With a Chapter by Mario Tonti, D.S.W.

In this text, the authors examine the problems of the frail elderly, explicate the practice skills required in addressing these problems, and introduce the auxiliary function model. Primarily intended for social work practitioners and students, other professionals who work closely with the elderly — physicians, nurses, teachers, researchers — also will find the book useful.

Gerontological Social Work Supervision

Carlton Munson, Ann Burack Weiss, Frances C Brennan, 2014-02-25 This unique book clearly depicts a need for supervision in gerontological social work settings and provides a framework for approaching supervision Grounded in two distinct bodies of literature social work supervision and gerontological social work this important book thoroughly examines present gerontological practice and principles and focuses on the stages and styles of helping and teaching case workers to improve agency efficiency Gerontological Social Work Supervision assumes some gerontological knowledge and experience with aging on the part of the supervisor yet provides an abundance of informative and practical methods to aid agency success rates with their clients The authors discuss the supervisory position as a positive asset in all aspects of case work and management Throughout the chapters the value of a supervisor is compounded whether the supervisor is helping a worker in seeing a broader scope of the field of social work with the elderly providing guidance through gray areas of ethics or teaching practice skills for work with individuals groups or families the need for an involved and prepared case worker supervisor becomes increasingly clear through the theories and scenarios presented Extensive examples and helpful considerations make this an invaluable book for agency supervisors and workers An entire chapter is devoted to providing supervision in the educational arena promoting a greater awareness of gerontological social work in students preparing for the field The appendices are packed with lists of additional works on supervision in social work bibliographies of selected readings in case management entitlement long term care and family caregiving

Mental Health and the Elderly Francis J. Turner, 2010-06-15 The demographic shift to a much older population is having a large impact on social work professionals who have traditionally been the primary caretakers of the elderly As more people are living into advanced old age it is becoming increasingly important to understand and treat the wide range of psychological disorders which may affect them rather than simply attributing the disorders to senescence as was frequently done in the past Mental Health and the Elderly A Social Work Perspective is a comprehensive guide to diagnosis and treatment of the range of disorders affecting the elderly

New Developments in Home Care Services for the Elderly Lenard W Kaye, 2013-11-19 This anthology responds to the recurring call for quality in home care service provision It presents to agency administrators managers supervisors and front line service providers a set of the most up to date policy program and practice developments in the field Each contributor to New Developments in Home Care Services for the Elderly explores issues of client staff diversity and the challenges associated with working with clients grappling with disabling conditions Contributors in New Developments in Home Care Services for the Elderly explore issues of client staff diversity and the challenges associated with working with clients grappling with various disabling conditions Topics addressed include alternative organizational models in home care the importation of high technology services into the home legal and ethical issues in home health care counseling homebound clients and their families clinical assessment tools and packages case management and the home care client home care entitlements and benefits evaluating and monitoring the effectiveness of in home care marketing home health care services home care service experiences in other countries New Developments in Home Care Services for the elderly covers a continuum of care ranging from housekeeping services to self care education teaching and training services to nursing and medically related services Consequently the information contained within this volume is of immediate relevance to a multidisciplinary audience having both direct field and indirect office service responsibilities in the home care organization

The Lioness in Winter Ann Burack-Weiss, 2015-10-13 When she started working with the aged more than forty years ago Ann Burack Weiss began storing the knowledge and skills she thought would help when she got old herself It was not until she hit her mid seventies that she realized she had packed sneakers to climb Mount Everest not anticipating the crevices and chasms that constitute the rocky terrain of old age The professional gerontological and social work literature offered little help so she turned to the late life works of beloved women authors who had bravely climbed the mountain and sent back news from the summit Maya Angelou Colette Simone de Beauvoir Joan Didion Marguerite Duras M F K Fisher Doris Lessing Mary Oliver Adrienne Rich May Sarton and Florida Scott Maxwell were among the many guides she turned to for inspiration In The Lioness in Winter Burack Weiss blends an analysis of key writings from these and other famed women authors with her own wisdom to create an essential companion for older women and those who care for them She fearlessly examines issues such as living with loss finding comfort and joy in unexpected places and facing disability and death This book is filled with powerful passages from women who turned their experiences of aging into art and Burack Weiss ties their words to her own struggles and epiphanies framing their collective observations with key insights from social work practice Teaching Gerontological Social Work,1999 Gerontological Social Work Robert Lawrence Schneider,Nancy P. Kropf,1992 Confused minds, burdened families : finding help for people with Alzheimer's and other dementias. , Handbook of Gerontological Services Abraham Monk,1985 Integrating Gerontology Into the BSW Curriculum Robert Lawrence Schneider,Nancy P.
