

AGENTS OF SOCIALIZATION

In sociology, agents of socialization refer to the individuals, groups, institutions, and experiences that facilitate the socialization process. Agents of socialization can be classified into primary and secondary agents.

PRIMARY AGENTS

Primary agents of socialization are the individuals and groups that have the most direct and sustained contact with an individual during their formative years. The family is the primary agent of socialization, as it is the first and most influential group to socialize an individual. Family members teach children basic social norms, values, language, manners, and social conduct.

SECONDARY AGENTS

Secondary agents of socialization are the individuals, groups, and institutions, that individuals encounter later in life, after their primary socialization has occurred. They include: peers, education, media, and religion. Peers are a significant influence on socialization, especially during adolescence. They provide social support, validation, and guidance on social norms.

The Anthem Companion to Robert Park comes to terms with Robert Park s legacy This companion focuses largely on the work rather than the man a major figure in American sociology during the first half of the past century and encourages readers to consider the virtue of rethinking and rereading the much maligned and frequently misunderstood Park Despite the fact that he wrote with exemplary clarity Park s work has often been ignored by contemporary sociologists The contributions in this companion embrace no singular response to Park but rather present a broad range of responses generally appreciative but also critical Social Process in Hawaii Peter T. Social Process in Hawaii ,1982 The Filipino Migration Experience Mina Roces,2021-10-15 Winner of the New South Wales Premier s History Awards General History Prize 2022 The Filipino Migration Experience introduces a new dimension to the usual depiction of migrants as disenfranchised workers or marginal ethnic groups Mina Roces suggests alternative ways of conceptualizing Filipino migrants as critics of the family and cultural constructions of sexuality as consumers and investors as philanthropists as activists and as historians They have been able to transform fundamental social institutions and well entrenched traditional norms as well as alter the business economic and cultural landscapes of both the homeland and the host countries to which they have migrated Mina Roces tells the story of the Filipino migration experience from the perspective of the migrants themselves drawing on underused primary sources from the migrant archives and more than seventy interviews Bringing together migration studies and Filipina o x American studies The Filipino Migration Experience explores how these migrants have profoundly reshaped the status quo Handbook of Social Services for Asian and Pacific Islanders Noreen Mokuau,1991-11-30 This handbook emphasizes culturally sensitive social services for Asian and Pacific Islanders It integrates conceptual information with concrete hands on application of skills The book is divided into three parts 1 the nature and scope of social services for Asian and Pacific Islanders 2 Asian and Pacific Islander populations and 3 special issues and problems The first section establishes a foundation for culturally sensitive practice through an overview of all Asian and Pacific Islander groups It presents a framework for appropriate intervention with these populations and details the interface of western and eastern psychologies Section two specifically focuses on seven of the largest Asian and Pacific Islander populations in the United States the three largest Asian American groups Chinese Filipino and Japanese the three largest Pacific Islander groups native Hawaiians Samoans and Chamorros and the newest refugee group Vietnamese The contributors provide in depth information on topics critical to culturally sensitive practice such as history sociodemographic description values and behavioral norms and profiles of social and psychological problems then discuss appropriate social service intervention Finally section three addresses special problems and issues confronting Asian and Pacific Islanders in contemporary society such as family violence aging and social literacy It is projected that in the year 2030 one of every three Americans will be a person of color It is essential that social and human service educators and providers begin to examine critically those components that constitute culturally sensitive practice for a historically neglected population This book will be an essential part of that process Hawaii's War Years Gwenfread Allen, 2021-05-25

