Social Constructionist Psychology A Critical Analysis Of Theory And Practice:

Social Constructionist Psychology Nightingale , David,Cromby , John,1999-09-01 This work explores the growing conviction that dominant trends in social constructionism are inadequate or incomplete and risk preventing social constructionism from maturing into a viable and coherent body of theory method and practice Social Constructionism Vivien Burr,2024-11-15 The fourth edition of this seminal work introduces students to social constructionism Using a variety of examples from everyday experience and from existing research in areas such as personality sexuality and health it clearly explains the basic theoretical assumptions of social constructionism Drawing on a range of empirical studies the book clearly defines the various approaches to social constructionist theory and research and explores the theoretical and practical issues they raise It presents and analyses key debates such as the nature and status of knowledge truth reality and the self in an accessible style The new edition has been updated with relevant and contemporary references to aid understanding of key theoretical and methodological issues The author additionally utilises new illustrative examples from research and contemporary life such as the MeToo movement BlackLivesMatter and Post Truth politics The updated work has also been expanded to include an extended discussion of affect and embodiment and a number of exercises to help illustrate important concepts Social Constructionism extends and updates the material covered in previous editions and will be an invaluable and informative resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students of Psychology Sociology Education and other related disciplines The Cambridge Handbook of Political Psychology Danny Osborne,Chris G. Sibley,2022-02-24 The Cambridge Handbook of Political Psychology provides a comprehensive review of the psychology of political behaviour from an international perspective Its coverage spans from foundational approaches to political psychology including the evolutionary personality and developmental roots of political attitudes to contemporary challenges to governance including populism hate speech conspiracy beliefs inequality climate change and cyberterrorism Each chapter features cutting edge research from internationally renowned scholars who offer their unique insights into how people think feel and act in different political contexts By taking a distinctively international approach this handbook highlights the nuances of political behaviour across cultures and geographical regions as well as the truisms of political psychology that transcend context Academics graduate students and practitioners alike as well as those generally interested in politics and human behaviour will benefit from this definitive overview of how people shape and are shaped by their political environment in a rapidly changing twenty first century Place Attachment Lynne C. Manzo,Patrick Devine-Wright,2013-08-15 Recipient of the 2014 EDRA Achievement Award Place attachments are emotional bonds that form between people and their physical surroundings These connections are a powerful aspect of human life that inform our sense of identity create meaning in our lives facilitate community and influence action Place attachments have bearing on such diverse issues as rootedness and belonging placemaking and displacement mobility and migration intergroup conflict civic engagement social housing and urban redevelopment natural resource management and global climate change In this multidisciplinary book Manzo and Devine Wright draw together the latest thinking by leading scholars from around the globe capturing important advancements in three areas theory methods and application In a wide range of conceptual and applied ways the authors critically review and challenge contemporary knowledge identify significant advances and point to areas for future research This volume offers the most current understandings about place attachment a critical concept for the environmental social sciences and placemaking professions Africa and Navigating the Current Global Crisis Emmanuel D.

Babatunde,Kelebogile T. Setiloane,2025-07-21 Dealing with real world issues that impact people at all levels this powerful interdisciplinary collection makes important connections between ideas and concepts across different disciplines providing readers with a comprehensive overview of how Africa and its Diaspora have been navigating the current global crisis

Decentralization in Environmental Governance Christian Zuidema,2016-10-04 Decentralization in Environmental Governance is a critical reflection on the dangers and risks of governance renewal warning against one sided criticism on traditional command and control approaches to planning The book formulates the arguments that support when and how governance renewable might be pursued but this attempt is not just meant for practitioners and scholars interested in governance renewal It is also useful for those interested in the challenge of navigating a plural landscape of diverse planning approaches which are each rooted in contrasting theoretical and philosophical positions The book develops a strategy for making argued choices between alternative planning approaches despite their theoretical and philosophical positions It does so by revitalizing the idea that we can contingently relate alternative planning approaches to the circumstances encountered It is an idea traced to contingency studies of the mid and late 20th century reinterpreted here within a planning landscape dominated by notions of uncertainty complexity and socially constructed knowledge This approach called Post contingency is both a theoretical investigation of arguments for navigating the theoretical plurality we face and an empirical study into renewing environmental governance Next to its theoretical ambitions Decentralization in Environmental Governance is practical in offering a constructive critique on current processes of governance renewal in European environmental governance

