Social Exclusion ,1995      Disaster Studies Janki Andharia,2020-03-25 This book covers several dimensions of disaster studies as an emerging discipline It is the inaugural book in the series Disaster Studies and Management and deals with questions such as Is disaster management a field of practice a profession or simply a new area of study Exploring intersectionalities the book also examines areas of research that could help enhance the discourse on disaster management from policy and practice perspectives revisiting conventional event centric approaches which are the basis for most writings on the subject Several case studies and comparative analyses reflect a critical reading of research and practice concerning disasters and their management The book offers valuable insights into various subjects including the challenge of establishing inter and multi disciplinary teams within the academia involved in disaster studies and sociological and anthropological readings of post disaster memoryscapes Each of the contributors has an enduring interest in disaster studies thus enriching the book immensely This book will be of interest to all the students and scholars of disaster studies and disaster management as well as to practitioners and policymakers      India, the Perfidies of Power P.

Radhakrishnan,2002 Articles      Money and Sustainability Bernard Lietaer,2012-05-30 A report from the Club of Rome EU Chapter to Finance Watch and the World Business Academy Foreword by Dennis Meadows co author of the 1972 Club of Rome report The Limits to Growth      Social Exclusion Amartya Sen,2000 This paper is being issued to promote discussion of social development issues that influence development and poverty reduction It is generally recognized that poverty has both material and non material dimensions Because of their obvious tangibility many development practitioners find it easier to understand and address the material dimensions of poverty      Development of the enterprises' competitiveness in the context of demographic challenges Marzena Grzesiak,Baltic Sea Academy,Max Hogeferster,2013-12-30 This publication relates to the subject of shaping and maintaining high competitiveness and innovation by businesses with particular emphasis on the SME sector in the Baltic Sea Region It is divided into three parts The first part includes the discussion of women s economic activity and their participation in the creation and strengthening of the competitive position of companies The second part is devoted to problems related to the ageing of population in the Baltic Sea Region countries and the potential socio economic impact of this fast growing process The deliberations contained in the second part refer also to the possibilities and conditions for realizing the potential of seniors in the development of competitiveness and innovation of enterprises The third part is a fragmentary overview of achievements related to the factors of competitiveness and innovation of modern enterprises The papers that were presented at a international conference 2013 at the Gdansk

University of Technology are printed in English      Socially Responsive Organizations & the Challenge of Poverty Milenko Gudi?,Al Rosenbloom,Carole Parkes,2017-09-08 This book provides a combination of case studies and current action research describing how businesses and civil society organizations are working to alleviate poverty in local and global communities It intends to provide conceptual and research rationales for why management education and management institutions must address the issue of poverty The book responds to one of the major findings from the research of the PRME Working Group on Poverty that the topic of poverty still lacks a strong business case for management educators and program institutional administrators The distinctive features of this book are that it 1 includes examples of small and medium sized SME businesses 2 deals with the issue of poverty as a human rights violation 3 explores the issue of absolute versus relative poverty 4 deals with leadership challenges in organizations committed to poverty alleviation and 5 discusses the issues in terms of management education s responsibility for setting new management research institutional and intellectual agendas The first of two books to be produced by the PRME Working Group on Poverty Socially Responsive Organizations and The Challenge of Poverty aims to provide both researchers and practitioners with the most wide ranging coverage yet published on how business can be a positive force in alleviating poverty and how management education needs to adapt to this increasingly crucial prerogative

Lepcha,Uttam Lal,2021-11-09 People from India s Northeast have crafted distinct as well as diverse cultural cryptograms discernments and personality which is frequently at loggerheads with the power politics from outside the region Thus attention is often on the societies of the Northeast India as they putter with transforming institutions and more intensive resource consumption in the wake of modernization and development activities This volume is an examination into questions of who exercises control who constructs knowledge ideas about the region and how far such discourses are people centric It inspects how India s Northeast have been understood in colonial and post colonial contexts through the contributions from research scholars and faculties from different academic spaces These contributions are both from within the region as well as from neighbourhood Thus presenting a cross dimensional gaze on social political economic as well as issues related to space relation Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka Social Inclusion and Mental Health Jed Boardman,Helen Killaspy,Gillian Mezey,2022-12-08 A comprehensive account of the multiple ways that people with mental health conditions are marginalised and disadvantaged in our society Perfidies of Power: India in the New Millennium , Multidimensional Poverty Measurement Udaya Wagle,2009-04-05 Conceptualization and measurement of poverty have traditionally relied on purely economic approaches with income or consumption as the only indicator Multidimensional approaches have increasingly been used to understand poverty but have yet to be fully operationalized This book uses factor analysis and structural equations modelling to develop a multidimensional framework that integrates capability and social inclusion as additional poverty indicators The empirical relevance of this methodological contribution is demonstrated through its application in the United States and Nepal The proposed approach not only helps to identify different categories of the poor but also to more accurately target resources and policies of poverty alleviation The book will therefore be an important reference for professionals in development agencies as well as for poverty and policy researchers Evaluating Family Support Ilan Katz,John Pinkerton,2003-08-01 The delivery of effective family support is a key global child welfare issue yet there is little consensus on what constitutes family support or what the best ways are to evaluate it Evaluating Family Support Thinking Internationally Thinking Critically offers a full review of the conceptual and operational problems involved in this complex and topical field Ilan Katz and John Pinkerton have brought together a team of experienced child care policy analysts and evaluators to present the current state of critical thinking alongside detailed international case studies The chapters offer

