Socio Political Thought In African Literature:

Socio-political Thought in African Literature Gideon-Cyrus Makau Mutiso,1974 African Literature as Political Philosophy Mary Stella Chika Okolo,2013-07-04 The politics of development in Africa have always been central concerns of the continent's literature Yet ideas about the best way to achieve this development and even what development itself should look like have been hotly contested African Literature as Political Philosophy looks in particular at Achebe's Anthills of the Savannah and Petals of Blood by Ngugi wa Thiong'o but situates these within the broader context of developments in African literature over the past half century discussing writers from Ayi Kwei Armah to Wole Soyinka M S C Okolo provides a thorough analysis of the authors differing approaches and how these emerge from the literature She shows the roots of Achebe's reformism and Ngugi's insistence on revolution and how these positions take shape in their work Okolo argues that these authors have been profoundly affected by the political situation of Africa but have also helped to create a new African political philosophy

A Study in African Socio-Political Philosophy Ikechukwu Anthony Kanu,2018-08-31 The present work on African philosophy brings in new freshness into the African philosophical enterprise as it introduces not just thoughts that could be categorized as African philosophy but also thoughts that were borne from the reflections of individual African philosophers It covers a period that could be referred to as modern African philosophy It includes philosophical activities in Africa between the fifteenth century and early part of the twentieth century Writers and Social Thought in Africa Wale Adebani,2017-10-02 Social theory and social theorizing about Africa has largely ignored African literature However because writers are some of the continent's finest social thinkers they have produced and continue to produce works which constitute potential sources for the analysis of social thought and for constructing social theory in and beyond the continent This comprehensive collection examines the relationship between African literature and African social thought It explores the evolution and aesthetics of social thought in African fiction and African writers' conceptions of power and authority legitimacy history and modernity gender and sexuality culture epistemology globalization and change and continuity in Africa This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Contemporary African Studies

The Companion to African Literatures G. D. Killam,Ruth Rowe,2000 Refreshing African Studies Review The entries are knowledgeable thorough and clearly written Highly recommended Choice an ambitious reference guide to works on African literature African Studies Review This comprehensive compendium will be a handy companion for anyone working on African literatures The entries are authoritative and up to date providing reliable information on the hundreds of authors and texts that have contributed to a whole continent's literary flowering Bernth Lindfors A comprehensive introduction and guide to African authored works with over 1 000 cross referenced entries covering classics in African writing literary genres and movements biographical details of authors and wider themes linking African Afro Caribbean and Afro American literatures

Fact - Fiction - "faction" Horst Zander,1999 Nigerian Women in Cultural, Political and Public Spaces Mobolanle

Sotunsa, Anthonia Makwemoisa Yakubu, 2023-11-23 This book will provide empirical engagements of African women in the private and public spaces and their adaptations alterations and and integration of the private and public spaces This approach is contrary to most existing studies which may not necessarily provide contextual and empirical evidences of the debates about the spaces of women or interrogate both the private and public spaces in a single volume This book will offer a novel insight into gender and power dynamics especially as it relates to the cultural spaces private spaces and public spaces which African women occupy and subjugate The fourteen papers in this book critically examine the African women in different positions within the private and public spaces the strong inhibiting presence of patriarchy and the resistance women display to empower themselves South African Literature and Culture Njabulo Simakahle Ndebele, 1994

Described as a prophet of the post apartheid condition Njabulo Ndebele is a prize winning author poet and critic and one of the leading lights in South Africa s literary world These essays beginning in 1984 were written over the storm years of the democratic struggle and are reprinted here with a new introduction by Graham Pechey Chinua Achebe and the

Igbo-African World Chima J. Korieh, Ijeoma C. Nwajiaku, 2022-04-12 Chinua Achebe and the Igbo African World Between Fiction Fact and Historical Representation explores Chinua Achebe s literary works and how they communicated the Igbo African world to readers Engaging in the politics of representation Achebe sought to demystify deterministic views of race and cultural ethnocentrism While his books and commentaries have been very influential in shaping a unique and multifaceted view of the African world some scholars have challenged Achebe s representations of historical reality Through in depth analyses of his writing contributors examine the interpretations Achebe imposed on African culture and history in his texts The chapters cover Achebe s engagement with critical issues like historical representation gender relations and indigenous political institutions in a changing society Throughout contributors present new ways for understanding Achebe s literary works and show how his work draws from African historical reality and identity while challenging Western epistemological hegemony Cycle of Doom: Selected Essays in Discourse and Society Dubem Okafor, 2005-09-01

These essays are essays indeed in the etymological sense of the word in that they try out my ideas on different topics and different texts As they are developed they build up to a climactic crescendo of futility which may be explained in part not by the darkening vision of a wizened and aging man but by the gathering storms which have tended to becloud the nation state of Nigeria The milieu from which my essays emerge has not been conducive to any optimistic or celebratory readings of texts and contexts
