Social God:

The Social God Kenneth Leech, 2003-10-28 The central theme of The Social God is the belief that God is social and that both Christian prayer and Christian social action are rooted in the nature of God Christian action in the fields of social justice and the political arena is rooted in Christian doctrine The Social God stresses the essential unity of doctrine and action of prayer and politics examining the Christian understanding of God and his relationship with the world Kenneth Leech emphasizes the centrality of the Incarnation and reveals the other aspects of Christian spirituality the dangers of a new fascism and the need for a renewal of Christian theology The Social God and the Relational Self Stanley J.

Grenz, 2001-01-01 In this the first of a six volume contribution to systematic theology Grenz creatively extends the insights of contemporary Trinitarian thought to theological anthropology The Social God and the Relational Self is an example of theological construction as an ongoing conversation involving biblical texts the theological heritage of the Christian tradition and the contemporary historical social context Sharing Catholic Social Teaching, 1998 In this thoughtful reflection the bishops present a compelling explanation of how Catholic social teaching is central to keeping the Church strong God's Church-Community David Emerton, 2020-07-09 David Emerton argues that Dietrich Bonhoeffer's ecclesial thought breaks open a necessary third way in ecclesiological description between the Scylla of ethnographic ecclesiology and the Charybdis of dogmatic ecclesiology Building on a rigorous and provocative discussion of Bonhoeffer's thought Emerton establishes a programmatic theological grammar for any speech about the church Emerton argues that Bonhoeffer understands the church as a pneumatological and eschatological community in space and time and that his understanding is built on eschatological and pneumatological foundations These foundations in turn give rise to a unique methodological approach to ecclesiological description an approach that enables Bonhoeffer to proffer a genuinely theological account of the church in which both divine and human agency are held together through an account of God the Holy Spirit Emerton proposes that this approach is the perfect remedy for an endemic problem in contemporary accounts of the church that of attending either to the human empirical church community ethnographically or to the life of God dogmatically and to each problematically at the expense of the other This book will act as a clarion call towards genuinely theological ecclesiological speech which is allied to real ecclesial action Current Literature, 1918 The Image of God in an Image Driven Age Beth Felker Jones, Jeffrey W.

Barbeau, 2016-03-18 Humans are created in the image of God yet by choosing to rebel against God we become unfaithful bearers of his image But Jesus who is the image of God restores the divine image in us At the intersection of theology and culture these essays offer a unified vision of what it means to be truly human and created in the divine image in the world today Paul, the Community, and Progressive Sanctification James M. Howard, 2007 What role does the Christian community play in the process of growing in Christian maturity This book argues that in Pauline theology the redeemed community is a necessary means for the progressive sanctification of the individual believer an idea that is largely misunderstood in parts of the Western church It evaluates foundational theological considerations traditionally omitted from sanctification studies and places them within the context of Pauline theology Included are the missiological nature of holiness the initiatory character of God the creation of the new humanity as reflecting the image of God and the impact upon the church resulting from the radical redefinition by Christ of the cultural symbols surrounding the Jewish temple system This book offers a corrective to the individualized approach to Christian growth For Paul the focus of God s transformative activity culminates with the community rather than the individual the goal of which is to reveal God s glory to the broader creation

Relational Spirituality Todd W. Hall, 2021-05-25 Human beings are fundamentally relational we develop heal and grow through relationships Integrating insights from psychology and theology Todd W Hall and M Elizabeth Lewis Hall present a definitive model of spiritual transformation based on a relational paradigm showing how transformation works practically in the context of relationships and community

Make/Believing the World(s) Mark S. McLeod-Harrison, 2009-11-10 A vigorous defence of a radical ontological pluralism that requires theism and is consistent with traditional Christianity

