Social Relations In A Philippine Town:

Social Relations in a Philippine Town Robert Jay Morais, 1981 Everyday Politics in the Philippines Benedict J. Kerkvliet, 2002 Focusing on a rice farming village in central Luzon Kerkvliet argues that the faction and patron client relationships dealt with by conventional studies are only one part of Philippine political life Social Relations in a Philippine Town, 1981 Power and Intimacy in the Christian Philippines Fenella Cannell, 1999-03-18 What kind of reciprocity exists between unequal partners How can a culture which makes no attempt to defend unchanging traditions be understood as such In the Christian Philippines inequalities global and local are negotiated through idioms of persuasion reluctance and pity Fenella Cannell's study suggests that these are the idioms of a culture which does not need to represent itself as immutable Her account of Philippine spirit mediumship Catholicism transvestite beauty contests and marriage in Bicol calls for a reassessment of our understanding of South East Asian modernity Combining a strong theoretical interest in the anthropology of religion with a broader comparative attention to recent developments in South East Asian studies she offers a powerful alternative to existing interpretations of the relationship between culture and tradition in the region and beyond This book addresses not only South East Asianists but all those with an interest in the anthropology of religion and post colonial cultures Power and Intimacy in the Christian Philippines has won the Harry J Benda prize for 2001 Agrarian Reform in the Philippines Jeffrey M. Riedinger, 1995 This book evaluates the capacity of new democratic regimes to promote redistributive agrarian reform an issue of contemporary concern in countries throughout the world Agrarian reform is particularly complex and difficult for new democracies because it curtails the power and privileges of influential elements of society The author analyzes the problems attendant on political liberalization and social and economic reform by examining in detail the formulation and implementation of agrarian reform in the Philippines under the governments of Corazon Aquino and her successor Fidel Ramos The book explores how the interaction between state and society shapes reform policy decisions paying close attention to the role of cultural variables and social organizations It shows that what is needed for successful agrarian reform is a combination of sustained forceful leadership from a disciplined reform oriented political party and grassroots agitation by peasant organizations Economic Exchange and Social Interaction in Southeast Asia Karl Hutterer, 2020-08-06 Economic behavior is governed by two major sets of boundary conditions environmental and technological factors on the one hand and conditions of social organization on the other hand Indeed social scientists are often particularly interested in the framework of exchange relationships exchange of goods services personnel and information Economic exchanges lend concrete manifestations to social relations that themselves may transcend the economic realm and that otherwise are often difficult to trace Yet in social science research in Southeast Asia the area of economic studies has lagged behind despite the great study potential represented by the tremendous diversity of its physical and human environment Economic Exchange and Social Interaction in Southeast Asia attempts to take advantage of that opportunity As a number of the contributions to this volume show many if not most of the systems organized on very different levels of integration interact with each other Taken as a whole they provide evidence of the incredible diversity of economic and social systems that may be investigated in Southeast Asia

An Anarchy of Families Alfred W. McCoy, 2009 Winner of the Philippine National Book Award this pioneering volume reveals how the power of the country's family based oligarchy both derives from and contributes to a weak Philippine state From provincial warlords to modern managers prominent Filipino leaders have fused family politics and business to compromise public institutions and amass private wealth a historic pattern that persists to the present day Edited by Alfred W. McCoy An Anarchy of Families explores the pervasive influence of the modern dynasties that have led the Philippines during the past century Exemplified by the Osmeñas and Lopezes elite Filipino families have formed a powerful oligarchy controlling capital dominating national politics and often owning the media Beyond Manila strong men such as Ramon Durano Ali Dimaporo and Justiniano Montano have used guns goons and gold to accumulate wealth and power in far flung islands and provinces In a new preface for this revised edition the editor shows how this pattern of oligarchic control has continued into the twenty first century despite dramatic socio economic change that has supplanted the classic three g's of Philippine politics with the contemporary four c's continuity Chinese criminality and celebrity
