lethal moment at the apex of government at an extraordinarily sensitive time in Australia's history. The book embodies top drawer scholarship, deep sensitivity to antipodean class structures and sensibilities and a nuanced understanding of both democratic and bureaucratic politics. Christine Wallace, author of Germaine Greer: Untamed Shrew and The Private Don: the man behind the legend of Don Bradman. Flying the Southern Cross Michael Molkentin, 2012. In 1928 Charles Kingsford Smith and Charles Ulm made the first trans Pacific flight in the Southern Cross, an aircraft constructed largely of wood and fabric. They made the trip from Oakland, California in nine days during which they faced electrical storms, torrential rain, equipment failure and fuel shortages. Navigational aids were primitive; contact with the outside world was by Morse code only and safety measures were non-existent. After many close calls they triumphantly landed in Brisbane where a crowd of 15,000 welcomed them as heroes. Throughout this extraordinary journey, Ulm kept a logbook in which he recorded his raw impressions of the flight. Using Ulm's logbook plus contemporary newspaper accounts and official documents, Flying the Southern Cross tells the gripping tale of this history-making flight and the aviators who made it happen. The A to Z of Australia James C. Docherty, 2010-04-01. The last continent to be claimed by Europeans, Australia began to be settled by the British in 1788 in the form of a jail for its convicts. While British culture has had the largest influence on the country and its presence can be seen everywhere, the British were not Australia's original populace. The first inhabitants of Australia, the Aborigines, are believed to have migrated from Southeast Asia into northern Australia as early as 60,000 years ago. This distinctive blend of vastly different cultures contributed to the ease with which Australia has become one of the world's most successful immigrant nations. The A to Z of Australia relates the history of this unique and beautiful land which is home to an amazing range of flora and fauna, a climate that ranges from tropical forests to arid deserts and the largest single collection of coral reefs and islands in the world. Through a detailed chronology, an introduction, appendixes, a bibliography and cross-referenced dictionary entries on some of the more significant persons, places and events, institutions and organizations and political, economic, social, cultural and religious facets, author James Docherty provides a much-needed single volume reference on Australia from its most unpromising of beginnings as a British jail to the liberal, tolerant democracy it is today.

One Hundred Years of Air Power and Aviation Robin Higham, 2003. In this precise, interpretive and informative volume, Higham looks at everything from the roots of strategic bombing and tactical air power to the lessons learned and unlearned during the invasion of Ethiopia, the war in China and the Spanish Civil War. He also considers the problems posed by jet aircraft in Korea and the use of Patriot missiles in the Persian Gulf. He covers anti-guerrilla operations, doctrine, industrial activities and equipment as well as the development of commercial airlines. Charles Kingsford Smith Peter Davis, 1977. The life story and career of the pioneering Australian pilot. No Empty Chairs Ian Mackersey, 2012-05-10. The 1914-18 conflict narrated through the voices of the men whose combat was in the air.