True Prayer Kenneth Leech, 1995-10 True Prayer     Commonwealth and Covenant Marcia Pally, 2016-03-02 In Commonwealth and Covenant Marcia Pally argues that in order to address current socioeconomic problems we need not more economic formulas but rather a better understanding of how the world is set up an ontology of how we and the world work Without this good proposals that arise lack political will and go unimplemented Pally describes our basic setup as separability amid situatedness or distinction amid relation Though we are all unique individuals we become our singular selves through our relations and responsibilities to the people and environments around us Pally argues that our culture s overemphasis on separability individualism run amok results in greed adversarial and deceitful political discourse and chicanery resource grabbing broken relationships and anomie Maintaining that separability and situatedness can and must be considered together in public policy Pally draws on intellectual history philosophy and especially historic Christian and Jewish theologies of relationality to construct a new framework for addressing present economic and political ills

The Trinity in the Gospel of John Royce G. Gruenler, 2004-04-08 No book in the Bible says more about the Trinity than the Gospel of John Of the innumerable commentaries published on this much loved Gospel few have focused on this central theme I have tried writes the author to listen to the discourses of Jesus in John and draw forth the disclosures of God s social nature in the activity of the incarnate Son He discovers something quite remarkable about the attitude of the persons of the Triune Community something he calls disposability Father Son and Spirit are there for the other servants who place themselves at the other person s disposal in an act of total generosity They serve not only each other but also the fallen human race and the creatures they redeem are invited to wash one another s feet as servants to the world Devoted Bible students will find in this thematic commentary a dimension to the Gospel of John they may have noticed only vaguely As they follow the author through this Gospel chapter by chapter they will acquire a far deeper understanding of the Triune God whom they serve because he has served them      Rewired Brandon Cox,2014 This book challenges readers to push the boundaries of how they communicate the gospel to not just join the worldwide conversation but to lead it      Healthy Human Life James K. Bruckner,2012-06-18 Health is God s original created intent whole persons healthy relationships a thriving environment and ongoing interaction with himself In the Bible human health is body based community based and deeply integrated in a relationship with God s creating Spirit The Pentateuch prophets writings Gospels and epistles all are deeply if not primarily concerned with the ongoing and ultimate health of God s good creation Scripture also has a wide perspective on the disruption of human health It deals with the human tendency to violence corruption and self destructive behaviors The recently renewed interest in health vitality and spirituality of all kinds has led to this articulation of a biblical spirituality in relation to human health Surprisingly when we look for spirituality in the Bible we find real and embodied relationships Everyone is for health and for the restoration of health But what are health and healing How does the Bible describe or define them Here is the result of ten years of conversations with health care professionals in a master s course on biblical perspectives on health and healing The biblical witness can transform the way we practice the healing arts This book provides a biblical foundation for health and its restoration      God's Church in the World Andrew Davison,Anna Matthews,Alison Milbank,Philip North,Gemma Simmonds,Ric Thorpe,Rowan Williams ,2020-06-30 God s Church in the World The Gift of Catholic Mission presents a confident and joyful assertion of the Catholic character of Christian mission and its sacramental nature exploring the transforming role the Catholic tradition can play in the evangelism A range of outstanding contributors explore the gifts that the Catholic tradition formed by a conviction that the presence of Christ in the Eucharist intensifies and motivates an awareness of the sacramental presence of Christ in the world can bring to the church s engagement with the world Chapters include Mission and the Life of Prayer Mission and the Sacraments Catholic Mission in Practice The Virgin Mary and Mission Vocation and Mission The Sacraments as Converting Ordinances Social Justice and Growth in Anglo Catholic Churches Reflections on Scripture and Catholic Mission Catholic Mission Historical Perspectives The contributors represent the breadth of Catholic traditions and identities in the Church of England today      Christianity in Evolution Jack Mahoney,2011-08-01 Evolution has provided a new understanding of reality with revolutionary consequences for Christianity In an evolutionary perspective the incarnation involved God entering the evolving human species to help it imitate the trinitarian altruism in whose image it was created and counter its tendency to self absorption Primarily however the evolutionary achievement of Jesus was to confront and overcome death in an act of cosmic significance ushering humanity into the culminating stage of its evolutionary destiny the full sharing of God s inner life Previously such doctrines as original sin the fall sacrifice and atonement stemmed from viewing death as the penalty for sin and are shown not only to have serious difficulties in themselves but also to emerge from a Jewish culture preoccupied with sin and sacrifice that could not otherwise account for death The death of Jesus on the cross is now seen as saving humanity not from sin but from individual extinction and meaninglessness. Death is now seen as a normal process that affects all living things and the religious doctrines connected with explaining it in humans are no longer required or justified. Similar evolutionary implications are explored affecting other subjects of Christian belief including the Church, the Eucharist, priesthood and moral behavior.