An Existential Approach to Interpersonal Trauma Marc Boaz,2022-03-24 An Existential Approach to Interpersonal Trauma provides a new existential framework for understanding the experiences of interpersonal trauma building on reflections from Marc Boaz s own personal history clinical insight and research The book suggests that psychology psychotherapy and existentialism do not recognise the significance of the existential movements that occur in traumatic confrontations with reality By considering what people find at the limits and boundaries of human experiencing Boaz describes the ways in which they can disillusion and re illusion themselves and how this becomes incorporated into their modes of existing in the world and in relation to others In incorporating the experience of trauma into the way people live all the existential horror terror and liberation contained within it Boaz invites them to embrace an expansive ethic of re discovery This ethic recognises the ambiguity and spectrality of interpersonal trauma and expands the horizons of our human relationships The book provides an important basis for professionals wanting to work existentially with interpersonal trauma and for people wanting to deepen their understanding of the trauma they have experienced Challenging Entrepreneurship Research Hans Landstrom,Annaleena Parhankangas,Alain Fayolle,Philippe Riot,2016-06-10 The growth of entrepreneurship research has been accompanied by an increased convergence and institutionalization of the field In many ways this is of course positive but it also represents how the field has become mainstream with the concomitant risk that individual scholars become embedded in a culture and incentive system that emphasizes and rewards incremental research questions while reducing the incentives for scholars to conduct challenging research This book challenges this status quo from accepted theories methodologies and paradigmatic assumptions to the relevance or lack of for contemporary practice and the impact of key journals on scholars directions in entrepreneurship research An invited selection of the younger generation of scholars within the field of entrepreneurship research adopt a critical and constructive posture on what has been achieved in entrepreneurship research the main assumptions which underly it but also open up new paths for creative entrepreneurship research in the future This is a must read for all scholars educators and advanced students in entrepreneurship research The Routledge Handbook of Language and Intercultural Communication Jane Jackson,2020-04-29 The Routledge Handbook of Language and Intercultural Communication provides a comprehensive historical survey of language and intercultural communication studies with a critical assessment of past and present theory research and practice as well as an insight into future directions Drawing on the expertise of leading scholars from different parts of the world this second edition offers updated chapters by returning authors and many new contributions on a broad range of topics including reflexivity and criticality translanguaging and social justice in relation to intercultural communication With an emphasis on contemporary critical perspectives this handbook showcases the varied range of issues perspectives and approaches that characterise this increasingly important field in today s globalised world Offering 34 chapters with examples from a variety of languages and international settings this handbook is an indispensable resource for students and scholars working in the fields of intercultural communication applied linguistics TESOL TEFL and communication studies Language and Emotion. Volume 1 Gesine Lenore Schiewer,Jeanette Altarriba,Bee Chin Ng,2022-11-07 The Handbook consists of four major sections Each section is introduced by a main article Theories of Emotion General Aspects Perspectives in Communication Theory Semiotics and Linguistics Perspectives on Language and Emotion in Cultural Studies Interdisciplinary and Applied Perspectives The first section presents interdisciplinary emotion theories relevant for the field of language and communication research including the history of emotion research The second section focuses on the full range of emotion related aspects in linguistics semiotics and communication theories The next section focuses on cultural studies and language and emotion emotions in arts and literature as well as research on emotion in literary studies and media and emotion The final section covers different domains social practices and applications such as society policy diplomacy economics and business communication religion and emotional language the domain of affective computing in human machine interaction and language and emotion research for language education Overall this Handbook represents a comprehensive overview in a rich diverse compendium never before published in this particular domain

Understanding "Knowledge", The Essential Approach To Teaching & Learning: Case Studies Of Pre-universities In Singapore Ching Leen Chiam, 2018-01-03 This pioneering text contributes to the theory and practice of teaching and learning The purpose is to unlock how key stakeholders of the spectrum of pre universities in Singapore make sense of knowledge and knowledge work and endeavour to determine how their understanding of knowledge shapes their understanding of knowledge work and the conditions that affect their knowledge work This monograph contributes in a most productive fashion to the necessary educational debates on teaching and learning which quickly segue into pragmatic political debates about what sort of society and global community we desire Using three widely diverse pre university settings in Singapore as case studies this book seeks to fill the existing gap by elucidating educators and students identification of knowledge knowledge work and the problems and challenges confronting knowledge work

Unfolding Social Constructionism Fiona J. Hibberd, 2006-11-24 For more than half of the 20 century psychologists sought to locate the causes of behaviour in individuals and tended to neglect the possibility of locating the psychological in the social In the late 1960s a reaction to that neglect brought about a crisis in social psychology This crisis did not affect all social psychologists some remained seemingly oblivious to its presence others dismissed its significance and continued much as before But in certain quarters the psychological was re conceptualised as the social and the social was taken to be sui generis Moreover the possibility of developing general laws and theories to describe and explain social interaction was rejected on the grounds that as social beings our actions vary from occasion to occasion and are for many reasons unrepeatable There is so it was thought an inherent instability in the phenomena of interest The nomothetic ideal was said to rest on individualistic cause effect positivism of the kind which arguably characterised the natural sciences but social psychology so it was said is an historical inquiry and its conclusions are necessarily historically relative Gergen 1973 Events outside psychology converged to give impetus to the crisis within

