Social Sciences in Forestry Fay Rumsey, 1972 Social Sciences in Forestry William Allen Duerr, 1975 Cleopatra was not the renowned beauty of legend her strength lay in her intelligence courage and charm and she would need all three in her short and perilous reign She became Queen of Egypt at eighteen and by twenty had been driven from her throne But she raided an army and won the support of the great Julius Caesar who helped her return to rule In the note on sources the authors indicate that much of the information about Cleopatra has been based on legend that many documents from her lifetime were destroyed after her death Even Plutarch's histories were written a hundred years after her death The large picture book presentation lacks reference aids would be challenging for researchers but it is smoothly written fascinating to read The gouache illustrations for this book add to the narrative presentation Cleopatra's name still glitters across history evoking opulence ambition and tragedy Raised in the shadow of the mighty Roman Empire she dared to dream of a world united under Egyptian rule She almost succeeded and if she had we would live in a far different world today Cleopatra was not the renowned beauty of legend her strength lay in her intelligence courage and charm and she would need all three in her short and perilous reign She became Queen of Egypt at eighteen and by twenty had been driven from her throne But she raised an army and won the support of the great Julius Caesar who helped her return to rule We will never know what these two brilliant and ambitious people might have accomplished together for Caesar soon fell to Roman assassins Instead it was Mark Antony another famous Roman who risked everything with Cleopatra in pursuit of world power Social Sciences in Forestry, 1989 A.I.D. Research and Development Abstracts, 1990 PISA 2015 Assessment and Analytical Framework Science, Reading, Mathematic, Financial Literacy and Collaborative Problem Solving OECD, 2017-08-31 What is important for citizens to know and be able to do The OECD Programme for International Student Assessment PISA seeks to answer that question through the most comprehensive and rigorous international assessment of student knowledge and skills Reading-Writing Connections Mary F. Heller, 1999-04 Reprint of 2 e originally published by Addison Wesley Longman This language arts textbook focuses on appropriate methods materials enabling elementary middle school teachers to integrate reading writing listening speaking in K 8 classrooms Using Social Science to Understand and Improve Wildland Fire Organizations Gregory Larson, 2007 The wildland fire community has spent the past decade trying to understand and account for the role of human factors in wildland fire organizations Social research that is relevant to managing fire organizations can be found in disciplines such as social psychology management and communication However such research has been published primarily for scientific and business audiences and much of the fire community has not been exposed to it Here we have compiled and organized knowledge from a variety of social science disciplines so that it can be used to improve organizational practices related to firefighter and public safety to assess the effectiveness of safety campaigns and to improve firefighter safety trainings This annotated reading list summarizes approximately 270 books articles and online resources that address scientific and management concepts helpful for understanding the human side of fire management The first section Human Factors and Firefighting introduces readers to key workshops and writings that led to the recognition that human factors are prime ingredients of firefighter safety The second section Foundations for Understanding Organizations consists of social science research that provides a foundation for understanding organizational dynamics This section includes readings on decision making and sensemaking organizational culture identification and identity leadership and change organizational learning and teams and crews The third section Understanding Organizations in High Risk Contexts explores organizations that deal regularly with risk uncertainty and crisis This section includes readings on risk and uncertainty high reliability organizing and crisis communication The publication concludes with Internet resources available for those interested in the management of fire organizations PISA 2015 Assessment and