When war struck December 7 1941 the people of Hawaii were not unprepared Within minutes after bombs fell on Pearl Harbor a well rehearsed disaster relief plan went into full operation Thousands of volunteers of all ages and races toiled selflessly to bring order out of chaos Even before the pall of smoke had died away air raid trenches had begun to crisscross lawns By nightfall windows were blacked out curfew stilled the darkness and citizen soldiers stood girded for a last ditch fight During the following tension ridden days the entire populace was fingerprinted and inoculated gas masks were issued and evacuation kits prepared Barbed wire entanglements taped windows sandbag barricades camouflaged buildings gas alarms everywhere were constant grim reminders of total war No other American community felt the tensions and shapeless fears the Islands knew during those first months after Pearl Harbor And as the Pacific war progressed no other American community felt its impact so much as Hawaii Headquarters area training staging and supply area repair base Hawaii served as the springboard of the Pacific offensive Hordes of troops and war workers deluged the Islands land and buildings were taken over by the armed forces Controls of every type plagued businesses and individuals No phase of Island living was left untouched by the war Hawaii's War Years 1941 1945 the official history of Hawaii's dramatic part in World War II is a comprehensive unbiased account based on material collected over a six year period by the Hawaii War Records Depository Written by an Island newspaperwoman with the proper perspective for a subject of such scope the book does not attempt to render judgments It is primarily a book of record a straightforward presentation of facts Seeking Common Ground

Donna Gabaccia, 1992-10-30 This book is the first interdisciplinary reader focusing on immigrant women in the United States Part I includes three chapters by a historian a sociologist and an anthropologist summarizing the way research on immigrant women has developed in the three disciplines Parts II and III focusing on Immigrant Women of the Past and Immigrant Women Since 1920 provide empirical and interpretive essays on immigrant women from Europe Latin America and Asia The chapters explore such themes as women in the migration process the role of gender in the creation of American ethnic identities and the comparability of today's immigrant women with those of the past Seeking Common Ground is the first interdisciplinary reader focusing on immigrant women in the United States By providing a basis for comparison between both different ethnic groups and different disciplinary approaches the volume aims to encourage interdisciplinary communication and research After the editor's introduction the volume begins with three chapters Part I by a historian a sociologist and an anthropologist summarizing the way research on immigrant women has developed in the three disciplines Parts II and III focusing on Immigrant Women of the Past and Immigrant Women Since 1920 provide empirical and interpretive essays on immigrant women from Europe Latin America and Asia The chapters explore such themes as women in the migration process the role of gender in the creation of American ethnic identities and the comparability of today's immigrant women with those of the past The work will be of interest to individuals from all disciplines who are concerned with women's studies in general and immigrant women in particular The Plantation Edgar Tristram Thompson, 1957 Hawaiian History Richard Lightner, 2004-08-30 Hawaii has been referred to as the crossroads of the Pacific This book illustrates how many world cultures and customs meet in the Hawaiian Islands providing a chronological overview highlighted by extracts from important works that express Hawaii's unique history This work starts with chronological chapters on general and ancient Hawaiian history and continues through early Western contact the 19th century and Hawaii's annexation to the United States Topics include politics religion social issues business ethnic groups and race relations The Ethnic Studies Story Ibrahim G. Aoude, 1999-04-01 This volume situates the rise of ethnic studies in the context of Hawaii's political and economic development Barack Obama, The Aloha Zen President Michael Haas, 2011-01-19 With a foreword written by former presidential candidate Michael Dukakis this book portrays President Barack Obama as a true child of Hawaii and explains why he believes that America can achieve even more greatness by learning from the multicultural customs of the 50th state Obama's aspiration to transform the United States using Hawaii as his model has been a conspicuous theme in his books and speeches over the years In them he extols Hawaii's multicultural ethos describing how a normative problem solving mindset predicated on mutual respect and harmonious interchange is inculcated in the culture politics and society of the Islands Indeed this Aloha Spirit is imbued in Barack Obama is part of what made him irresistibly charismatic as a candidate and explains why voters in 2010 were baffled at his demeanor after he became the 44th President of the United States This unique book examines Obama's decisions as an adult and as president and exposes how they are directly linked to the culture of Hawaii and Obama's multicultural life as a child The author and contributors also describe the ways in which native Hawaiians were dispossessed of their sovereignty and their land how they steadfastly sought justice and how their quest served as a model for Obama's mobilization of support for his candidacy Social Process in Hawaii Kiyoshi Ikeda, Michael G. Wezinstein, 1982