Understanding Criminological Research John Martyn Chamberlain, 2012-11-09 Criminological research lies at the heart of criminological theory influences social policy development as well as informs criminal justice practice The ability to collect analyse and present empirical data is a core skill every student of criminology must learn Written as an engaging step by step guide and illustrated by detailed case studies this book guides the reader in how to analyse criminological data Key features of the book include o Guidance on how to identify a research topic designing a research study accounting for the role of the researcher and writing up and presenting research findings o A thorough account of the development of qualitative and quantitative research methodologies and data analysis within the field of criminology o Relevant and up to date case studies drawn from internationally published criminological research sources o Clear and accessible chapter content supported by helpful introductions concise summaries self study questions and suggestions for further reading Understanding Criminological Research A Guide to Data Analysis is invaluable reading for both undergraduate and postgraduate students in criminology and criminal justice

Virtual Selves, Real Persons Richard S. Hallam, 2012-04-19 This book looks at how to define persons and selves and the ways in which different disciplines have dealt with this topic The Madness of Women Jane Professor Ussher, Jane M. Ussher, 2011-03-28 Nominated for the 2012 Distinguished Publication Award of the Association for Women in Psychology Why are women more likely to be positioned or diagnosed as mad than men If madness is a social construction a gendered label as many feminist critics would argue how can we understand and explain women s prolonged misery and distress In turn can we prevent or treat women s distress in a non pathologising women centred way The Madness of Women addresses these questions through a rigorous exploration of the myths and realities of women s madness Drawing on academic and clinical experience including case studies and in depth interviews as well as on the now extensive critical literature in the field of mental health Jane Ussher presents a critical multifactorial analysis of women s madness that both addresses the notion that madness is a myth and yet acknowledges the reality and multiple causes of women s distress Topics include The genealogy of women s madness incarceration of difficult or deviant women Regulation through treatment Deconstructing depression PMS and borderline personality disorder Madness as a reasonable response to objectification and sexual violence Women s narratives of resistance This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of psychology gender studies sociology women s studies cultural studies counselling and nursing Practitioner Research at Doctoral Level Pat Drake, Linda Heath, 2010-09-13 The authors of this innovative book explore in detail the challenges faced by doctoral researchers conducting practitioner research today Women and Depression Michelle N. Lafrance, 2009-01-13 This book critically examines the ways in which women negotiate and resist hegemonic discourses of femininity in their struggle to recover from depression and be well The SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Data Analysis Uwe Flick, 2013-12-18 The wide range of approaches to data analysis in qualitative research can seem daunting even for experienced researchers This handbook is the first to provide a state of the art overview of the whole field of QDA from general analytic strategies used in qualitative research to approaches specific to particular types of qualitative data including talk text sounds images and virtual data The handbook includes chapters on traditional analytic strategies such as grounded theory content analysis hermeneutics phenomenology and narrative analysis as well as coverage of newer trends like mixed methods reanalysis and meta analysis Practical aspects such as sampling transcription working collaboratively writing and implementation are given close attention as are theory and theorization reflexivity and ethics Written by a team of experts in qualitative research from around the world this handbook is an essential compendium for all qualitative researchers and students across the social sciences

Philosophical Reflexivity and Entrepreneurship Research Alain Fayolle, Stratos Ramoglou, Mine Karatas-Ozkan, Katerina Nicolopoulou, 2018-05-15

Philosophy is inescapable This is the powerful mantra and call to action of this authoritative and informative collection of essays Acting upon the conviction that empirical scrutiny only takes us so far in understanding the full nature of entrepreneurship this text provides a set of thoughtful and refreshing commentaries on the different ways in which philosophical assumptions shape entrepreneurship research Entrepreneurship scholarship will be richer for the reading of it Denise Elaine Fletcher Professor of Entrepreneurship and Innovation University of Luxembourg Luxembourg This book offers the reader a variety of philosophical ideas and approaches to spur reflection on taken for granted assumptions about what entrepreneurship is and the ways entrepreneurship scholars understand this phenomenon The chapters in this book go beyond critiquing current ideas and perspectives rather the book opens up important lines of inquiry in such topic areas as uncertainty the imagination social construction critical realism and the nature of failure I expect that many of the insights from this book will provide directions for major avenues of entrepreneurship scholarship over the next decade Scholars who want clues about the future direction of the entrepreneurship field would be wise to explore this book William B Gartner Bertarelli Foundation Distinguished Professor of Family Entrepreneurship Babson College USA
