Social Relations And Innovation Changing The State Of Play In Hospitals:

Social Relations and Innovation David J. Hall,1977 The Ceremonial Order of the Clinic P.M. Strong,Robert Dingwall,2018-02-05 This title was first published in 2001 A classic ethnographic study of the interactions between paediatricians and parents of children thought to be neurologically handicapped Strong used this work to systematize the often chaotic ideas of Erving Goffman to explore the connections between micro and macro analysis in sociology and to reflect on the nature of medical practice in modern liberal societies The book stands as a testament to Strong s pursuit of methodological rigour in qualitative sociology Interpretive Phenomenology Patricia Benner,1994-05-17 Theoretical foundation for nursing as a science Ragnar Fjelland and Eva Gjengedal Is a science of caring possible Margaret J Dunlop A Heideggerian phenomenological perspective on the concept of person Victoria W Leonard Hermeneutic phenomenology a methodology for family health and health promotion study in nursing Karen A Plager Toward a new medical ethics implications for ethics in nursing David C Thomasma The tradition and skill of interpretive phenomenology in studying health illness and caring practices Patricia Benner MARTIN a computer software program on listening to what the text says Nancy L Diekelmann Robert Schuster and Sui Lun Lam Beyond normalizing the role of narrative in understanding teenage mothers transition to mothering Lee Smithbattle Patients caring practices with schizophrenic offspring Catherine A Chesla Parenting in public parental participation and involvement in the care of their hospitalized child Philip Darbyshire A clinical ethnography of stroke recovery Nancy D Doolittle Moral dimensions of living with a chronic illness autonomy responsibility and limits of control Patricia Benner Susan Janson Bjerklie Sandra Ferketich and Gay Becker The ethical context of nursing care of dying patients in critical care Peggy L Wros The ethics of ambiguity and concealment around cancer interpretations through a local Italian world Deborah R Gordon Narrative methodology in disaster studies rescuers of Cyprus Cynthia M Stuhlmiller Clinical Supervision and Mentorship in Nursing Tony Butterworth,Jean Faugier,2013-12-14 Problems of a Sociology of Knowledge (Routledge Revivals) Max Scheler,2012-11-12 First Published in 1980 Manfred S Frings translation of Problems of a Sociology of Knowledge makes available Max Scheler s important work in sociological theory to the English speaking world The book presents the thinker s views on man s condition in the twentieth century and places it in a broader context of human history This book highlights Scheler as a visionary thinker of great intellectual strength who defied the pessimism that many of his peers could not avoid He comments on the isolated fragmented nature of man s existence in society in the twentieth century but suggests that a World Age of Adjustment is on the brink of existence Scheler argues that the approaching era is a time for the disjointed society of the twentieth century to heal its fractures and a time for different forms of human knowledge to come together in global understanding Resources in Education ,2001-04 Evaluation and Social Research Irene Hall,2017-03-14 Evaluation is a large and growing field with applications to a wide range of disciplines including sociology social work social policy psychology health nursing education community development etc

This text explains the different perspectives and needs of researchers and practitioners at the local level in plain accessible English and develops a model for small scale evaluation It offers a practical approach to the challenges of evaluation research well illustrated with examples and suitable for students and practitioners alike The New Criminology Ian Taylor, Ian Taylor, M.B, Paul Walton, Jock Young, 2002-11 A major contribution to criminology in which Taylor Walton and Young provide a framework for a fully social theory of crime Practical Social Research David Hall, 1996-07-03 Practical Social Research is a working guide to doing real life research in the local community Based on the authors own practice it proposes a partnership between students and community organisations that both meets community needs and develops students research skills The book provides detailed coverage of the scientific ethnographic and feminist traditions in social research data collection and analysis together with information on how to go about negotiating viable projects developing personal transferable skills and presenting and assessing reports Child's Play Thomas D. Yawkey, Anthony D. Pellegrini, 2018-01-02 Originally published in 1984 a major purpose of this book was to bring together in a single volume work that reflects the wide range of interests that social and behavioural scientists have in play development and the environment The intent of the book was to refine and extend concepts and methodologies within and beyond one's usual area of study The idea was that this formula and direction would yield novel information and fresh insights The volume encompasses a wealth of topics concerning structural functional and pragmatic aspects of play during early childhood and childhood and includes strong emphasis on methodological as well as substantive concerns It was hoped that the chapters here would inspire a new generation of research extending knowledge both in theoretical and applied areas Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965-70 The Hospitalized Child Psychosocial Issues Dianna L. Akins, Gillian S. Mace, Faren R. Akins, 1981-09 The Hospitalized Child Psychosocial Issues is a comprehensive abstracted bibliography focusing on the behavioral and developmental consequences of short term long term or recurrent hospitalization during childhood and adolescence The emphasis of this volume is on the psychosocial issues related to the hospital experience environment rather than on adaptation to or coping with particular disease states or terminal illness Publications are included which identify potential problems of hospitalization coping mechanisms of patients parents and staff and possible solutions For example the articles covered in this volume discuss the trauma which may result from the child's separation from mother family peers anxiety over medical procedures unfamiliarity of the hospital environment absence from school restrictions on physical activity forced dependency and concerns over body image The search for solutions to adaptation difficulties often results in the creation of new hospital programs These too are reviewed in this bibliography Examples include child life programs the care by parent units foster grandparent surrogate mother programs and hospital or surgical orientation programs New therapeutic approaches have been attempted in a hospital setting including bibliotherapy puppet therapy play therapy and mutual story telling techniques Each of these innovations is represented in the bibliography Further hospital redesign schemes are reviewed including the feasibility of separate adolescent wards And finally modification of hospital policy has been examined including establishment of liberal visiting privileges parent rooming in day v vi PREFACE surgery and improved communication between patient parent and hospital staff

Children's Folklore Brian Sutton-Smith, Jay Mechling, Thomas W. Johnson, Felicia McMahon, 2012-10-12 A groundbreaking collection of essays on a hitherto underexplored subject that challenges the existing stereotypical views of the trivial and innocent nature of children's culture this work reveals for the first time the artistic and complex interactions among children Based on research of scholars from such diverse fields as American studies anthropology education folklore psychology and sociology this volume represents a radical new attempt to redefine and reinterpret the expressive behaviors of children The book is divided into four major sections history methodology genres and setting with a concluding chapter on theory Each section is introduced by an overview by Brian Sutton Smith The accompanying bibliography lists historical references through the present representing works by scholars for over 100 years
