compelling and exhaustive review of existing scholarship and state of the art original empirical analysis is essential reading for graduates and academics researching the field

Explaining Civil Society Development Lester M. Salamon, S. Wojciech Sokolowski, Megan A. Haddock, 2017-09-15 How historically rooted power dynamics have shaped the evolution of civil society globally The civil society sector made up of millions of nonprofit organizations associations charitable institutions and the volunteers and resources they mobilize has long been the invisible subcontinent on the landscape of contemporary society For the past twenty years however scholars under the umbrella of the Johns Hopkins Comparative Nonprofit Sector Project have worked with statisticians to assemble the first comprehensive empirical picture of the size structure financing and role of this increasingly important part of modern life What accounts for the enormous cross national variations in the size and contours of the civil society sector around the world Drawing on the project's data Lester M Salamon S Wojciech Sokolowski Megan A Haddock and their colleagues raise serious questions about the ability of the field's currently dominant preference and sentiment theories to account for these variations in civil society development Instead using statistical and comparative historical materials the authors posit a novel social origins theory that roots the variations in civil society strength and composition in the relative power of different social groupings and institutions during the transition to modernity Drawing on the work of Barrington Moore Dietrich Rueschemeyer and others Explaining Civil Society Development provides insight into the nonprofit sector's ability to thrive and perform its distinctive roles Combining solid data and analytical clarity this pioneering volume offers a critically needed lens for viewing the evolution of civil society and the nonprofit sector throughout the world

Countering Discrimination in Social Work Bogdan Lesnik, 2017-07-05 Discrimination Isn't there enough talk about discrimination Yes indeed That is why we have to begin countering discrimination We need strategies that will make it inoperative or at least limit its scope But first we need to think how discrimination works and identify it where it works It concerns far more than mere procedural hitches for which a few legal provisions will do Countering Discrimination Volume 1998 of International Perspectives in Social Work yearbook brings papers that analyse mechanisms of social discrimination in a variety of such locations and bring proposals for counter strategies This is essential in social work if causes rather than manifestations of the problems it is concerned with are to be addressed But it is also essential that everybody who opposes discrimination recognise its subtle and dispersed ways of operation in the human services regardless of their own basic field of work In this respect the book will be useful to a very wide audience

SOCIAL SYSTEMS AND TRANSFORMATION OF SOCIETY Patrick K. Kalifungwa, 2025-03-19 All knowledge including the most basic taken for granted common sense knowledge of everyday reality is derived from and maintained by social interaction In their model people interact on the understanding that their perceptions of everyday life are shared with others and this common knowledge of reality is in turn reinforced by this interaction Social structure can also be said to be the framework upon which a society is established It determines the norms and patterns of relations between the various institutions of the society Social norms are believed to influence social structures through relations between the majority and the minority As those who align with majority are considered normal and those who align with the minority are considered abnormal majority minority relations create a hierarchical stratification within social structures that favors the majority in all aspects of society Social theory by definition is used to make distinctions and generalizations among different types of societies and to analyze modernity as it has emerged in the past few centuries Social thought provides general theories to explain actions and behavior of society as a whole encompassing sociological political and philosophical ideas Social transformation in this context requires a shift in collective consciousness of a society local state national or global so that reality is refined by consensus This often happens by external stimulus and sometimes intentionally Social transformations are such when they sustain overtime where attitudes and values are held in a completely new context or paradigm based upon different assumptions and beliefs Mindset is an established set of attitudes especially regarded as typical of a particular group social or cultural values the outlook philosophy or values of a person now also more generally frame of mind attitude frechte and disposition A mindset may also arise from a person s world view or philosophy of life Ideas are just thoughts but implementing and acting on these ideas in our own lives is what will make it habitual and allowing a change in mind set

Democracy and Multicultural Education Farideh Salili, Rumjahn Hoosain, 2010-04-01 Democratic political systems and the democratic way of life is aspired by most people around the world Democracy is considered to be morally superior to other forms of political systems as it aspires to secure civil liberties human rights social justice and equality before the law for everyone regardless of their gender culture religion and national origin Enshrined in democracy is separation of religion and state fair and competitive elections of leaders according to a country's constitution which in turn is based on democratic ideals Democracy aspires for people of different backgrounds to live together with their differences intact but all contributing towards a better life for all In today's increasingly pluralistic societies many people of different cultural and national backgrounds are brought together Many have migrated from countries with autocratic political systems Some with religions that require them to behave in different way others with cultures teaching them values of harmony collectivism and conformity as opposed to the culture of their host country emphasizing individualism and cherishing differences Hence in multicultural societies development of pluralistic democracy a democracy which includes respect for diversity is essential A truly multicultural education which is based on the assumption that different cultures will be equally represented in education goes a long way towards education for democratic citizenship Such an education would make students aware of issues of human rights and justice and encourage them to define their own values and ways in which they could contribute to a better world The aim of this volume is to provide a forum for discussion of how multiple social perspectives and personal values can be brought together on common grounds around matters related to democracy Contributions from research and scholarly theoretical work as well as presentation of existing creative models of democracy education will be included Authors from the major democracies will comment on the models and practice of multicultural education in their respective countries to facilitate discussion and learning from each others experiences The Best Country to Give Birth? Linda Bryder, 2023-11-09 In 2012 following his investigation of the deaths of two babies in childbirth at Waikato Hospital Hamilton coroner Gordon Matenga asked Does New Zealand have the safe world leading system the Government says we do or are we losing babies because the balance has swung too far towards the idea that because childbirth is natural then the philosophy of non intervention is best Babies deaths reignite maternity row the New Zealand Herald announced from the introduction by Linda Bryder Is New Zealand the best country to give birth Historian of medicine Linda Bryder explores how New Zealand developed a unique approach to the role of midwives in childbirth in the 1990s and analyses the consequences of that change for mothers and babies The Best Country to Give Birth traces the genesis of the 1990 Nurses Amendment Act which allowed midwives to practise alone in the community back to the homebirth movement of the 1970s and explores the aftermath of the Act including the withdrawal of GPs from maternity care In investigating the consequences of the reforms it uncovers repeated criticism of services and what were deemed preventable deaths from coroners commissioners for health and disability other health professionals including some midwives academic researchers and parents and families How and why does maternity care in Aotearoa differ from other countries How has it shaped the equitable care of our mothers and babies Why have critical reports had so little impact This is a major historical account of an issue at the heart of our maternity care
