Smokescreen Philip J. Hilts,1996 Cigarettes smoking intrigue and a troubling look at the abuses of corporate power

Smoke Screen Philip J. Hilts,1996-10-01 A full expose of the tobacco industry s 40 year war on the health of every American The secrets denials delaying tactics and out right lies that the tobacco industry has foisted on us all are documented in this by turns shocking fascinating and infuriating page turner as Hilts unravels what may be the most deceitful and deadly marketing campaign in history Cuts right to the heart of what has enraged the American public the clearest statement he heard from RJR executives came in a Q A period at a sales meeting Someone asked who the youngsters were that were being targeted jr high school kids or younger The reply They got lips We want em Tobacco Industry and Smoking Fred C Pampel,Fred C. Pampel,2009 Praise for the previous edition Golden Holocaust Robert N.

Proctor,2012-02-28 The cigarette is the deadliest artifact in the history of human civilization It is also one of the most beguiling thanks to more than a century of manipulation at the hands of tobacco industry chemists In Golden Holocaust Robert N Proctor draws on reams of formerly secret industry documents to explore how the cigarette came to be the most widely used drug on the planet with six trillion sticks sold per year He paints a harrowing picture of tobacco manufacturers conspiring to block the recognition of tobacco cancer hazards even as they ensnare legions of scientists and politicians in a web of denial Proctor tells heretofore untold stories of fraud and subterfuge and he makes the strongest case to date for a simple yet ambitious remedy a ban on the manufacture and sale of cigarettes Culture Wars Roger Chapman,2015-03-17 The term culture wars refers to the political and sociological polarisation that has characterised American society the past several decades This new edition provides an enlightening and comprehensive A to Z ready reference now with supporting primary documents on major topics of contemporary importance for students teachers and the general reader It aims to promote understanding and clarification on pertinent topics that too often are not adequately explained or discussed in a balanced context With approximately 640 entries plus more than 120 primary documents supporting both sides of key issues this is a unique and defining work indispensable to informed discussions of the most timely and critical issues facing America today

Environmental Justice Kristin Shrader-Frechette,2002-09-26 Shrader Frechette offers a rigorous philosophical discussion of environmental justice Explaining fundamental ethical concepts such as equality property rights procedural justice free informed consent intergenerational equity and just compensation and then bringing them to bear on real world social issues she shows how many of these core concepts have been compromised for a large segment of the global population among them Appalachians African Americans workers in hazardous jobs and indigenous people in developing nations She argues that burdens like pollution and resource depletion need to be apportioned more equally and that there are compelling ethical grounds for remedying our environmental problems She also argues that those affected by environmental problems must be included in the process of remedying those problems that all citizens have a duty to engage in activism on behalf of Environmental Justice and that in a democracy it is the people not the government that are ultimately responsible for fair use of the environment

Cancer Melvyn F. Greaves, 2001 In this lucid and entertaining book Mel Greaves argues that evolutionary biology offers a new perspective that can help us unravel the riddle of cancer Why for example have women always had such a raw deal in the cancer stakes And why are some cancers such as prostate cancer increasing in incidence Greaves argues that Darwinian selection millions of years ago has endowed our genes and cells with inherently cancerous credentials and this is exacerbated by our rapid social evolution and exotic behavioural traits that outpace genetic adaptation The book is full of novel insights the latest scientific discoveries and wonderful historical anecdotes It provides a unique portrait of cancer past present and future

The Advertising Age Encyclopedia of Advertising John McDonough, Karen Egolf, 2015-06-18 For a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample entries and more visit the The Advertising Age Encyclopedia of Advertising website Featuring nearly 600 extensively illustrated entries The Advertising Age Encyclopedia of Advertising provides detailed historic surveys of the world's leading agencies and major advertisers as well as brand and market histories it also profiles the influential men and women in advertising overviews advertising in the major countries of the world covers important issues affecting the field and discusses the key aspects of methodology practice strategy and theory Also includes a color insert

The Voice of Business Karen S. Miller, 2000-11-09 In 1933 John W Hill opened the New York office of what would become the most important public relations agency in history Hill Knowlton Inc By 1959 the combined sales of its clients which included Procter Gamble Texaco Gillette and Avco Manufacturing as well as the steel tobacco and aviation industries trade associations amounted to 10 percent of the gross national product The Voice of Business chronicles Hill Knowlton's influence on American public discourse in the years following World War II Guided by its founder's conservative ideals Hill Knowlton developed a twofold mission to influence public discussion about issues important to its clients and to educate Americans about big business Karen Miller shows how the agency tried to manipulate public opinion political debate and news media content about such issues as postwar military aircraft procurement the deregulation of margarine production President Truman's seizure of steel mills in 1952 and the cigarette health scare of 1953-54 Though its campaigns did not change many opinions she says Hill Knowlton affected the public indirectly by reinforcing the ideas of its clients and other conservatives

Smoke Sander L. Gilman, Xun Zhou, 2004 People have always smoked and they probably always will Every culture in recorded history has smoked something whether for pleasure or relief whether as part of an elaborate religious ritual or merely to strike a pose This is the first truly comprehensive history of smoking describing all of its forms practices paraphernalia and materials in cultures locations and times throughout the world

