the reformers successes and defeats alike served to discredit and demoralize the regimes they sought to redeem The essays in this volume examine the historic and present day role of the internal critics who whatever their intentions used Marxism as critique to demolish Marxism as ideocracy but did not succeed in replacing it Included here are essays by James P Scanlan on the USSR Ferenc Feher on Hungary Leslie Holmes on the German Democratic Republic Raymond Taras on Poland James Satterwhite on Czechoslovakia Vladimir Tismaneanu on Romania Mark Baskin on Bulgaria and Oskar Gruenwald on Yugoslavia In concert the contributors provide a comprehensive intellectual history and a veritable Who's Who of revisionist Marxism in Eastern Europe Funding, Power and Community Development Niamh McCrea, Fergal Finnegan, 2019-01-23 This edited collection critically explores the funding arrangements governing contemporary community development and how they shape its theory and practice International contributions from activists practitioners and academics consider the evolution of funding in community development and how changes in policy and practice can be understood in relation to the politics of neoliberalism and contemporary efforts to build global democracy from the bottom up Thematically the collection explores matters such as popular democracy the shifting contours of the state market relationship prospects for democratising the state the feasibility of community autonomy the effects of managerialism and hybrid modes of funding such as social finance The collection is thus uniquely positioned to stimulate critical debate on both policy and practice within the broad field of community development Habermas William Outhwaite, 2013-04-30 This new edition of a well regarded book provides a concise and exceptionally clear introduction to Habermas's work from his early writings on the public sphere through his work on law and the state to his more recent discussion of science religion and contemporary Europe Outhwaite examines all of Habermas's major works and steers a steady course through the many debates to which they have given rise A major feature of the book is that it provides a detailed critical analysis of Habermas's most important work The Theory of Communicative Action As well as looking at Habermas's appraisal of figures such as Foucault and Derrida the book also examines his resolute defence of the Enlightenment project his work on law and democracy and its implications for the important topic of European integration This book quickly became established as an authoritative guide to Habermas's work and this updated new edition will be an invaluable critical introduction for students and scholars across the social sciences and humanities especially sociology politics philosophy and social theory Free to Hate Martin Marinos, 2023-11-21 Linking neoliberalism with the Right's global rise Bulgaria's media driven pivot to right wing populism parallels political developments taking place around the world Martin Marinos applies a critical political economy approach to place Bulgarian right wing populism within the structural transformation of the country's media institutions As Marinos shows media concentration under Western giants like Westdeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung and News Corporation have led to a neoliberal turn of commercialization concentration and tabloidization across media The Right have used the anticommunism and racism bred by this environment to not only undermine traditional media but position their own outlets to boost new
