New York Times Book Review These stories are linked by the gone and not forgotten former spouses dead parents missing children Lynch creates a world in which people searching for connection and old comforts find them both near at hand and oddly out of reach Mare's Nest Holly Mitchell, 2023-05-02 The debut poetry collection from Holly Mitchell Mare's Nest explores a Kentucky horse farm in its turbulent beginnings The title refers to the idiom a complex and difficult situation a muddle and an illusory discovery as well as an image the depression a horse leaves after lying in the grass These poems trouble the meaning of a racehorse and in particular the broodmare and the foals she carries Reaching from the photographic experiment of Muybridge's Horse in Motion to Patti Smith's album Horses Holly Mitchell touches upon history dreams Southern family stories and queer adolescence in the early aughts Whence and Whither Thomas Lynch, 2019-03-12 From one of our most gifted writers and thinkers about death and the meaning of living comes a collection of writings about what comes next Thomas Lynch funeral director poet and author of the National Book Award finalist The Undertaking Life Studies from the Dismal Trade has an uncanny knack for writing about death in ways that are never morbid always thoughtful often humorous and quite moving From his account of riding in the hearse at the funeral of poet laureate Seamus Heaney to his recounting of the funeral for a young child in the 1800s to his compelling essay about his own mortality Lynch always finds ways to make sense of senseless things as he ponders what will come next Strategic Planning for Nurses Michele Sare, LeAnn Ogilvie, 2010-10-15 This text builds insight and breaks boundaries that have historically hampered nursing's professional progression and power as a stakeholder in an ever changing global business based healthcare arena The Essential Guide to Strategic Planning for Nurses offers specific skill and knowledge based instruction on business concepts trends and issues that face the demographically and culturally diverse nursing workforce of the 21st century From the Sin-é Café to the Black Hills Eamonn Wall, 1999 Eamonn Wall arrived in the United States in the 1980s as part of a wave of young educated immigrants who became known as the New Irish In this book he comments on his own experiences and those of his generation who identify as much with contemporary ethnic and immigrant America as they do with the long settled Irish American community Wall's starting point is the now closed Sin Caf in New York's East Village which was a hangout in the early 1990s for expatriate Irish musicians actors and writers He comments on the poetry fiction essays and memoirs of both the New Irish and Americans of Irish heritage locating them within a literary and historical context But this is also a deeply personal book in which Wall wrestles with his own identity as an Irishman living in America raising his children as Americans and learning to love the American landscape from the streets of Manhattan to the western hills of Nebraska Contemporary Michigan Poetry Michael Delp, Conrad Hilberry, Herbert Scott, 1988 As David Wagoner wrote in the earlier volume The Third Coast A Michigan poet may be undistinguishable from an Illinois poet or an Arizona poet except for subject matter but the publication of this anthology serves to underline one layer of regional cultural strength even though these are not regional poets Over a decade later Contemporary Michigan Poetry is testimony that Michigan poetry continues to flourish Preserving the mood and texture of Michigan in the 1980s this new collection includes the best recent work by the state's most accomplished poets Among the fifty three contributors are Charles Baxter Alice Fulton Jim Harrison Janet Kaufmann Josie Kearns Thomas Lynch John R Reed and Stephen Tudor Each of the editors is also a contributor to this sampling of poems Styles range from understated to extravagant from closely observed to freely imagined Poems are as varied as the Michigan landscape Remarkable in its scope and quality Contemporary Michigan Poetry offers an arresting look at Michigan life and a special glimpse at the preoccupations that possess residents on the Third Coast
