Small Garden-- Bitter Weed George L. Beckford, Michael Witter, 1980 Small garden, bitter weed Michael Witter, George L. Beckford, 1980 Verbal Riddim Christian Habekost, 2022-06-08 This is the first book length study of dub poetry the musical talkover that has been an important part of the reggae scene in Canada Britain and of course the Caribbean since the 1970 s Christian Habekost s qualifications for writing such a book are beyond dispute He is a German poet who has been involved with the dub movement since it began and knows most of its leading figures As Ranting Chako he is featured on the LP Dread Poets Society The bibliography indicates that he has interviewed many of the 43 poet performers mentioned often on several occasions Verbal Riddim based on his doctoral dissertation at the University of Mannheim is a successful blend of the performer and the researcher Poverty and Life Expectancy James C. Riley, 2005-07-18 A multidisciplinary study that reconstructs Jamaica s rise from low to high life expectancy and explains how that was achieved Jamaica is one of the small number of countries that has attained a life expectancy nearly matching that in richer countries despite having a much lower level of per capita income Politics and Violence in Central America and the Caribbean Hannes Warnecke-Berger, 2018-05-23 This book develops a comparative study on violence in Jamaica El Salvador and Belize based on a theoretical approach extensive field research and in depth empirical research It combines the Caribbean and Central America into a single comparative research that explores the historical from the conquista onwards as well as contemporary causes of violence in these societies The volume focuses on forms of violence such as gang violence police violence every day forms of violence vigilantism and organized crime The analysis provides a theoretical perspective that bridges political economy as well as cultural approaches in violence research As such it will be of interest to readers studying development violence political Central American and Caribbean studies Blackness in Latin America and the Caribbean, Volume 2 Norman E. Whitten, Arlene Torres, 1998 Shows regional Black history Homelandings Rahul K. Gairola, 2016-09-21 Homelandings is a critical exploration of the ways that postcolonial diasporas challenge exclusive formulations of home and homeland based on racist and heteronormative assumptions It critically engages with Foucault s notions of biopolitics and governmentality as a conjoined technology of governance in the era of neoliberal capitalism ushered into the global economy from the late 1970s Drawing on texts produced by diasporic people in the UK and USA whose work resists and re appropriates exclusive home sites produced by trends of Anglo American neoliberalism it exposes entrenched discourses of exclusion rooted in race class and sexuality In doing so it offers an urgent intervention for students and scholars of cultural studies postcolonial studies Anglophone literature comparative literature Race and Ethnicity studies and Queer studies Rastafari Ennis Barrington Edmonds, 2002-12-26 Once an obscure group of outcasts from the ghettos of West Kingston Jamaica the Rastafarians have transformed themselves into a vibrant movement firmly grounded in Jamaican society and beyond In Rastafari Ennis Barrington Edmonds provides a compelling portrait of the Rastafarian phenomenon and chronicles how this group much maligned and persecuted became a dominant cultural force in the world today Edmonds charts the evolution of the relationship between Rastafari and the wider Jamaican society from confrontation and repression to grudging tolerance and eventually to cultural integration Edmonds focuses in particular on the internal development of Rastafarianism as a social movement with its network of houses small informal groups that form around leading Rastas and mansions larger more communal associations to track the process of this strikingly successful integration He further demonstrates how Rastafarian artistic creativity especially in fashioning the music and message of reggae was a significant factor in the transition of Rastas from the status of outcasts to the position of cultural bearers Sounds of the Citizens Anne M. Galvin, 2014-06-30 Dancehall it s simultaneously a source of raucous energy in the streets of Kingston Jamaica a way of life for a group of professional artists and music professionals and a force of stability and tension within the community Electronically influenced relevant to urban Jamaicans and highly danceable dancehall music and culture forms a core of popular entertainment in the nation As Anne Galvin reveals in Sounds of the Citizens the rhythms of dancehall music reverberate in complicated ways throughout the lives of countless Jamaicans Galvin highlights the unique alliance between the dancehall industry and community development efforts As the central role of the state in supporting communities has diminished the rise of private efforts such as dancehall becomes all the more crucial The tension however between those involved in the industry and those within the neighborhoods is palpable and often dangerous Amidst all this individual Jamaicans interact with the dancehall industry and its culture to find their own paths of employment social identity and sexual mores As Sounds of the Citizens illustrates the world of entertainment in Jamaica is serious business and uniquely positioned as a powerful force within the community Blood, Bullets And Bodies Imani M. Tafari-Ama, 2017-06-11 Fifth

Edition The true story of Blood Bullets and Bodies a critical multimedia expos about the factors subverting the political will to act in the best interest of the poor even when explicit just cause exists for such altruistic action to take place Blood Bullets and Bodies is a strange and paradoxical story that needs to be read as much as it needs to be told It is a riveting story of sex violence political intrigue and survival by any means necessary The book is a literary mirror that provides a revealing and frightening reflection for a self destructing society to see itself profiled in the throes of its own possible demise Sure to stir controversy the new book contains a compelling rendition of the historical circumstances that have made crime and violence bullets blood and dead bodies the number one problem in late 20th and early 21st century Jamaica Despite the historic One Love Peace Concert and the Peace Truce in 1978 young gunmen seem to have gone wild ever since Using a variety of sophisticated methodological tools including literary sources oral interviews ethnographic studies and the lyrics of popular Reggae songs Imani Tafari Ama details the influences and implications of this violent social discourse for everyday performances of femininity and masculinity in Kingston s inner city environment as well as in the wider Jamaican society Tafari Ama s stated objective in publishing her thesis as a book is to separate fact from fiction in order to find real and enduring solutions that will reduce the distressing flood of blood bullets and bodies that is overflowing the streets of Kingston She hopes that by highlighting some of the facts and exposing much of the fiction about life below the poverty line her provocative book will be a catalyst in motivating the political and community willpower necessary to find and implement the real time solutions that she proposes in her suggested Options for Development Talawa Theatre Company David Vivian Johnson,2021-01-14 This book discusses the theatrical history of Talawa the work of Dr Yvonne Brewster OBE her contribution to the genre of contemporary black British theatre generally and her founding and subsequent directing of Talawa from 1986 to 2001 The analysis details how Brewster s theatre helped forge a black British identity in Britain both on and off the British stage through its strategic presentation of black language and culture in performance Following explanations of definitions and sociolinguistic methodology in Chapter One Voicing an Identity Talawa s theatrical roots are shown in Chapter Two Post Traumatic Slavery Disorder to have begun in Africa developed in Jamaica and further progressed by British Caribbean post war artists in Britain In Chapter Three A Stanger in Non Paradise Brewster s early life her significant contribution to contemporary black British theatre her founding of Talawa and the company s three year residency in the West End are discussed Talawa s work is then explored by genre as follows Chapter Four The Island Plays highlights Talawa s Caribbean productions These are An Echo In The Bone Maskerade The Black Jacobins The Dragon Can t Dance The Lion and Beef No Chicken In Chapter Five The Black South Talawa s American productions The Love Space Demands From The Mississippi Delta and Flyin West point to the relevance of African American work to Talawa s audience Chapter Six Stay in Your Box illustrates Brewster s ground breaking work in the British classical genre The productions discussed are Anthony and Cleopatra King Lear Tis Pity She s a Whore The Importance of Being Earnest and Othello The book ends with Chapter Seven Don t Tell Massa Brewster and her work at Talawa are summed up followed by an insight into her final attempt to secure a permanent home for black theatre in Britain Modern Blackness Deborah A.