Introducing Christian Theologies II Victor I Ezigbo, 2016-08-25. Should Christianity's theological face remain largely European and North American in the twenty-first century in the wake of the expansion of Christianity in sub-Saharan Africa, Asia, and Latin America? The question about the theological face of Christianity cannot be ignored. For too long African, Asian, and Latin American theologians have been left out of mainstream theological discussions. Few standard textbooks on Christian theology acknowledge the unique contributions theologians from these continents have made to global Christianity. Introducing Christian Theologies: Voices from Global Christian Communities is a two-volume textbook that alters the predominantly European and North American theological face of Christianity by interacting with the voices of Christian communities from around the globe. Introducing Christian Theologies explores the works of key theologians from across the globe, highlighting their unique contributions to Christian theology and doctrine.

All God's Animals Christopher Steck, 2019-10-01. The book is the first of its kind to draw together in conversation the views of the early Church, contemporary biblical and theological scholarship, and post-conciliar teachings. Steck develops a comprehensive Catholic theology of animals based on an in-depth exploration of Catholicism's fundamental doctrines: trinitarian theology, Christology, pneumatology, eschatology, and soteriology. All God's Animals makes two central claims. First, we can hope that God will include animals of the present age in the kingdom inaugurated by Christ. Second, because of this inclusion, our responses to animals should be guided by the values of the kingdom. As Christians await the final liberation of all creation, they are to be witnesses to God's kingdom by embodying its ideals in their relations with animal life. Because the kingdom's fullness is yet to come, and because our world remains marked by the wounds of sin, however, Christian treatment of animals will at times require acts that are at odds with the kingdom's ideals, for example, those causing suffering and death. Steck examines each of these ideas and explores all of their complexities.

Preservation and Protest Ryan Patrick McLaughlin, 2014-11-01. Preservation and Protest proposes a novel taxonomy of four paradigms of nonhuman theological ethics by exploring the intersection of tensions between value terms and teleological terms. McLaughlin systematically develops the paradigm of cosmocentric transfiguration, arguing that the entire cosmos shares in the eschatological hope of a harmonious participation in God's triune life. With this paradigm, McLaughlin offers an alternative to anthropocentric and conservationist paradigms within the Christian tradition, an alternative that affirms both scientific claims about natural history and the theological hope for eschatological redemption.

Divine Doppelgängers Collin Cornell, 2020-03-16. The Bible says that YHWH alone is God, and that there is none like him, but texts and artwork from antiquity show that many gods looked very similar. In this volume, scholars of the Hebrew Bible and its historical contexts address the problem of YHWH's ancient look-alikes, providing recommendations for how Jews and Christians can think theologically about this challenge Sooner or later whether in a religion class or a seminary course students bump up against the fact that God the biblical God was one among other comparable gods The ancient world was full of gods including great gods of conquering empires dynastic gods of petty kingdoms goddesses of fertility and personal spirit guardians And in various ways these gods look like the biblical God Like the God of the Bible they too controlled the fates of nations chose kings bestowed fecundity and blessing and cared for their individual human charges They spoke and acted They experienced wrath and delight They inspired praise All of this leaves Jews and Christians in a bind how can they confess that the God named YHWH was and is the true and living God in view of this God s profound similarities to all these others The essays in this volume address the theological challenge these parallels create providing reflections on how Jews and Christians can keep faith in YHWH as God while acknowledging the reality of YHWH s divine doppelg ngers It will be welcomed by undergraduates studying religion seminarians and graduate students of Bible theology and the ancient world and adult education classes
