Society Of Space A Daring Look Into What:

Sociology and Social Research ,1961-10 BOLD NEW WORLD and THE POTENTIALIST MOVEMENT Dr. Freeman Rader Ph.D.,2019-10-30 This very large 465 page book is actually 2 separate but closely related books bound together as one an inspirational novel and a thought provoking philosophy book Together they tell the story of a bold and visionary group of people creating a highly advanced prototype community and way of life based upon applying a philosophy that believes in human potential rather than supernatural forces helps individuals self actualize promotes values and responsibility for SELF SOCIETY and creates harmonious communities in which human potential flourishes This results in happy people doing great things and achieving a tremendous sense of enjoyment and accomplishment in the process something we all seek As the story unfolds a bright progressive group of people in Colorado adopt this new philosophy become part of the Potentialist Movement and focus on how to fund and develop this highly advanced community To meet the challenge the founder Freeman Valor Smith convinces the Hollywood producer Steven Spielman that the story would make a good film thus ingeniously getting the producer to make the development of the project possible by funding its construction as part of the cost of production So the project gets underway But the powerful editor of the local newspaper Norman Sully has a deep grudge against the founder and plans to totally disrupt the group s efforts so he hires an attractive undercover reporter Serene St Haven to infiltrate the group and dig up as much dirt as possible But a romance ensues between the reporter and the founder that changes the situation dramatically So the editor takes drastic measures on his own to sabotage the project What results is an intricate web of romance treachery intrigue and inspiration With great courage this resourceful group of Potentialists overcomes all obstacles and a BOLD NEW WORLD is created which shows what people with the right values in the right environment can accomplish Proceedings of ... National Conference on the Peaceful Uses of Space ,1964 A Manifesto for the Just City Roberto Rocco,Caroline Newton,2023-09-24 This is the third volume in the Manifesto for the Just City series published by TU Delft OPEN Publishing This is a project spearheaded by the Centre for the Just City at the Delft University of Technology The Manifestos in this book endeavour to envision alternative positive urban futures as a counterpoint to prevailing cynicism and political disillusionment This exercise is largely based on the ideas of Professor Faranak Miraftab on practices of hope and decoloniality The 81 Manifestos written by 313 students from 63 universities around the world come in the wake of a four part workshop in October 2022 in which TU Delft together with its many partners invites students from all over the world to listen to the accounts of leading academics and practitioners whose knowledge touches aspects of spatial justice and to articulate their own ideas for what makes the just city The scholars invited in 2022 included Professor Faranak Miraftab from the University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign US Professor Clarissa Freitas from the Federal University of Ceara in Fortaleza Brazil Dr Gynna Millan Franco from the Universidad del Valle in Cali Colombia Professor Vanesa Casta n Broto from the University of Sheffield in the UK and Professor Hiba Bou Akar from Columbia University in New York US Teachers from around the world who use the Manifesto as a class exercise have also contributed with short essays The Centre for the Just City was set up at the Faculty of Architecture and the Built Environment at the Delft University of Technology in response to the pressing challenges of rampant social inequalities affecting the cohesion and the sustainability of cities and communities Recognising the vital need to address these issues the Centre emerged as a platform for research education and outreach activities for the creation of just cities Since its inception the Centre has been at the forefront of bridging theory and practice fostering collaborations and influencing policies and actions that contribute to making cities equitable sustainable and inclusive For more information please visit <https://justcity.org>

Red Square, Black Square Vladislav Todorov, 1995-01-01 This book builds a new vision of the development of Russian revolutionary culture bringing together fiction criticism utopian projects manifestos performance and film theory religious philosophy and the imaginary space of communism centered around the Mummy of Lenin Revolution and modernization are two main issues of the book The author argues that in Modernism the work of art was conceived as a miniature of the world to come thus art was meant to make projects not master pieces He analyzes the genre of the manifesto as a special rhetorical device of modernist discourse and shows how projects of biological and social engineering elaborate a vision of a future human type apt to exist under unprecedented conditions Red Square Black Square traces the process of totalitarian reduction of the modernist impulse into a rigid party doctrine It follows the turbulent development of Russian Modernism through its categorical arrest under the official doctrine of socialist realism Moscow's Red Square is examined as a primal communist space that manifests the symbolism of power Viewing communism as an aesthetically not economically motivated society the book enacts political aesthetics as a discipline that provides the fundamental tool for an adequate and thorough understanding of communism Todorov concludes by discussing the rise of nationalism in Eastern Europe as a post communist condition and the new mission of the intellectuals
