The Fierce Life of Grace Holmes Carlson Donna T. Haverty-Stacke, 2020-12-29 Shares the story of the revolutionary Marxist and Catholic Grace Holmes Carlson and her life long dedication to challenging social and economic inequality On December 8 1941 Grace Holmes Carlson the only female defendant among eighteen Trotskyists convicted under the Smith Act was sentenced to sixteen months in federal prison for advocating the violent overthrow of the government After serving a year in Alderson prison Carlson returned to her work as an organizer for the Socialist Workers Party SWP and ran for vice president of the United States under its banner in 1948 Then in 1952 she abruptly left the SWP and returned to the Catholic Church With the support of the Sisters of St Joseph who had educated her as a child Carlson began a new life as a professor of psychology at St Mary's Junior College in Minneapolis where she advocated for social justice now as a Catholic Marxist The Fierce Life of Grace Holmes Carlson Catholic Socialist Feminist is a historical biography that examines the story of this complicated woman in the context of her times with a specific focus on her experiences as a member of the working class as a Catholic and as a woman Her story illuminates the workings of class identity within the context of various influences over the course of a lifespan It contributes to recent historical scholarship exploring the importance of faith in workers lives and politics And it uncovers both the possibilities and limitations for working class and revolutionary Marxist women in the period between the first and second wave feminist movements The long arc of Carlson s life 1906 1992 ultimately reveals significant continuities in her political consciousness that transcended the shifts in her particular partisan commitments most notably her life long dedication to challenging the root causes of social and economic inequality In that struggle Carlson ultimately proved herself to be a truly fierce woman
