Valleys and Research Triangles in the East of the Netherlands and elsewhere held on 30 November and 1 December 2005 at the Wageningen International Congress Centre WICC in the Netherlands At that time we had an informal agreement with Rob Bogers series editor of the Wageningen UR Frontis book series that if the quality and quantity of the talks and papers at the seminar would be sufficient and if there was willingness among the potential authors an edited book volume based upon the results of the workshop would be a possibility After the workshop when we had a critical mass of ten chapters and a dedicated group of committed authors the book project was given the green light As editors we realized that there were still a couple of topics and themes missing and when we had found colleagues for these four additional chapters that needed to be written our Frontis book was on the roll Although most of the time it was great fun the whole process of writing reviewing rewriting editing and proofreading took a lot of time much more time than we originally had foreseen We would like to thank all authors of the fourteen chapters of this book for their excellent contributions

Food & Freedom Carlo Petrini, 2015-09-01 Inspiring the global fight to revolutionize the way food is grown distributed and eaten In the almost thirty years since Carlo Petrini began the Slow Food organization he has been constantly engaged in the fight for food justice Beginning first in his native Italy and then expanding all over the world the movement has created a powerful force for change The essential argument of this book is that food is an avenue towards freedom This uplifting and humanistic message is straightforward if people can feed themselves they can be free In other words if people can regain control over access to their food how it is produced by whom and how it is distributed then that can lead to a greater empowerment in all channels of life Whether in the Amazon jungle talking with tribal elders or on rice paddies in rural Indonesia the author engages the reader through the excitement of his journeys and the passion of his mission Here Petrini reports upon some of the success stories that he has observed firsthand From Chiapas to Puglia Morocco to North Carolina he has witnessed the many ways different peoples have dealt with food problems This book allows us to learn from these case studies and lays out models for the future The Carnivore's Manifesto Patrick Martins,2014-06-10 One of The Atlantic s Best Food Books of 2014 fifty ways to be an enlightened carnivore while taking better care of our planet and ourselves from the founder of Slow Food USA We have evolved as meat eaters proclaims Patrick Martins and it s futile to deny it But given the destructive forces of the fast food industry and factory farming we need to make smart informed choices about the food we eat and where it comes from In 50 short chapters Martins cuts through organize zealotry and the misleading jargon of food labeling to outline realistic steps everyone can take to be part of the sustainable food movement With wit and insight and no small amount of provocation The Carnivore s Manifesto is both a revolutionary call to arms and a rollicking good read that will inspire engage and challenge anyone interested in the way we eat today The Handbook of Natural Plant Dyes Sasha Duerr,2011-01-19 Through step by step instructions and color saturated photographs textile designer Sasha Duerr explains the basics of making and using natural plant dye from gathering materials and making the dyes to simple ideas for how to use them from publisher description Lifestyle Brands S. reflective and redemptory future from the foreword by David Lowenthal The pivotal figure in Pilgrimage to Vallombrosa is the nineteenth century diplomat and writer George Perkins Marsh generally regarded as America's first environmentalist Like Elder Marsh was a Vermonter and his diplomatic career took him for some years to Italy where witnessing the ecological devastation wrought upon the landscape by runaway deforestation and the plundering of other natural resources he was moved to produce his famous manifesto Man and Nature Marsh drew parallels between the despoiled Italian environment and his home landscape of Vermont warning that the latter was vulnerable to ecological woes of a similar magnitude if not carefully maintained and protected In short his was a prescient voice for stewardship Elder follows in Marsh's footsteps along a trajectory running from Vermont to Italy and at length fetches up at the managed forest of Vallombrosa Punctuated throughout with learned and genial considerations of the poetry of Wordsworth Basho Dante and Frost Elder's narrative takes up issues of sustainability as practiced locally reports on family doings and returns finally as did Marsh's to Vermont where he measures traditional stewardship values against more aggressive conservation oriented measures such as the expansion of wilderness areas John Elder Professor of English and Environmental Studies at Middlebury College is the author of Reading the Mountains of Home and The Frog Run Under the Sign of Nature Explorations in Ecocriticism