Benneworth,2012-11-13 This volume provides insightful analysis of the way higher education engages with socially excluded communities Leading researchers and commentators examine the validity of the claim that universities can be active facilitators of social mobility opening access to the knowledge economy for formerly excluded groups The authors assess the extent to which the Academy can deliver on its promise to build bridges with communities whose young people often assume that higher education lies beyond their ambitions The chapters map the core dynamics of the relationship between higher education and communities which have bucked the more general trend of rapidly rising student numbers Contributors also take the opportunity to reflect on the potential impact of these dynamics on the evolution of the university s role as a social institution The volume was inspired by a symposium attended by a wide spectrum of participants including government senior university managers academic researchers and community groups based in areas suffering from social exclusion It makes a substantive contribution to an under researched field with authors seeking to both shape solutions as well as better diagnose the problem Some chapters include valuable contextual analysis using empirical data from North America Europe and Australia to add substance to the debates on policy and theory The volume seeks to offer a defining intellectual statement on the interaction between the concept of a university and those communities historically missing from higher education participation the volume deepens our understanding of what might characterise an engaged university and strengthens the theoretical foundations of the topic      Comparative Literature: Sharing Knowledges for Preserving Cultural Diversity - Volume III Lisa Block de Behar,Paola Mildonian,Jean-Michel Djian,Djelal Kadir,Alfons Knauth,Dolores Romero

Conversations and Transformations Ananta Kumar Giri, 2002-01-01 In this intriguing new book Indian social theorist Ananta Kumar Giri issues a stirring call for scholars of contemporary social theory and practice to grapple with late modernity's most pressing social and political issues Giri counterposes Western thought with Indian social theory in a work that ranges across an array of Indian texts and ideas hitherto ignored by Western scholarship Included along with the mainstays of Indian intellectual thought like Gandhi and Sri Aurobindo are lesser known Indian social theorists economists sociologists and essayists who argue for transcendence of self interest social responsibility and political renewal Thoughtfully argued and lucidly written this work offers the reader a genuine transdisciplinary learning experience going beyond European ethnocentrism to make social theory a truly global conversation

Handbook of Equality of Opportunity, 2024-07-12 This Handbook provides an authoritative exposition of equality of opportunity It presents the different concepts most commonly associated with equality of opportunity and discusses the many problems dominating the controversies on equality of opportunity at the theoretical policy or practical level The chapters give a concise exposition of the different conceptions and basic concepts of equal opportunities They clarify variables that are part of the algorithm of equal opportunities e g opportunity equality non discrimination fairness responsibility chance and choice excellence qualifications effort talent merit desert inequality and risk The idea of equality of opportunity has traditionally been associated with a set of largely unquestioned ideals and over the last 50 years it has been at the very centre of the major progressive social changes and firmly entrenched in political rhetoric Yet the idea of equality of opportunity is far from unquestionable or unproblematic as the only solid assumption different conceptions have in common is their rejection of fixed social relations but not hierarchy itself Disagreements over the fundamental principles criticism over the inefficiency of policies aiming to ensure equal opportunities and objections to their unfairness all pose questions that current conceptions answer in different ways This Handbook examines a wide variety of questions about issues of motivation procedures genealogy taxonomy and compensation

Homelessness Kennett, Patricia, Marsh, Alex, 1999-09-15 The issue of homelessness has become extremely important in policy debates during the 1990s Yet analysis that links the phenomenon of homelessness to wider debates about the changing social and economic environment remains relatively underdeveloped This important new book brings together contemporary theoretical debates and original empirical research in order to explore the nature experience and impact of social change in the new landscape of precariousness in which new sets of risks and uncertainties have emerged It adopts a multi disciplinary approach which is essential in developing a more subtle understanding of both the complex processes leading to and the experience of homelessness Central to contemporary theory and practice is the enhancement of our understanding of how homelessness disadvantage and social exclusion impact differently on various social groups Homelessness provides a strong contribution to the academic debate and is essential reading for students and researchers in a range of subject areas including housing studies social policy socio legal studies and public administration