Living the Policy Process Philip B. Heymann, 2008-04-02 Policymaking in large bureaucracies is hardly a simple process Even the most respected policymakers have to contend with obstacles that seemingly have little to do with the issue at hand office politics work structure and shifting political environments Yet learning to manage such complex environments is necessary for good policymaking In Living the Policy Process Philip Heymann outlines the complex thought processes of policymakers as they struggle to influence both foreign and domestic policy decisions from within the United States government bureaucracy Focusing on three critical situations to illuminate the politics of policy choice the successful attempt to sell missiles to the Mujahideen in Afghanistan in the 1980s the Iran Contra scandal and the FDA's attempt to regulate smoking as well as the efforts to do the same by an outside lobbyist Heymann dissects the intuitive yet rigorous framework that highly skilled policymakers follow to influence government outcomes Throughout he offers detailed accounts of the policy process at work in the Reagan first Bush and Clinton administrations from the cabinet level down to the middle tiers of the federal bureaucracy Heymann deftly describes the shifting real world conditions that government officials face as they struggle to shape the policy agenda Ultimately Living the Policy Process offers a clear incisive look at the complex considerations involved from all perspectives with concrete examples and enriches the understanding of the overall policy process for students scholars and practitioners Tobacco Jason

Porterfield,2008-01-15 Discusses the effects and dangers of tobacco its damaging physiological effects on the mind and body and how to quit using it The Tobacco Challenge Geraint Howells,2016-02-17 Addressing three central questions of legal policy this is an interesting and comprehensive analysis of the need to control and regulate tobacco consumption The core issues of the book are litigation vs regulation with a comparative analysis of the US and European approaches the challenge to regulate tobacco as a lawful product within constitutional limits to promote the reduction of risks to health and the extent to which consumers should be entrusted with information to make their own informed choices Suggesting dialogue and transparency in policy development this book covers advertising psychology ethics economics and health in addition to the central debate about the litigation and regulation of tobacco and the role of consumer protection law and private law

Public Health Ethics Ronald Bayer,2007 As it seeks to protect the health of populations public health inevitably confronts a range of critical ethical challenges This volume brings together 25 articles that open up the terrain of the ethics of public health It features topics such as tobacco and drug control and infectious disease Forces of Habit David T.

Courtwright,2002-10-30 A global history of the acquisition of progressively more potent means of altering ordinary waking consciousness this book is the first to provide the big picture of the discovery interchange and exploitation of the planet's psychoactive resources from tea and kola to opiates and amphetamines Archives and the Public Good Richard J.

Cox,David A. Wallace,2002-06-30 This volume widens the perspective of the roles that records play in society As opposed to most writings in the discipline of archives and records management which view records from cultural historical and economical efficiency dimensions this volume highlights that one of the most salient features of records is the role they play as sources of accountability a component that often brings them into daily headlines and into courtrooms Struggles over control access preservation destruction authenticity accuracy and other issues demonstrate time and again that records are not mute observers and recordings of activity Rather they are frequently struggled over as objects of memory formation and erasure The 14 powerful case studies focus around four closely related themes explanation secrecy memory and trust They demonstrate how records compel shape distort and recover social interactions across space and time The diverse range of case studies includes the ownership of the Martin Luther King Jr papers the destruction of records on Nazi war criminals in Canada the politics of documents in the Iran Contra affair the failure of records management in the U S Internal Revenue Service the publication of tobacco company documents on the World Wide Web access to records associated with the U S government s infamous Tuskegee syphilis study the role of the U S National Archives in identifying assets looted by the Nazis in the wake of the Holocaust the destruction of public records by the South African government during apartheid s final years the construction of foreign relations of the U S documentary histories the forgery corrupting recordkeeping systems and the collapse of foreign indigenous commercial banks

For Your Own Good Jacob Sullum,1998 In this rousing rebuttal to the almost universal public attack against tobacco and its users Sullum provides a rational and commonsense defense of the rights of smokers arguing that government bureaucrats must respect the rights of adults who make the informed decision to smoke photo insert

FDA Administrative Enforcement Manual Florence R. Parker,2005-02-18 When a problem arises with a product regulated by FDA the Agency can take a number of actions to protect the public health Initially the agency works with the manufacturer to correct the problem voluntarily If that fails administrative enforcement and legal remedies include asking the manufacturer to recall a product and having federal marshal

The Drug Problem Martin Levinson,2002-08-30 Current approaches to the drug problem are not working and almost everyone agrees that more effective solutions are needed This comprehensive volume offers a dynamic new approach to understanding and solving the drug problem This text applies the techniques and formulations of general semantics to investigate and make recommendations about various aspects of drug abuse General semantics a process problem solving approach based on the primacy of the scientific method and importance of language as a shaper of thoughts and perceptions has a proven record of success in problem solving across a wide variety of disciplines and fields Topics examined include American drug history and policy the legalization issue drugs and creativity treatment and prevention A chronological overview of drug taking in human history and a resource guide are provided One chapter offers an in depth description of an effective drug abuse prevention model and a program using the model
