Social Planning and Human Service Delivery in the Voluntary Sector Gary A. Tobin, 1985-11-19 Social Planning and Human Service Delivery in the Voluntary Sector Gary A. Tobin, 1985-11-19 Journal of Human Services Abstracts, 1984 Faith-Based Initiatives and Aging Services James W. Ellor, F. Ellen Netting, 2012-12-06

Gain an understanding of the increased role religious congregations now play in providing social support to the elderly. Religious congregations and faith-based organizations from the Jewish, Christian, and Islamic traditions have worked on behalf of older adults for centuries. But the initiation of President Bush's Office of Faith-Based Initiatives has raised many questions from both the traditional secular and sectarian services as well as many nontraditional services found in each community. Faith-Based Initiatives and Aging Services addresses the issues of the separation of church and state, the concerns involved in developing social services in religious congregations, and the larger public policy implications of this office. This unique book offers perspectives from traditional and nontraditional faith-based groups as well as experts in volunteerism. The enactment by Congress of the Charitable Choice section of the federal welfare reform law combined with the creation of the Center for Faith-Based and Community Initiatives in the United States Department of Health and Human Services to signal a high level of interest in supporting faith-based organizations. Faith-Based Initiatives and Aging Services focuses on the specific applications of services provided by religious congregations. Editors F. Ellen Netting and James W. Ellor conducted an in-depth interview with Elizabeth Seal Scott, then Director of the Center for Faith-Based and Community Initiatives; an edited transcript of the interview is included in the book to help promote understanding of the development and implementation of faith-based grass roots programs. Faith-Based Initiatives and Aging Services examines the separation of church and state, Baptist perspectives on faith-based initiatives and religious liberty, managing older volunteers, faith organizations and ethnically diverse elders, the heritage of religion and spirituality in the field of gerontology, faith-related agencies and their implications for aging services, the role of religious congregations in the social service system. Faith-Based Initiatives and Aging Services is an essential resource for anyone interested in developing programs for older adults in religious congregations, for human services staffs seeking to work with faith-based initiatives, and for government workers in need of a better understanding of faith-based services in their community.

A Survey of Voluntaristics David Horton Smith, 2015-11-24. This article provides a survey of the growth of research on Nonprofit Sector and Voluntary Action Research, now termed simply voluntaristics. The author founded the organized global interdisciplinary socio-behavioral science field of voluntaristics in 1971 with his formation and establishment of the Association for Research on Nonprofit Organizations and Voluntary Action (ARNOVA) www.arnova.org. Both ARNOVA and its interdisciplinary academic journal, Nonprofit and Voluntary Sector Quarterly (NVSQ), have served as initial models for the global diffusion of this interdisciplinary field, now present in all inhabited continents and with upwards of 20,000 academic participants in at least 130 nations and territories and likely more. Voluntaristics, after more than 40 years of growth now qualifies as a new global integrative academic discipline in the socio behavioral sciences and related social professions not just as one of many interdisciplinary fields of research according to six defining criteria for a discipline However the author prefers to label voluntaristics as an inter discipline since its hallmark is the interdisciplinary study of all voluntary nonprofit sector VNPS phenomena A Professional Research and Knowledge Taxonomy for Youth
