 Excerpt from Socialism and Labor And Other Arguments Social Political and Patriotic The interest which all who think take in A the laboring classes whether it spring from sympathy or fear is a characteristic feature of the age Their condition seems to be the great anomaly in our otherwise progressive and brilliant civilization Whether when compared with the lot of the slaves and serfs of former times that of the modern laborer is fortunate is not the question He is not placed in the midst of the poverty and wretchedness of a rude and barbarous society but in the midst of boundless wealth and great refinement He lives too in a democratic age in which all men profess to believe in equality and liberty in an age in which the brotherhood of the race is proclaimed by all the organs of opinion He has a voice in public affairs and since laborers are the majority he is in theory at least the sovereign About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books
